

MARKET STRONGER AFTER HOLIDAY

Bearish Attempts to Depress Special Issues Meet With Indifferent Success at Opening

New York, Sept. 10. (Wall Street.)—The stock market gave a good account of itself at the opening to-day and bearish attempts to depress special issues met with indifferent success. Pullman and General Electric which were moderately weak on Saturday, yielded 2 and 3 points further respectively, but elsewhere the trend was strongly upward. Important shares gained 1/2 to 2 points in the early trading. Bulls purchased stocks in the belief that liquidation had pretty well run its course and that technical conditions had been strengthened by the elimination of weakly margined accounts.
