STAR PITCHER ON STAFF OF WHITE SOX TEAM

EDDIE CICOTTE.

Eddie Cicotte, upon whom the burden of the World's Series pitching will be placed, has won a full quart of the games won by the Chicago White Sox this season.

Just what the earnest or fiery athlete does through the season is no direct test by any means as to what he contemplates doing through a world series.

In past October affairs we have observed two sets of cases—first, that of the season star hitting the big series as a fat man might light upon the top of a soapy shute—with revision all downward.

From the Top

These records are not made from unknown talent horning in for a game or two.

The list includes Cobb, Collins, Barry, Lewis, Cravath, Gowdy, Daubert—all among the leaders.

And Yet

In spite of these irregularities that develop here and there is notable or isolated sports, the advance dope in the main is vindicated.

The Certainties

Many of them—or most of them—have had their ups and downs in the big October carnival, but in their prime the two star certainties were Christy Mathewson and Chief Bender—the two greatest mound pitchers in the records of the complete cast.

Rare Birds

I know you've seen a lot of things within the moving frame; But— Did you ever see a golfer who was strictly on his game?

You, too, perhaps have seen a lot while watching or perusing; But—

Just how many strokes Jerry Travers or Chick Evans could award Mrs. Gavin or Mrs. Letts in an 18-hole match is a matter of doubt. But there are more than three or seven masculine golfers in this broad commonwealth who would esteem it great bliss to finish even with either of these ladies in a golfing round.

Speaking of Jess Willard's scarcity of opponents—where are all the "logical" candidates in sight? That Benny Leonard can collect from Benny may soon become a member, also, of the Too-Good Club.

LEONARD KNOCKS OUT PHIL BLOOM; SHORT BATTLE

Pittsburgh, Sept. 15.—Benny Leonard, of New York, lightweight champion, knocked out Phil Bloom, of Brooklyn, in the second round of what was to have been a ten-round bout at Forbes Field last night.

and grabbed hold of Leonard until the bell rang.

Knocks Leonard Down The Brooklyn man came in slightly refreshed for the second round and managed to get in several light taps to Leonard's face and as the latter slipped to the floor of the ring Bloom got in a blow to the head that put Leonard down, but he was up in a second series after Bloom with a debarment to end the battle right there. He rained blow after blow on his opponent's face until he crossed and knocked him down, where he lay while the referee counted nine,
