HARRISBURG BOY TO SING IN BALT.

William Webster Engaged as Soprano Soloist of Historic St. Paul's Church Choir

WILLIAM WEBSTER

William Webster, the 15-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert F. Webster, 223 South Fourteenth street, has been specially engaged as soprano soloist of old St. Paul's Church choir, Baltimore, one of the most famous church choirs in the country.

This year, with a younger brother, Robert, he has enrolled at the Technical High School here at home and neither will return to Baltimore, but arrangements have been made for William to journey to Baltimore each week and take the solo work at the Sunday services.

Frederick, eleven years of age, the youngest of three talented brothers, returns to St. Paul's next Friday. This will be his second term and he is expected to become a soloist of this famous choir this term, as his voice gives promise of being as sweet as that of his oldest brother.
