

COAL PRICES TO BE REDUCED BY PRESIDENT

Will Take Action Early Next Week; Big Saving to Be Effected

Washington, Aug. 18.—The President will take action on the coal situation early next week. He carried back to the White House from the Trade Commission a mass of statistics on coal production costs and will go over them to-morrow. His decision probably will be announced Monday.

The President's intention, it was learned authoritatively, is to reduce the present prices not only at the mines but of jobbers and retailers. The Trade Commission's report indicates that operators can sell their bituminous at a price far below the maximum of $3 fixed, at the recent conference between mine managers and government officials and still make a profit.

Under the law the President may fix the price of coal, operate the mines or commandeer stocks and sell to the public at such price as he may determine.

At the Federal Trade Commission this President has gathered on costs of producing coal. The trend of the commission's report on the subject was to urge the President to take over the supply and its distribution.

The President was advised to act quickly in creating an agency authorized by Congress, providing for federal supervision and control of coal production and distribution. The mine workers' representatives stated to the President that agitation by State Councils of Defense, State organizations and State governments looking to State control of coal mining operations and coal production was in their opinion, doing much harm, and that this injurious effect would be overcome only by federal action and federal control.

The President has requested that the agency or authority, through which the government would exercise control over coal production, that representatives of all elements, miners and operators, engaged in the production of coal would be associated.

It was his opinion, based on his knowledge and experience, that co-operation of all forces engaged in coal production could be brought about if they were represented in an advisory capacity or otherwise, with the agency or authority exercising government control.

"We deny most emphatically that either a request or suggestion was made in opposition to a reduction of the selling price of coal. Our mission was for no other purpose than as herein stated."

Implicates Two Others in Theft of Automobile

When Robert Beckley was arraigned before Alderman Nicholas in the police court this afternoon for stealing an automobile from the garage of M. W. Fager, at Second and South streets, yesterday morning, he sprung a real sensation by declaring that he was not alone guilty. He charged Irwin Cable, of New Market, and Samuel Gustwhite, of New Cumberland, with being the real culprits, although he admitted that all three had had a hand in the affair.

Books and Magazines

"The Youth and the Nation" is the title of a new volume by Harry H. Moore, soon to be published by The Macmillan Co. It is described as an attempt to arouse the whole-some interest among young men and older boys of college and high school age in modern social life, to show them how men have made these evils and to suggest vocational opportunities in the warfare against them.

MUCH HEADWAY BEING MADE ON WAR TAX BILL

Only Few Uncontested Provisions Remain to Be Disposed Of

Washington, Aug. 18.—Only a few of the uncontested provisions of the war tax bill remained to be disposed of when the Senate resumed consideration of the measure to-day. Much headway is being made in disposing of important features, among them being the wine and motor vehicle duties.

The Senate provisions levy a surtax of 10 per cent on each $500 value on automobiles costing more than $2,000 in the year in which the tax is levied on gross sales of manufacturers proposed by the House.

An amendment to prevent expenditure of money raised from the bill in transporting men to Europe who have not volunteered for such service was introduced by Senator Gore. The Oklahoma senator said his object was to conserve manpower. He declared that the total number of men of draft age in all the allied countries is nearly equal to the total population of Germany and that there was no dearth in manpower among the European countries now at war with the Central powers.

"What we need most is not men but munitions, arms, weapons and supplies," he said.

The amendment was passed over without action.

On the first roll call taken on the bill the Senate retained, 28 to 27, the committee's provision that a 10-cent stamp tax on transportation of parcel post packages amended so as to exempt packages costing under 25 cents.

Further one-cent tax would be imposed. From the parcel post tax $2,000,000 in revenue is estimated.

FUNERAL MONDAY FOR McILHENNY

Services for Well-Known Businessman and Political Leader to Be at Home

The funeral of John H. McIlhenney, whose death occurred yesterday, will take place Monday afternoon. Services will be conducted at the home, 1324 Derry street, at 3.30. The Rev. Dr. Ellis N. Kromer, pastor of the Holy Cross church, will officiate. Burial will be in East Hills Cemetery. The pallbearers will be nephews of the deceased, John Smith, Melvin Balthaser, Samuel E. Bauser, Samuel McIlhenney, Emory Hassler and Ralph Mumma.

At a meeting last night of the Republican city and county committee resolutions were adopted on the death of J. H. McIlhenney as follows:

"Whereas John H. McIlhenney has been one of our best and most respected citizens and one of the leaders of the Republican party of Dauphin county, therefore be it resolved that the Republican county and city committees extend to the relatives of the deceased their sincere sympathy and as a mark of respect we do now adjourn."

