TROOP C NEEDS FINANCIAL AID OF EVERYBODY

And All Persons Should Be Willing to Help Buy It a Motortruck

Of course you are willing to help the Governor's Troop get a light motor truck so that it may be in the same class as the other units of the First Pennsylvania Cavalry.

When the Eighth Regiment was on the Mexican border the people of Harrisburg chipped in and purchased a similar truck for the Harrisburg contingent and it is only fair that the Governor's Troop should be given the same consideration.

At the weekly luncheon meeting of the Harrisburg Rotary Club yesterday the members subscribed $180 toward the fund for a motor truck for the Troop and it is now up to the rest of Harrisburg to help in promptly raising the necessary money. About $800 will be needed and officers of the Governor's Troop with the endorsement of the Chamber of Commerce will call upon the people for such subscriptions as they desire to make. All the other troops have been supplied with a motor truck and it isn't fair to expect the Governor's Troop to go to the front with no transportation facilities and with the chance of having to accept the tender services of an occasional mule team.

The boys are going into the service cheerfully and in the proper spirit. Help them in every way possible. All subscriptions for this purpose sent to the Harrisburg Telegraph will be acknowledged and turned over to the proper officers.

Two Teams Organized

Two teams of the Governor's Troop have been organized to solicit subscriptions to the truck fund and they request that fraternal organizations and all others send checks to Captain George W. Roberts. These subscriptions have been made through the Rotary Club:

Judicial Candidate Takes Advantage of Constitutional Point

Conflict in provisions of the State Constitution is demonstrated by the filing here to-day of nomination papers by S. E. Shull, of Stroudsburg, for election at the general elections in November to the judgeship of that district to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Judge Staples.

One section of the Constitution provides that in event of a judge's death less than three months before election the Governor shall appoint. Another provides that when a death occurs less than two months previous to a primary election the vacancy shall be filled by all candidates going on the ticket at the general election without the formality of a primary. Judge Shull files under the latter provision.

A similar vacancy exists in the orphans court of Philadelphia.

MARKET OPENING HAS A DOWNWARD TREND

Active Specialties Fractionally Lower With More Pronounced Pressure Against Metals; Utilities Rally Irregularly After Yielding

New York, Aug. 28.—(Wall Street).—Rails, shippings, equipments and active specialties were fractionally lower at the opening of to-day's trading. Pressure against metals was more pronounced, and Conda copper falling a point. Steels, motors and utilities also yielded slightly but soon rallied irregularly. Dealings were on a very light scale with the usual short coverings of those stocks in which support was shown.

U. S. Steel's gradual advance of a point with gains of 1 to 2 points in other industrials, shippings and oils, checked the early decline but the list fell back again when automobile issues developed increased heaviness and rubles fell to a new minimum. Studebaker reacted 3¼ points to the low price of 48¾ and General Motors lost 2 points. Bethlehem Steel hardened on announcement of the new financing. Trading dwindled steadily in the course of the forenoon. Liberty Bonds sold at 99.94 to 99.96.

THREE COUNTY DRAFT BOARDS ARE AT WORK

Continue Examination of Men For National Army; Many Fail to Pass Test

Examinations of men for the first quota of the National Army were continued to-day in all three county districts, the boards working at Steelton, Paxtang and Elizabethville.

In the third division at Elizabethville, forty men were examined during the morning; thirty passing and eighteen failing in the physical tests. Seven asked no exemption. In the second division, fifty were examined during the morning but the board had not completed computation of those who did not ask to be discharged. In the first district in Steelton the board began its work of examining 400 more men who had been called.

The second division board will announce on Thursday morning the result of the examinations of the first 315 men, giving their rulings on all exemption claims, and the list of men who have been accepted for service. The first board will probably make a similar report during the latter part of the week.

In the third district yesterday of the sixty men called, fifty-three appeared for examination; 29 passed; 24 failed; 23 asked exemption; six passed and were accepted; four had enlisted; one transferred to another district; one did not appear and one was discharged, because he is held on a felony charge.

Court Reserves Decision in Three Election Cases

Judge Kunkel and Judge Henry, of Lebanon, sitting together in Dauphin county court, to-day reserved decision in the cases brought to compel the Secretary of the Commonwealth to file nomination papers presented by Willis J. Hulings, candidate for Congress in the Olly City district, and Frank T. Matthews, and T. P. Twibill, candidate for judge in common pleas court No. 5, Philadelphia.

Hulings contends he was delayed in presenting his petition because of old blanks sent out by the secretary, and that as a result his petitions were not received on time. The secretary contends that the excuse raised is not valid and that mailing on the last day for filing does not constitute filing.

In the cases of Twibill and Matthews, the contestants hold that they filed their papers on time, having thrown them over the transom of the secretary's office on the night of the last day for filing when they found the office closed. They say the office ought to have been open until 12 o'clock. The State contends that every day is last day for filing some kinds of papers at the department and if this contention is sustained it will be necessary to keep the office open until midnight each night. It was testified that the chief clerk of the department had been asked to come down town and receive the papers before midnight but he declined. Deputy Attorney General Keller represented the Commonwealth.
