ah in Germany is doing for her—or an I just hoping that somehow some kind of peace will come soon?"
"Am I a loyal American worker or a moral slacker?"

EDITORIAL COMMENT OF GERMANY'S WAR PRESS

The enormity of the world domination or downfall as outlined in a recent pamphlet issued by W. H.
Gardiner, member of the Trustees of the American Defense Society, reflects the inflated dreams of German statesmen at a time when they felt confident of being yet able to win the war with an overwhelming victory, and a desire in the German peace overtures to end the present war on a basis that will leave her free to accomplish her end in the next war.

It is also evident that in the original plans Germany did not anticipate the early entrance of Great Britain into the war or later the entry of the United States, both of which would have dominated all of Europe and seriously menaced the future of American trade abroad.

Mr. Gardiner states in his pamphlet, "These plans are so amazingly ambitious and are founded on such an utterly cynical and ruthless disregard of the rights and liberties of all non-Germans that it is unbelievable that such preparation could be accomplished without heralding its own danger to the other powers."

Justice For 24 Years; Never Sent Man to Jail

Pittsburgh, Pa.—Thousands of men before him, charged with various crimes, but not a man sent to jail in twenty-four years, was the record of Squire George McQuigan, aged 70 years, who died in a local hospital recently.

Elected to the office of Justice of the Peace of North Versailles township, Squire McQuigan was re-elected for several terms. "Time and again when it seemed as if the great criminal would be punished, the Squire, noted for his kindness, would find a way to prevent sending an unfortunate to the bastille. He made personal appeals to property holders several times to obtain bond for an accused person at last year, when an Italian, charged with stabbing a fellow countryman, could not get bond, McQuigan personally gave bond for the accused man.

Munich Men Salute
Last Stein of Beer

Amsterdam, Netherlands.—"The last stein of real beer" has been given a pathetic sendoff in Munich, the city of the famous Beck's brewery. According to the Munich Nachrichten, it was on a Sunday evening when the last barrel had to be brewed. Mine host announced to his customers that this was going to be the last real pint at the old price, as the next day only small beer was to be served, which would be dearer in price.

"It was a sad moment, and heavy were our hearts," says the Nachrichten, "when the last stein was lifted on high and drunk in silence." Brewery prospects are not bright as it is announced that for the next fall a much smaller supply of barley will be available.

CRUEL NATURE

We fear we have an inherently cruel nature and hardly anything amuses us more than to see the neighbor's cat high-stepping around in the most bewitched and mentally depressed manner, apparently feeling that the whole world has turned against her, after the active and alert neighbor boys have succeeded in apprehending her and incased each of her four feet securely in a stout paper bag.—Ohio State Journal.

British Admiral's Daughter to Wed American Officer

Miss Emily Beatty, daughter of Admiral Beatty of the British Grand Fleet, is to wed Captain Charles Henry Drayton, of the American navy.

College Tests Show Wheat Strains Fall Below Claims

It is unwise to pay an excessively high price for a new wheat variety just because it is glowingly advertised by the seed firm introducing it, warns the Pennsylvania State College school of agriculture. For example, it is claimed by seed firms that two varieties, Marvellous and Mirgole, have wonderful tillering capacity, so that a peck, or at most a half bushel, is sufficient seed to the acre.

Both of these varieties have been tested for yield at the Pennsylvania State College, as well as at the Ohio and Virginia experiment stations, when sown at varying rates per acre.
Both gave the best yields when sown at the rate of one-and-a-half or two bushels per acre. They are much like Fulcaster and may be strains of this variety.

Wisconsin Boys Spend Summer in Patriotic Work

Madison, Wis.—Thousands of Wisconsin schoolboys, through an organization effected by the State Council of Defense, are spending their summer vacations in patriotic service on the farms and in the factories of the State.
The purpose of the work is to counterbalance by means of boy labor the loss of men serving in the National Army.

The co-operation of the boys themselves in the movement is enthusiastic. They sign an enrollment blank recording their age, physique, schooling, farm or factory experience, and period of vacation, and are then assigned to jobs by a labor agent. In case of a change of employment the boy must report to the agent. He is visited weekly or bi-weekly by a supervisor, who in turn is required to make monthly reports to the county labor agent, that an intimate record of the work being done may be kept.

Saloonkeepers Jailed For Selling Liquor

Toledo, O.—The government's determination to protect the morals of soldiers from liquor and vice was shown in the Federal Court here yesterday, when Judge Sater sentenced William Dunn and Louis Fisher, Columbus saloonkeepers, to sixty days imprisonment each and assessed fines of $25 and costs.

Dunn and Fisher pleaded guilty to indictments, charging they sold intoxicants to soldiers. They will serve their sentences in the Delaware county jail.
