

IBACH'S SINGLE BRINGS VICTORY TO READING TEAM IN HILL LEAGUE SERIES--SPORTS

SURPRISES IN TENNIS MATCHES

Holcombe Ward Has Clean-Up; Eliminates Jap Star; Norwegian Girl Wins

Forest Hills, N. Y., Aug. 21.—In the National Patriotic singles tournament yesterday, Holcombe Ward, of Sea Bright, N. J., singles champion in 1904 started a series of upsets by defeating S. H. Voshell, of Brooklyn, 6-4, 1-6, 6-3.

Ward continued into the second round at the expense of another younger player, H. S. Parker, of Cedarhurst, N. Y., whom he defeated, 6-2, 6-2.

Craig Biddle, of Philadelphia, furnished another surprise in defeating Frederick B. Alexander, of New York, 6-1, 2-6, 6-0, due in great part to his heady play and excellent placement.

Charles S. Garland, of Pittsburgh, a comparative youngster, furnished the third surprise of the tournament by defeating Lyle E. Mahan, of New York, 6-1, 7-5, in the first round, and then vanquishing Karl Behr, of New York, the former Internationalist, 6-2, 4-6.

Garland played high class tennis, having perfect control over his strokes and service and disposed of his two other rivals with little apparent effort, although several of the games went to deuce repeatedly. In the end, however, Garland always had the winning stroke at his command.

Eliminated Jap Player Selchiro Kashio, the Japanese player, from Tokyo, survived the first round, but was eliminated in the second by Douglas Watters, of New Orleans, Kashio, defeated F. R. Pansom, of Beaver Falls, Pa., in three deuce sets in the forenoon, but went down quickly before the southern expert, 6-3, 6-4.

Kashio was far from being the expert that Kumagae was in last year's championship play. The Japanese entrant lacked severe service and, aside from a heavily topped drive and considerable endurance, did not give the exhibition of his preceding countryman on American courts.

R. Norris Williams, 2d., of Boston, the present champion, had little difficulty in running through the first two rounds. Williams appeared more at ease in his tennis togs than in his new lieutenant of artillery uniform.

At any rate he showed little effect of his training at Plattsburg so far as tennis is concerned, quickly eliminating Walter E. Fite, of New York, and L. G. French, of Montreal, N. J., in straight sets, three games being the largest number scored against him in any one of the four sets.

The special exhibition match between Miss Molla Bjurstedt, of New York, and Miss Mary Browne, of San Francisco, held the attention of a large gallery late in the afternoon. Miss Bjurstedt winning, 7-5, 3-6, 6-3.

Henry Ellonsky, a long distance and endurance swimmer of the Brighton Beach Baths, who is known all over the world, made a remarkable swim in New York Harbor, when, tied to a chair, he made his way from Bay Ridge, Brooklyn, to the Battery, in Manhattan. The upper picture shows him being thrown into the water, and the lower was taken while he was swimming head down. Experts declare the feat shows remarkable endurance.

"Why," asks a reader, "isn't track and field work—running, jumping, throwing the hammer, etc.—as fine an exercise for army development as any game on the list—not even barring football?"

It is, or, rather, they are. Track and field work combine for as fine physical development, so far as war usage may be concerned, as anything the program holds.

And the army will undoubtedly make use of this training.

OLD AND NEW RECORDS

Along the line of track and field work it is interesting to note how records have changed in the last decade or so.

"Outing Magazine" publishes a chart which shows the advancement in some varieties—and lack of advancement in others. Here it is, based upon the standards of 1892 and the standards of to-day.

Events. Old standard. New standard. One-mile run 4 min. 17 4/5 s. 4 min. 12 3/5 s. 100-yard run 16 1/2 sec. 9 4/5 sec.

Over five seconds have been cut from the mile run, which may be quite an advantage in a long charge or a sudden retreat. But only one-fifth of a second—less than two yards—has been cut away from the 100-yard dash.

THE C. P. AND THE P. G.

When Wurtembergers take the British trenches; When Russia's soldiers keep on going back—When on the sea the U-boat's too successful—Then—some one tells the Crown Prince to attack.