REICHTAG TO DISCUSS POPE'S PEACE EFFORT

Keeps in Touch With Western Situation; I. W. W. Threatens Strike Next Monday

Washington, Aug. 18.—President Wilson is making a personal study of the labor situation in the northwest, especially in Washington, Oregon, Montana and Idaho, where a general strike of the I. W. W. is threatened next Monday.

The President is keeping in touch with the situation through Chief Justice Waite of the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia, his personal investigator, now in the west. Department of Labor corollaries on the ground reported overnight that the situation seemed to have changed slightly for the better, although it was still grave. Officers of mediation have been made in some instances and probably will be made in others to-day.

Department of Justice officials, scanning overnight reports, saw little change in the situation. A recommendation said to have reached a conference yesterday among Governor Lister, of Washington, the state attorney general and representatives of the Department of Justice, had not been received here to-day.

The recommendation, it was reported, was to the effect that all strike leaders should be summarily arrested when the strike becomes effective.

When the correspondent entered the office of the minister of blockade he was seated at a desk with a package of documents dealing with the fate of the crew of the steamer Belgian Prince, while another packet lying near told the story of the American steamer Campana, sunk August 6, and from which the captain and several gunners were removed by the crew of the submarine, whether as captives, there to suffer a fate similar to the crew of the Belgian Prince, is not yet known.

"It is difficult to talk of a 'condition,'" remarked Lord Robert in response to a question concerning the papal note, "while reading stories like these. I hope sincerely the brave Americans taken from the Campana have not suffered the fate which the pirates meted out to our men aboard the Belgian Prince. It takes us back to the awful days of the late war when the capture and imprisonment of sailors was a common thing.

Turning to the note from the Vatican, Lord Robert, after prefacing his motives with the statement that inasmuch as the matter now is a subject for discussion by the allied governments, he could express only his own personal views, said:

"Premature attempts at mediation are not usually successful and I fear this is the case. I think we recognize that the pope's motives are the best in the world and that he desires peace ardently, as indeed we all do. But the time is not yet ripe."

"The Allies cannot think of condonation toward the criminals are really repelled and have shown it by word and deed."

12 OF 30 FIRST EXAMINED READY TO GO IN ARMY

Lower End Draft Board Surprised by Number Who Do Not Claim Exemption

Members of the first county district board set the wheels in motion this morning for the examination of the men called before them to undergo tests for the national army. Of the first thirty men examined at Steelton, twelve were passed and placed on the roll of prospective soldiers for Uncle Sam. None of these men filed any exemption papers. The board of the first district is justly proud of this showing and believe that the quota will be reached when the 510 men summoned have been examined, only six of the first thirty were rejected for physical reasons and a dozen filed exemption papers, four being aliens and the other eight having, in substance, the following:

The draft board of the third county district, at Ellizabethville, started work to-day passing on the exemption claims of the men examined for the first three days. Already two claims have been disallowed by them. More men will be examined to-morrow.

The dozen men who did not claim exemption after they had passed the physical test and who will be among the first to go on the county's roll include the following, some of them aliens who are willing to serve the Stars and Stripes:

Charles E. Brashers, Highspire; Henry Gray, Steelton; Jeremiah Stetler, Middletown; Ernie Clouner, Middletown; Joseph F. Smith, Steelton; Epraim Carter, Steelton; Powell Felckick, Steelton; Herbert B. Barrett, Middletown; Ilija Bilzo, Steelton; Richard J. Otterbine, Steelton; Peterson, Steelton; Jovan Kopic, Steelton.

Five rooms on the second floor of the Steelton Light and Power Company are being used as a draft board and their corps of extra examining physicians. In one room Dr. J. R. Plank, Steelton, examines the registrants, Dr. E. H. Hany, Middletown, and Dr. W. B. Kirkpatrick, Highspire, conduct the chest and abdominal examinations, and Dr. B. I. Dickinson, Steelton, the district physician, conducts the anatomical examination.

Four to examine men. With this method of examination no one of the registrants can possibly be discharged without having first passed the tests of all four physicians, on either side. There were Drawbaugh, the other members of the draft board, are on hand also and supervise the physicians' work.

On the other side of the building about a thousand yards southwest of the St. James street. The French surged on either side of this position, making a sort of pocket about it and it was expected that the small German garrison would be compelled to surrender shortly. The German delivered a counterattack on the French extreme right flank, but this was repulsed by artillery fire.

