CAPITOL HILL NOTES

General Clement Here. — Major General Charles M. Clement, commander of the Pennsylvania division, stopped in Harrisburg a short time to-day on his way to Camp Hancock at Augusta, Ga., accompanied by Major Walter Sterling and Captain T. D. Boals, of his staff. General Clement said that he expected the Pennsylvania troops would soon be moving south. He was greeted here by a number of friends. Captains Churchman and Tilghman, aids, will join him at Baltimore.

Both Recovering.—Attorney General Brown and Commissioner of Health Dixon, the State government's two sick officials, were to-day reported as improving in health. Both are attending to departmental matters while in bed. Dr. Dixon is at Mont Alto.

To Discuss Trolley Service.—Steps to pave the way for better trolley service in Harrisburg will be taken this week by Chairman Ainey and Chief Engineer Snow, of the Public Service Commission, who will make a survey of the conditions in the city and then have a series of conferences with officials of the companies with a view to bettering service.

Mr. Lafean's Name Forged.—Banking Commissioner Daniel F. Lafean Kaiser Certain Fleet

The commissioner says ne did not endorse any paper for Lewis after May 1, 1915.

Officer Resigns.—Adjutant General Stewart to-day accepted the resignation of Harrison F. Seaman, of Hamburg, as a member of the National Guard Reserve, to enable him to attend the medical officers training camp at Fort Ogelthorpe.

Twenty Sworn In.—Twenty men from various parts of the state were-to-day mustered into the quarter-master's corpe of the Seventh Division by federal officers. They included a number of experienced men. State Files Answer.—The Attorney General's department to-day filed an answer to the mandamus proceeding brought against the Secretary of the Commonwealth by F. T. Matthews, of Philadelphia, who wants to have a judicial nominating petition filed. The answer is similar to that filed in other Philadelphia cases. It is probable that all of the mandamus cases growing out of petitions will be heard Monday.

Companies Dissolved.—The Dauphin county court to-day made orders dissolving the Guaranty Mutual Fire Insurance Company, Allentown, and Industrial Mutual Fire Insurance Company, Reading, against which receivership proceedings were started some time ago.

Want Better Stations.—Complaint gones it he station facilities of the ceivership proceedings were started some time ago.

Want Better Stations,—Complaint against the station facilities of the New York Central Railroad at Clearfield was filed with the Public Service Commission to-day by residents of that borough. William H. Edwards, of Jamestown, Cambria county, to-day petitioned the commission to require the Pennsylvania Railroad to establish a station at Jamestown, which, he says, contains 2,000 persons and is growing.

tages. Last week the Germans made a sharp local attack there, possibly having learned of the French preparations and hoping to break them up. For several days the French have been conducting a terrific bombardment of the German lines.

Italians Begin Battle
In the north the Germans made a counter attack on the positions taken yesterday by the British near Epehy. London reports that the assult was repulsed completely. The British line on the Ypres front has been advanced slightly.

Heavy fighting is in progress on the Italian front. The Austrian war office announced yesterday that a general offensive had been inaugurated by the Italians on a thirty-seven-mile front from the region of Tolmino. to a point near the Adriatic. The Italian official statement of yesterday did not mention the attack, but press dispatches from Rome to-day speak of the new Italian advance and say the situation for Austria is grave.

Another great aerial raid over Belgum was made by British airplanes on Saturday night. Many tons of bombs were dropped on various objectives. The British airplanes returned safely after a battle with German machines, one of which was shot down.

clusion of his visit to the German high sea feet at Wilhelmshaven Emperor William issued the following to the fleet:

"After having recently received an announcement that a renewed heavy attack of the enemy in an attempt to break up our sea front in Flanders had been successfully repelled. I have to-day by a visit to my fleet and the island fortress of Helgoland been enable to convince myself of the strength and security of this front too. I express my warm appreciation to all the high sea forces on the water, under water and in the air, and to the fortress of Helgoland, for their untiring, self-sacrificing and successful labor, by means of which they have kept firmly in view and attained this aim. May the fleet remain conscious that the confidence of myself and the fatherland reposes firmly on it."

The Emperor distributed a number of iron crosses. His visit is reported to have been caused by the threat of strikes at the Wilhelmshaven arsenal.
