Chicago, Aug. 22.—A fight between Bader, a utility pitcher for the Boston club, and "Chick" Gandil, guardian of the initial sack for Chicago, followed the third game of the series between the two leaders for the pennant, which Chicago won, 2 to 0.

Chicago won the game in the sixth inning. After one was out McMullin almost knocked Ruth down with a hot grounder. Eddie Collins followed with a hit to the right field, scoring McMullin. The next two players went out, leaving Collins on second. The other run made by Chicago was a gift.

CHAMPION LEONARD ENTERTAINS MANY SAMMEES

LEONARD BOXES FOR SOLDIERS.

Benny Leonard, world's lightweight champion, conqueror of Freddie Welsh and Johnny Kilbane, showed his ring skill in a friendly exhibition bout before a crowd of 25,000 in the shadow of the Washington Monument at the Capitol.

Leonard came to Washington and gave his services free at the invitation of the sporting department of the Washington Times. The bout with Welsh was held under the direction of the War Department Commission on Training Camp Activities, with the District War Service Commission in direct charge.

With the exception of those soldiers, sailors, and marines unable to leave their camps, or wherever duty placed them, every one of them within hailing distance of Washington was on hand to witness the bouts and the exhibition of Benny and his boxing instructor, Professor Billy Grupp, of Brooklyn.

STANLEY QUITS WHEN HITS RAIN

Reading Gets Second Game by Forfeit; Wertz Is in Great Form

After the Reading team had scored three runs in the second inning and seven more in the third before the side was retired, the Stanley aggregation left the field and forfeited last night's Allison Hill League contest by a 9 to 0 score, giving the Railroaders the second of the series of five games to be played this week at the Reading grounds.

Wertz was on the mound for the Readingites and his pitching was the feature. In three innings that the Stanley team failed him he struck out nine batters, giving Catcher "Ben" Kline credit for all of the putouts.

Johnson Hit Hard "Norm" Johnson did not fare so well. In the third the Reading tossers made five consecutive bingles. Mixed with overthrows, bases on balls and errors of omission and commission, netted the winners seven runs. In the second Lynch walked, Campbell failed to handle Ehling's last bouncer, Wertz fouled, scoring Lynch. Ibach singled, scoring Ehling; Kline's one-bagger brought home Wertz.

Shickley announced that Earl Waltz will try to turn the trick for his team this evening, while Reading will use Gordon Platt if he is available. The latter is coach instructor at McCormick's Island and will pitch to-night if he is able to get away. The largest crowd of the season was on hand to see the slaughter.

The work of "Mickey" Boyd and Earl Killinger, the arbiters, was first class and none of the decisions was disputed.

NEW RECORDS IN HANDICAP SHOOT

Amateurs Tie Up in Rainy Day Events; Some Long Runs

Chicago, Aug. 22.—The eighteenth Grand American trapshooting tournament will go down in shooting annals as one of the greatest in the history of the sport, for not only of the tournaments which have preceded the one now being held at the Shore Country Club, ever brought out such competition nor were such remarkable scores made.

Firing into the face of a driving rain which blew the wadding back into the eyes of shooters, and with conditions anything but right for record-breaking performances, the trapshooters, nevertheless, put up performances that seem almost beyond belief. There were 236 shooters in the Chicago Overturn, the opening event, and four of them with perfect scores of 100. Never in the history of trapshooting has such a thing happened. Furthermore, 177 shooters each broke 99 targets.

Then in the national amateur championship three shooters tied for the championship, each breaking 99 targets. The national thing this event is that in the four years of competition no shooter has been able to finish with a clean score. Hendershot, of New York, won in 1914; Newcomb, of Philadelphia, in 1915; and Troch, of Washington, in 1916, each broke 99.

WELLY'S CORNER

Many spectators were sorely disappointed last evening when several Stanley A. C. players quit the field. While it must be admitted that they were all in and had been given a severe trouncing, it was considered a lack of sportsmanship to quit under fire.

Jack Ozar, the Lebanon wrestler, according to reports is getting a bank account. A dispatch from Saratoga, N. Y., last night says: "In one of the greatest bouts staged Jack Ozar, of Lebanon, middleweight champion wrestler of the world, defended his title against Gene Westgaard, of Utica, New York, winning a $3,000 purse."

Scranton's baseball team has gone to smash. Wilkes-Barre handed another bump yesterday to the Miners. It was the latter's seventeenth straight defeat. Bill Coughlin would never permit such a thing to happen when he was leader. It is the general belief that baseball is near death at Scranton.

BIG CHIEF WINNER OVER CUBS IN RECORD GAME; MEDICINE MAN IS STINGY

Philadelphia, Aug. 22.—All that Pat Moran needs in order to overtake the flying Giants and finish the 1917 season in a lurid blaze of glory is two or three more runs like Bender. Yesterday the Phils played two games with the Chicago Cubs and they got an even break by virtue of the Chief's wonderful arm and cunning brain.

After the Indians had hurled his pals to a 5 to 0 victory in the opener he left his colleagues flat and the Bruins showed them no mercy, clawing them cruelly for a 2 to 2 tie.

Bender Bolder Cheese The work of Bender surpassed that of any Philadelphia pitcher this season. He was perfect—perfect—he could have thrown that ball through a knothole without half trying—his fast one had both speed and break, and he mixed them up in bewildering fashion. One lonely hit was all that he permitted, and on only three occasions did alien spikes dent first base. Kilduff was the visitor who spoiled the hitless game for the aborigine and Doyle drew a pair of passes. Neither man penetrated any further than the initial baserun.

The Indian just about made a personal affair of the thing. His mastery was so complete that his support had nothing more difficult to do than to catch a few pop flies and intercept several anemic grounders. Bender's assistants did their part by crushing one Jim Vaughn and driving him from the premises after two innings which were crowded with hits and satisfaction.
