

TIMELY NEWS OF CENTRAL PENNSYLVANIA AND CITY'S SUBURBS

IN THE CUMBERLAND VALLEY

POTATO SURVEY SHOWS BIG CROP

Cumberland County Defense Committee Plans to Sell 100,000 Bushels Surplus

Carlisle, Pa., Aug. 17.—Over 100,000 bushels of potatoes as a surplus can be marketed from Cumberland county this fall, according to preliminary estimates made at the offices of the Cumberland County Defense Committee here on early figures of the potato survey.

THREE-FIFTHS OF MEN SECURED

Cumberland Boards Suspend Examinations Awaiting Result of Exemption Claims

Carlisle, Pa., Aug. 17.—White official figures are lacking, unofficial totals show that but about three-fifths of the required quota of men for the new National Army have been secured in the two districts of Cumberland county. Examinations have been stopped until decision is reached on claims for exemption.

HARRISBURG GIRL WEDS DIVINITY STUDENT

MR. AND MRS. CHARLES R. BEITTEL
Columbia, Pa., Aug. 17.—Charles R. Beittel, a former resident of Columbia, and at present a divinity student in the Moody Bible Institute at Chicago, and Miss Edna F. Balaugh, daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. P. H. Balaugh, formerly of Harrisburg, were married on Saturday evening at the home of the bride's parents, at the parsonage of Salome United Brethren Church.

Victims of Short Mountain Mine Accident Buried

Lykens, Pa., Aug. 17.—The bodies of Lewis Shadle and John Chaurney, who lost their lives in the mine accident at the Short Mountain colliery here on Saturday evening, were recovered on Wednesday, ninety hours after the accident occurred. Foreman Michael Readdy waded through the muck to test the workings for gas and blackdamp and located the whereabouts of the men.

WEST SHORE NEWS

Social and Personal News of Towns Along West Shore

Mrs. Annie Beamer, of Shiremanstown spent Wednesday with her daughter, Mrs. Harry Straining at Eichelberger's Curves. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Sheaffer, of Shiremanstown, are home from a two weeks' visit with friends in Virginia and at Baltimore. Chester Wolfe, of Sharon visited relatives at Shiremanstown, on Wednesday.

VOTERS SELECT MEN FOR OFFICE

Republican and Democratic Parties Hold Naming Meetings at Marysville

Marysville, Pa., Aug. 17.—Wednesday evening in the municipal building naming meetings for the Republican and Democratic parties were held for candidates at the September primaries. In only two instances were the parties' tickets completely filled. They were for judges and inspectors of elections positions. The tickets follow:

Carlisle, Pa., Aug. 17.—Over 100,000 bushels of potatoes as a surplus can be marketed from Cumberland county this fall, according to preliminary estimates made at the offices of the Cumberland County Defense Committee here on early figures of the potato survey.

Carlisle, Pa., Aug. 17.—White official figures are lacking, unofficial totals show that but about three-fifths of the required quota of men for the new National Army have been secured in the two districts of Cumberland county.

Lykens, Pa., Aug. 17.—The bodies of Lewis Shadle and John Chaurney, who lost their lives in the mine accident at the Short Mountain colliery here on Saturday evening, were recovered on Wednesday, ninety hours after the accident occurred.

Marysville, Pa., Aug. 17.—Wednesday evening in the municipal building naming meetings for the Republican and Democratic parties were held for candidates at the September primaries.

Carlisle, Pa., Aug. 17.—Over 100,000 bushels of potatoes as a surplus can be marketed from Cumberland county this fall, according to preliminary estimates made at the offices of the Cumberland County Defense Committee here on early figures of the potato survey.

Carlisle, Pa., Aug. 17.—White official figures are lacking, unofficial totals show that but about three-fifths of the required quota of men for the new National Army have been secured in the two districts of Cumberland county.

Lykens, Pa., Aug. 17.—The bodies of Lewis Shadle and John Chaurney, who lost their lives in the mine accident at the Short Mountain colliery here on Saturday evening, were recovered on Wednesday, ninety hours after the accident occurred.

Marysville, Pa., Aug. 17.—Wednesday evening in the municipal building naming meetings for the Republican and Democratic parties were held for candidates at the September primaries.

15,000 ACRES OF LAND BOUGHT AT STOVERDALE

Johnstown Firm Secures Possession of Abundant Supplies of Ganister Rock

Mifflintown, Pa., Aug. 17.—Junata county is due for a big boom as the result of the sale of 15,000 acres of Junata county land containing abundant supplies of ganister rock to be used in the manufacture of silica brick. The A. J. Haws & Son Company of Johnstown, is the purchaser of the land, which will do much to increase the prosperity of this already prosperous community.