When Wurtembergers take the British trenches; When Saxons do not find their task too hard—When even the Bavarians are victorious—Then—some one calls upon the Prussian Guard.

If the history of this war is ever written; If it reads as ever sunny scribe or bard—There are just two things for which we'll thank the Teutons—The German Crown Prince and the Prussian Guard.

IN WHICH THE OLD DOC IS THWARTED

The day Chief Albert Bender, the eminent Chippewa, pitched his shuttle for the Phillies, with Johnny Evers at second, was a tough day for Old Doc Time, the renowned grabber.

Evers started his major league career in 1902, fifteen years ago, with the Cubs. Bender began operating on the big league reservation in 1903, with the Athletics.

They were the two veterans of their circuit, and it was cheering news to those who knew him to find the Chief still on hand with winning stuff.

While no part of an admirer of Freddie Welsh's program as lightweight champion, in many phases, there is no discounting the fact that as a physical professor in charge of a health farm he should be one of the best of them all.

REV. RENTZ GOES The Rev. George S. Rentz, assistant pastor of the Market Square Presbyterian Church and assistant superintendent of the Sunday school, who left the city this morning for the marine barracks at Port Royal, S. C., where he will become chaplain at that post, was presented with a wrist watch by committee from the church last night.

IBACH'S SINGLE BRINGS VICTORY; READING WINNER

The Reading team last evening drew first blood in the post-season Allison Hill series, winning the first contest from "Pete" Shickley's Stanley team, in five innings by a score of 2 to 0.

The game was a pitcher's battle between George Levan and "Abie" Washinger, with Levan having the edge. Both pitchers held the batters to four hits. Levan fanned six Stanley batters, while Washinger retired four by the "water bucket" route.

Score in Third Both of the Reading Thompsens came in in the third inning. Thompson reached first on a single to deep short. Ehling advanced the runner by sacrificing. Mountain committed the only error of the contest when he dropped Washinger's perfect toss of Levan's scratch. Thompson took third on the miscue. Kline's sacrifice advanced Levan with a single, and second and third and two gone, Vic Ibach delivered the goods with a ripping single to right that tallied both runners.

Stanley's Only Chance Stanley had his only chance to score in the final session when Klierer made his second single, and reached third on two passed balls by Kline. Levan was equal to the emergency, and struck out three batters in this inning. The lateness of the parade kept down the attendance at the contest. "Tom" Garland and Earl Killinger acted as the umpires, and their work was of a high order. The score follows:

Table with columns: STANLEY, R. H. O. A. E. and rows for various players like Fetrow, Campbell, Dunkle, etc.

Table with columns: READING, R. H. O. A. E. and rows for various players like Ibach, Kline, McCurdy, etc.

Misses Only One Target in American Handicap

Chicago, Aug. 21.—A heavy downpour of rain delayed the program of the Great American Handicap shoot, which opened to-day at the South Shore Country Club, but preliminary events for both professionals and amateurs showed some excellent scores.

HITS AND OUTS OF GAME Ibach's single did the work. Only one error in the contest. "Putty" Lynch made all three outs in the fourth.

George Levan kept the Stanleys from scoring in the fifth by fanning several batters. The pitcher threw several bad ones that were hard to handle.

WELLY'S CORNER

Gettysburg handed Martinsburg a whitewash dose yesterday, winning by a score of 3 to 0. Hagerstown won over Frederick, score 13 to 2, and moved up close to the leaders.

The Phillies are having a hard time in keeping up a winning streak. Chicago handed the Moran crew another joint yesterday. The Chicago Americans are also moving at a fast pace and there may be eastern and western world's series games this fall.

Those who missed the farewell parade last night and went to the big game on Allison Hill, witnessed one of the best contests seen in Harrisburg this season. It was a pitchers' tilt, and Ibach was the hero with his timely single. Another game will be played to-night and a record crowd is looked for.

Philadelphia is once more getting an exhibition of fast racing on Belmont track. It is a score of years since this sport has been popular at Belmont. There have been racing events but it is the Grand Circuit horse that will furnish the thrills this week.
