Local Railroad Men Lose Their Cases

The State Compensation Board today handed down a number of opinions in which awards were made in favor of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company to make collection of ashes. In some of the districts the ashes have accumulated for weeks. The company in reply to inquiry by the city said it was almost impossible to get enough men to use for the collections because of the big prices being paid at the station, plans being built at Middletown. Efforts will be made during the next week to employ enough men and start regular collections.

How are your eyes?

Do you know that but a small per cent. of city dwellers have eyes that are perfect? Most of the men and women who work in offices and shops have weakened or defective vision.

A great many take the precaution just once to have glasses fitted to the needs of their eyes — and let it go at that for years. There are others who've never given their eyes any thought at all. This can't go on without serious trouble later on. A careful examination and proper glasses now will save you a lot of money and worry in the future. You'll get expert, conscientious service here — at reasonable prices.

CALLS ON WIFE, GETS HER EFFECTS

Husband Fined $25 For Disorderly Practice When He Takes Her Belongings

Paul Hunter, colored, may consider himself reasonably lucky to-day, although he paid a fine of $25 when he appeared before Alderman Landis in police court yesterday.

Hunter, who is employed by the Pennsylvania Railroad Company as cook at Bellwood, came to Harrisburg because his wife lived here. But evidently the atmosphere of his boardinghouse did not agree with the cook, for at a late hour Saturday night he packed his effects, and according to his wife's story, gathered up all of her effects and prepared to leave for parts unknown, leaving wife behind.

Mrs. Hunter thought differently about the matter, and appealed to an officer who encountered Hunter as he was leaving with a grip belonging to his wife. The officer tried to halt the man, but Hunter ducked into an alley. When secured a valuable revolver was found in the bag. The man carried shells for the weapon in his hand.

Hunter was represented by an attorney who protested that a man couldn't be held for carrying concealed weapons in a handbag. After considerable costigation, Judge Landis imposed a fine of $25 for disorderly practice. Hunter's lawyer then attempted to persuade police court that by imposing a fine of $10 his client could raise the required sum, the family would be happily reunited, and the wife would not be left to shift for herself. The alderman seemed visibly touched and prospects of a $10 fine looked good for a time, but as the minutes sped by and the argument continued without intermission, these pleasant prospects faded as snow fades before an April sun.

Hunter decided not to go to jail, after all, but arranged to pay the $25 fine.

To Relieve Catarrhal Deafness and Head Noises

If you have Catarrhal Deafness or head noises go to your druggist and get 1 ounce of "Tannin" in a bottle of water, and add to it 1/2 pint of hot water and 4 ounces of granulated sugar. Take 1 tablespoonful four times a day. This will often bring quick relief from the annoying noises. Clogged nostrils should open, breathing become easy and the mucus stop dropping into the throat. It is easy to prepare, costs little and is pleasant to take. Any one who has Catarrhal Deafness or head noises should give this prescription a trial. — Advertisement.

NERVES ARE O. K. NOW HE JUBILATES

System Was Badly Run-Down and Stomach Nagged Him

NOW FEELS TIP-TOP

"Although for the past eight years I have been suffering terribly from my nerves and indigestion, my health has at last returned to me," said C. J. McClain, of 69 Lincoln Way West, Chambersburg, conductor for the Cumberland Valley Railroad. "Yes, my nerves and stomach are coming back to where I want them," Mr. McClain continued. "It wasn't so long ago that I thought I would have to suffer from indigestion as long as I lived. Stomach trouble just kept nagging at me night and left. Every meal meant trouble afterward and the gas that formed in my stomach from fermenting food was very painful. "My wife used to cook special food for me in the hope of relieving my condition, but it did no good. I had been reading a good deal about Tannic and finally decided to see if the claims made for it were true. "You can tell the world that I am convinced. Ever since I took that first bottle I have been getting better. Now the indigestion has disappeared. My nerves are quiet, but I really feel like living. I can eat what I please without the distressing after-effects. I gladly give Tannic my endorsement. "Tannic, the famous reconstructive tonic, is now being introduced here by Gorgas' Drug Store, who have secured the exclusive sale of this master medicine in Harrisburg. Tannic is also sold at the Gorgas Drug Store in the P. R. R. Station; in Carlisle at W. G. Stephens' Pharmacy; Elizabethtown, Albert W. Cain; Greensburg, Charles E. Carl; Middletown, Colin S. Few's Pharmacy; Waynesboro, Clarence Croft's Pharmacy; Mechanicsburg, H. F. Brunhouse. — Ad.