TRINITY U. B. PICNIC

New Cumberland, Aug. 17.—Trinity United Brethren Sunday school will hold a picnic at Reservoir Park on Saturday. Special cars will leave the park at 7:30 p. m. without changing cars. The amusement committee has arranged for the following contests: Two peanut hunts, potato races, shoe race, nailing contest, wheeling match, threading needle contest, half mile race, ball throwing contest, pretzel eating and watermelon contest.

HOME GUARDS TO DRILL

Enola, Pa., Aug. 17.—The home guard company will hold its semi-weekly drill this evening at 7 o'clock on the Y. M. C. A. athletic field. George Blosser, drillmaster, will have charge of the instruction. Drilling had been suspended recently because the drillmaster was on his vacation. This evening a large delegation of recruits will join the company.

VENO CLUB OUTING

West Fairview, Pa., Aug. 17.—Members of the Veno Camping Club will leave tomorrow for a two weeks' camping trip along the Juniata river. The party will be made up of Mrs. William Bankes, J. E. Fagen, Edward Pressler and Miss Eva Forney, of Duncannon.

BIG YIELD OF POTATOES

Marysville, Pa., Aug. 17.—Some big potato stories are coming in from various sections of the country. John Williamson, a Liverpool tiler of the soil, dug a potato from a hill in his garden that weighed two pounds and two ounces. Howard Clark, who farms James Gibney's farm at Pine Grove, reports that he raised 51 bushels of spuds from a single bushel of seed potatoes.

You like your meat cooked Dont you?

Why not your tobacco?

LUCKY STRIKE

the real Burley cigarette

It's toasted

LECTURE ON AFRICA

OLD-FASHIONED BARNRAISING

A FINE THIRST QUENCHER

Horford's Acid Phosphate

5,000 Attend Reunion of Knights of Columbus

Pen Mar, Md., Aug. 17.—About five thousand people gathered for the annual reunion of the Knights of Columbus at Pen Mar yesterday. Of these, 1,600 came on the special train from Baltimore and 400 on the regular train. Among the notable personages on the grounds were James Hamilton Lewis, United States senator from Illinois and Democratic floor leader in that body, and Harry A. Garfield, assistant United States food commissioner, both of whom delivered addresses. Other special guests were State Comptroller Hugh A. McMullen, A. G. Bagley, of Washington, secretary of the committee on war activities, and the Rev. Lewis J. O'Hern, official representative of the American Catholic hierarchy army and navy chaplain bureau. Mayor Preston and the mayors of other Maryland cities were also present.

Carlisle Men Preparing For Service at Camps

Carlisle, Pa., Aug. 17.—To fit themselves for service, Carlisle men who have qualified or who are high up on the draft list and are expecting a call have arranged for the formation of a company. The company will undergo intensive instruction here during the weeks before their departure for the cantonment site at Fort Meade. Lieutenant McLaughlin, former first lieutenant of Company G, Eighth Regiment, and an expert drill master, will be in charge of the men and drills will be held at least three times a week, with special instruction for those men who are to report with the first increment on September 5.

Explosive Caps Discovered in Packages of Dynamite

Waynesboro, Pa., Aug. 17.—The plot of some alien enemy was scented at Gettysburg when employes of two hardware stores found explosive caps wrapped between the folds of the waxed paper which holds sticks of dynamite. The first was first made at the Adams County store and the proprietor at once notified the Gettysburg department store where investigation disclosed the same condition. The DuPont Company, from which the dynamite was purchased, was immediately notified by telegraph. It is said that the caps were so placed in the box would have caused an immediate explosion.

LECTURE ON AFRICA

Mechanicsburg, Pa., Aug. 17.—On Sunday evening the Rev. Mr. Griggs, a missionary from Africa, who contemplates returning to the mission field in October, will give an illustrated lecture on the customs, habits and conditions of missionary work in Africa, at 7:30 o'clock in the Church of God.

OLD-FASHIONED BARNRAISING

Waynesboro, Pa., Aug. 17.—Frank H. Stouffer had a barnraising on his farm near Gettysburg yesterday. Over one hundred persons were present and took part in the affair, and a big dinner was served. The barn was 80x45 feet and replaced one destroyed by fire the early part of June.

