DROPS OVER IN STREET

Henry Arrington, colored, fell ove while in the street at Second and Market last evening, and was removed to the Harrisburg Hospital. He improved and was soon discharged. The man gave Philadelphia as his address.

Mr. Harding was a member of the Red Cross ambulance division in France and was located at Verdun. He won a medal for his bravery and good work. While on duty in August his division was attacked by German aeroplanes.

good work. While on duty in August his division was attacked by German aeroplanes.

Bomb Affects Ixcaring
Orders were given to lie flat on the ground. Mr. Harding was on his knees preparing to follow orders when a bomb dropped from an aeroplane exploded in the air. The concussion was so great that his hearing was affected. Others were injured. After the raid the injured were sent to the hospital and later Mr. Harding was given leave to return to America to recuperate. He expects to return to France soon.

Has Mementoes
He is but 25 years of age and was one of the first to go to France for ambulance duty. He says the stories told about Germany's barbarous warfare are all true and that even Red Cross nurses and ambulance forces are not exempt from the murderous attacks. He brought many wounded men from the battlefields and had numerous narrow escapes.

Mr. Harding brought along with him from France a gas mask and other mementoes of the war, including buttons and medals worn by German soldiers and foun' on the battlefield.
