BIRD SHOT AND SALT FOR THIEVES

Pen Mar Peach Grover Advised to Tender Reception to Men Stealing Fruit

Waynesboro, Pa., Aug. 28.—Martin W. Rockwell, a peach grower, near Pen Mar, has been greatly annoyed by the depredations of peach thieves who pilfer from his fine orchard at night. During the past few days over twenty-five bushels of the largest peaches have been carried off in bags and baskets by residents of the mountain section during the summer.

Mr. Rockwell was in Waynesboro to-day seeking advice from a magistrate as to what action to take to stop the stealing. He did intend to load his muzzle-loading gun with tacks and fire at the lower limbs of the thieves. The magistrate told him to load his gun with birdshot and salt and try that as an experiment. The Rockwells say he will now be on guard every night ready to pull the trigger until the last peaches in his orchard shall have been marketed.

CHAMBERSBURG MAN IN RIOT Waynesboro, Pa., Aug. 28.—A former Franklin county colored man was the innocent cause of the riot at Houston, Texas.