Blight Destroying Trees on Sober Chestnut Farm

Sunbury, Pa., Aug. 17.—Chestnut blight is doing much damage to the famous Parson chestnut farm, the Sober farm, in Irish Valley. So great a headway has the scourge made that within the next few years hundreds of thousands of grafted trees may be wiped out.

MAY POSTPONE EXCURSION

Waynesboro, Pa., Aug. 17.—It looks as though the annual school excursion to Baltimore and Harrisburg, will have to be postponed this year. At a meeting held by the various committees last night, they were informed by representatives of the Western Maryland and Cumberland Valley railroads that on account of the transportation of soldiers to their respective cantonments, they could not promise definitely that they could secure trains for this excursion.

Suburban Notes

MILLERSTOWN Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Rounsley are spending several days at Atlantic City. Mr. and Mrs. Howard Cochran, of Harrisburg, visited at the home of F. P. Cathcart. Miss Nellie Thompson, of Huntingdon, spent several days with the Misses Rickabaugh. Miss Edna Rupp and son, Harold, of Cardiff, Md., are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Rounsley. Miss Laura Pellow, of Houtzdale, is visiting her aunts, Misses Sarah and Fannie Noll. Prof. and Mrs. J. O. Charles and baby daughter, are visiting the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Charles, at Roseglenn. Mrs. O. O. Wagner took her son, Orande, to the Harrisburg Hospital on Tuesday, where he was operated on for adenoids. Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Dimm and children, of Springfield, Mass., are visiting the former's father, Lewis Dimm. Miss Ruth Taylor entertained some friends at her home on Tuesday evening, in honor of her cousin, Miss Bessie Vincent, of Houtzdale. Misses Kathryn and Ella Renner, of Altoona, are visiting their grandfather, Peter Attig. Miss Nelle Dasher, of Newark, N. J., was a guest at the home of G. W. Fry. Mrs. William Kauffold, of Lancaster, is visiting her mother, Mrs. Mary Allen. Miss Ruth Ritzman is visiting relatives at Mexico.

HUMMELSTOWN

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Walton, Mrs. Lizzie Baer and Miss Susie Collins have returned from a trip to Lewes, Del. Mrs. Thomas Jones was a visitor in Harrisburg Wednesday. Miss Mary Jones left for a two weeks' visit with friends at Milton. Miss Marjorie Nissley spent a day at Steelton. Frowell Mack, of Schenectady, N. Y., spent several days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Mack. Miss Mildred Angie, of Shippensburg, is the guest of Miss Josephine Burkholder. Misses Alberta and Mary Grove left Wednesday for Atlantic City. Mrs. Sarah Fackler has gone to Canton, Ohio, to spend several weeks with her daughter, Mrs. Charles Leininger.

WILLIAM HARVIE BURIED

Hummelstown, Pa., Aug. 17.—Funeral services for William Harvie took place from his late home yesterday morning. He was aged thirty-nine years, and is survived by his wife and two sons, William and Lindsey. Mr. Harvie was a native of Scotland but had been a resident of the borough for the past twelve years.

ENOLA'S PICNIC AT PAXTANG

Enola, Pa., Aug. 17.—Enola's ninth annual Sunday school picnic was held yesterday at Paxtang Park, Harrisburg. More than 400 persons attended the outing. Baseball games and other events were on the program. To-day the Sunday school picnic of the Real Avenue Church of God was held at Summerdale Park.

THE REV. SHEPLEY TO PREACH

Shiremanstown, Pa., Aug. 17.—The Rev. James Shepley, Vandergrift, will preach at St. John's Country Church on Sunday morning. Preaching services will be resumed in Keller Memorial Lutheran Church, the first Sunday in September.

OUR GROCER TOLD ME

After folks taste Post Toasties they dont like common corn flakes

Schleisner's Men's Shop

Our Alteration Sale Starts Tomorrow Sacrifice Prices Mark the Event

While the builders have not yet completed the work—the operations have progressed well and the store is in shape to hold the sale—

The Sale For Which You Have Waited

To make the choosing easy we have arranged to hold this sale in the women's garment sections—out of the immediate way of the builders—so that you will have plenty of room for selection.

The quality and modes of Schleisner merchandise are so well known that we do not feel it necessary to say more. The prices speak for themselves.

Table with columns: Women's and Misses' Garments in the Alteration Sale, Skirts in the Alteration Sale, Fine Frocks in the Alteration Sale. Lists items and prices.

Schleisner's Men's Shop Alteration Sale of Men's Suits

Table with columns: Underwear and Hosiery in the Alteration Sale. Lists items and prices.