Shipyard Strike Not Apt to Delay U. S. Work

New York, Aug. 18.—While the general situation of the striking shipyard workers is to be reviewed at a meeting of delegates of the various unions to be held next Tuesday, it was said to-day that the world is in danger of the strike spreading to the employees of the Brooklyn navy yard. Labor leaders estimated there were about 15,000 men engaged in the various shipbuilding trades on strike in New York and vicinity. The men ask for an increase in wages of about 50 cents a day, making the wage for skilled men $4.50, but this was learned to-day that the men working at the navy yard are being paid the $4.50 rate and that the union men were satisfied with conditions at all government plants.

DISTRICT APPEAL BOARDS TO MEET

Session at Capitol Wednesday; State Draft Headquarters Return Vouchers

State draft headquarters to-day marked for return to local boards salaries and various expenses which were not made out as required. Others which are in form are being gone over and it was stated that warrants would be sent as soon as possible in view of the tremendous pressure on the headquarters because of the draft.

Word was received here to-day that changes of one would have to be made in the quotas of some twenty-five districts. The changes are necessary because of errors found in checking up the calculations. These notices will be sent out late to-day. Formal notices have been issued for a conference of members of all district appeal boards in the Capitol next Wednesday afternoon, when Major E. Warren, of the judge advocate general's department, will be here and that boards must have some one, preferably a county, city or borough solicitor, to take appeals to district boards in behalf of the government. Local boards have been asked to send to the headquarters the names of persons to co-operate with the local board rather than appear as an attorney before it.

It is expected that all of the district boards will complete their organization to-day.

Fighting at Polygon Is Unusually Desperate

British Front in France and Belgium, Aug. 18.—The fighting Thursday at Polygon was unusually desperate. Wave after wave of the enemy came surging up against the British lines, which were held admirably well with rifle and bayonet until two simultaneous counterattacks from different directions forced them to head off the onslaught.

Gradually they withdrew, fighting all the way. Some of them indeed were surrounded and fought until they were killed. One young officer in command of ten men found himself encircled by the enemy and his men being swept by machine guns. The last heard of him was contained in a message he signaled back to his division, saying his men were facing death and that he saw no way but to surrender and save their lives.

Along most of the French front it was comparatively quiet, although a hard local battle was continuing about a strong German redoubt known as "Les Liliacs" which is about a thousand yards southwest of the St. James street. The French surged on either side of this position, making a sort of pocket about it and it was expected that the small German garrison would be compelled to surrender shortly.

The German delivered a counterattack on the French extreme right flank, but this was repulsed by artillery fire.

City Needs Incinerator, Commissioners Believe

The City Commissioners will not decide for a week or two what system they will employ to remedy Harrisburg's ash and garbage troubles, but they permitted publication to-day of their opinions that an incinerating plant, much like the one which they inspected this week in Norfolk, Va., is what Harrisburg needs.

The commissioners came back to town to-day from Norfolk and on Monday or Tuesday they expect to get data by mail from Norfolk which will show a statement of the expenses of the Norfolk plant. Tentative figures obtained from chats with Norfolk officials indicate, the commissioners believe, that the cost of an incinerating plant would be much less than what the city would have to pay for the plant of the Pennsylvania Reduction Company.

SUED FOR SUTS

The statement in a civil action filed in court this morning, alleges that Joseph L. Shear, bought for $40 sack suits from William B. Luce and got a restatement of the bill, $162, and failed to pay the bill, $162. Suit was brought for that amount against Paul A. Kunkel filed the papers.

ITALIAN SOLDIERS PAINT

The Italians holding down trenches in the Alps have two enemies to deal with, the Austrians and the snow. Of the two, the Italians prefer to encounter the Austrians, as it is, they have to face both and get along as best they can, says the Popular Science Monthly. In order to do this they supply themselves with gunpowder and rifles for the Austrians and black grease and glasses for the sun.

Their faces and hands are beset with black grease to protect them against the burning rays of the sun, which are doubly strong when reflected from the snow. They provide themselves with sun glasses, but that is too expensive. The snow not only burns the faces of troops but it injures their eyes so that sun glasses have to be worn. Needless to say, the black grease and the sun glasses make the Italians excellent targets against a background of white snow.

However, the Alpine Italian troops do not always use grease and sun glasses. When there is hot fighting to be done in the Alps, they don snow-white suits and even paint their rifles white. In such a uniform they are practically invisible.
