POLICE ROUND UP ROBBER BAND

Five Colored Men in Toils, Charged With Breaking Into Residences

The police of this city made an important haul this forenoon when a negro who gave his name as Irvin Booth Allen, was captured.

Up until this time, no trace has been found of the second watch and a string of beads secured at the Calder home, but the police believe that these articles will be secured, now that publicity has been given the capture of the gang.

Yesterday afternoon, a young negro named James Harrison was arrested by Detectives Shuler and Speese, charged with having entered and taken from the home of A. R. Calder, 2200 Bellevue Road, two valuable watches and jewelry, the whole amounting to $300.

A little later, the police arrested Solomon Garnett, who also had a suitcase in which was found several articles of merchandise.
