NEW BOARD OF HEALTH FORMED

Gettysburg Council Takes Action in Controversy Between Authorities

Gettysburg, Pa., Sept. 5.—Council has made its move in the game with the state authorities over health regulations here. A few weeks ago the local board of health was removed from office and the state board sent men here to take over the reins in a general cleanup of a comparatively clean town. Since then each side has been making proposals for an adjustment of the matter, but without success. Last week the council voted against several things the state people wanted put into ordinances, widening the breach. Now the president of the council names a new board of health to be approved by the State Commissioner of Health, which approval would end the middle. The new board is composed of Dr. Walter H. O'Neal, to serve for one year; J. L. Butt, two years; John D. Lippy, three years; S. McC. Swopes, four years, and George P. Black, five years.

RECORD OF UNION SOLDIER CLEARED LONG AFTER WAR

By Confusion of Names Benjamin Allen Was Charged With Desertion From United States Army During Civil War

Millerstown, Pa., Sept. 5.—This week, fifty-two years after the first attempt was made, the United States government has granted money for injuries suffered in the Civil War by Benjamin Allen. However, Allen, who first made the attempt for a pension will not benefit by the grant, as the law of seven years will receive it. Allen lived from the time of the conclusion of the war, classed as a deserter of the Union cause, until he died in 1910. Allen endeavored, and have the matter corrected, and friends lent their efforts, but all were unavailing. Until his death, he was compelled to bear the odium of a deserter as well as being refused a pension for his injuries. A confusion of names at the conclusion of the war had caused Allen to be ranked as one of the deserters of the Northern cause. Upon his death his widow was left in destitute circumstances, with five small children. Friends again took up the cudgel in her behalf and, after much intercession, fifty-two years after the first effort was made to have rectified the clerical error which classed Mr. Allen as a deserter, this week the announcement has been issued that "the soldier had well served his country." As a result of the efforts, Mrs. Mary Allen, of this place, the widow, will receive $3,000 back pension money, with $20 per month provided for her after she reaches the age of 70 years and an additional allowance for the care of each of her five children until they reach the age of 16 years.
