Plans Completed For Big Event; Men Examined For Nervous Diseases

Plans for the big social event at the Island next Tuesday evening are virtually completed and it is expected that a large crow dwill be in attendance. A festival will be held and tickets good for ice cream and cake are now being sold. The Eighth Regiment band will give a concert in connection with the oazar.

A special officer examined the men and nervous diseases. Practically all of the recruits passed the examination satisfactorily. A few were held over fer a more detailed examination. The recruits at Hargest Island are said to be in excellent his Island are said to be in excellent physical condition.

The following recruits from this section were accepted at the army recruiting headquarters yesterday. Charles R. Ensor and Frank E. Wagner, both of West Fairview, for the quartermaster corps supply company Leroy M. Lutzell, Linglestown, and Fred M. Hummel, Enhaut, for the medical department.

Only Twelve Scouts of First Class Here

Records at local headquarters ow that there are only twelve first-ass scouts in Harrisburg. This is t a very good showing, especially r the troops that have been organ-for the troops that have been organized for some time.

It is time for the boys to dig in and pass some examinations and really learn what scouting is. It should be the aim of every troop to pass all second class scouts into the lirst class division, and all tenderfoot scouts into the second class division before the first of the New Year.

Oldest Troop in City Plans to Become the Most Highly Trained

Troop 4, the oldest troop in existence in Harrisburg, will be cut down this fall from thirty-three members to about twenty-five, if plans which Scoutmaster McAllister is now working on materialize.

McAllister believes in efficiency in scouting and thinks that he can dobetter scouting with a smaller but better trained troop. Only those boys who can qualify for the most rigid scout tests will be retained as members of the troop. So it's up to you, boys! Better watch your step? But it's good scouting and that's the way to keep up interest in the work.

Lebanon Boy and Girl Scouts Coming Here as Guests of Troop 10

Troop 2. Boy Scouts of America, of Lebanon, under the leadership of Scoutmaster C. J. Rhen, accompanied by ten girl scouts, Troop 2, St. John's Church, Lebanon, are planning to hike to Harrisburg to stay over Sunday, and will pay a visit to Troop 10, of Harrisburg, who visited in Lebanon earlier in the summer.

Possibly the most delightful part the scoutsmasters to think so. If you have any photos and stories of your planning to hike to Harrisburg to stay over Sunday, and will pay a visit to Troop 10, of Harrisburg, who visited in Lebanon earlier in the summer.

SCOUTS HELP OUT The visiting troop will leave Leb-anon Friday evening, stopping over night in Hershey and will finish their trip, to Harrisburg on Saturday, ar-riving here some time in the aft-ernoon. The boys will be billeted at

NEWS AND NOTES OF THE BOY SCOUTS

ARE COMBINED

Ninety Scouts Take Advan- Best Troop in Lancaster Co.; tage of Free Membership at Y. M. C. A.

Scoutmaster V. L. Huntsberger reports that Troops 5 and 6 have been combined into one troop at the Olivet Presbyterian Church and will be known hereafter as Troop 6. The boys are still in camp at Iroquois, but will be back in the city in time to begin the fall term of school.

Ninety boy scouts have taken advantage of the free membership tickets to the Y. M. C. A. and are using the privilege of the association regularly on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays. The boys are glad that Physical Director Miller is back from Silver Bay and hope to have the opportunity to get some skilled instruction in gymnastics and physical training. They are looking forward to the arrival of the new Boys' work director, Arch Dinsmore, who is expected about September 15, and hope to get acquainted with him and his ideas for the new department for boys before their scout membership expires. No doubt many scouts will become regular members of the Y. M. C. A. when they find out what the new boys' secretary has in mind for the department.

Scoutmaster William A. Frantz is confined to his home with a serious illness. He is reported to be doing a well as could possibly be expected and the members of the troop and his many other friends are hoping to see him completely recovered within a few days. It is unfortunate that he could not participate in the reception of the boys of Troop & of Lebrar anon, who entertained Mr. Frantz's troop at Lebanon earlier in the summer.

Issues Are Hit

By Associated Press

New York, Aug. 31—(Wall Street).
—The short interest renewed its tactics at the opening of to-day's stock market, though proceeding more cautiously than yesterday. United States Steel was again the chief feature, its initial offering of 35,000 shares at 111½ to 112¼ minus resular and extra dividends of 4½ percent. representing a loss at the low quotation of half a point: Further heavy sales carried steel down to 110¾. Other industrials recorded average recessions of a point with rails, shipping, oils, tobaccos and many of the war issues. Industrial Alcohol yielded almost two points.

Open Bids For Piggery

Dies bids for Figgery at County Almshouse

Bids for a new piggery to be built at the Damini County Almshouse grounds, werthin County Almshouse grounds, were here been a county at the birectors of the Poor. Two proposals were received, one from M. L. Grosman, who asks $5,719.45, and the other from M. H. Gettys, $4,885. Action may be taken this afternoon on the awarding of a c. tract.
For max months the piggery at the almshouse has been a nuisance because it is situated too close to the large building occupied by the inmates. Frequently grand juries of the Quarter Session Court recommended its removal and the erection of a dw one, removed far enough away from the main building.
