HONORS AT CAMP

Young Harrisburgers Stand High in Sports at Camp Minnewawa, Me.

The Harrisburg boys who spent eight weeks of this summer at Camp The Harrisburg boys who spent eight weeks of this summer at Camp Minnewawa on the wooded shores of Little Sebago Lake in Maine are home with the lion's share of the trophies and honors awarded by Professor Guy W. Chipman, of Brooklyn, the director, for the work and play of the vacation camp. There were eight Harrisburg boys, the largest representation this city has ever had at any of the camps which have become so popular throughout the country as vacation places for the lads when they have finished work at school. Camp Minnewawa is one of the oldest established camps in the Maine woods and is not only admirably disciplined, but everything is well worked out for the lasting benefit of the boys, physically and in every other way. Professor Chipman was for several years head of one of the big Friends schools in Philadelphia and went from West Chester where he was head of the high school to be principal of one of the largest schools in Brooklyn. Assisting him were two of the Harrisburg Academy instructors, Raymond D. Kennedy and Robert O. Conant. They accompanied the boys on their hikes and camping trips and Camp Minnewawa made a fine showing in the parade of the boys camps of the Sebago district at Bridgeton where boys from over a score of states who spent the summer in Maine woods were gathered. Trophies Coming Here

On Monday the closing day of the camp, the trophies and honors were awarded, among the Harrisburgers present being Dr. and Mrs. George B. Kunkel, Mr. and Mrs. Walter P. Maguire and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Johnston, whose sons were at the camp. Louis Kunkel was voted sevaround campers' cup on points, covaround campers' cup on points, covar
