THE TRUTH ABOUT GERMANY

By MARIE BONINI BROWN

The Fate of the Tolling Church Bells in Berlin--Germans Don't Want to Talk About Violation of Belgium's Neutrality--Everyone There Hates Gerard

NO. 3--WHAT THE GERMAN PEOPLE THINK.

Even German resignation and the spirit which has been beaten into the Germans during years of submission to the ruling powers cannot endure, without protest, some of the things which the great war has brought.

One of the most sorrowful experiences in my life was the day Berlin bade farewell to its church bells.
I went to church that Sunday as usual. From early morning the church bells all over the city had been tolling, tolling. I wondered if some German defeat had been heard of or what was the matter. I could get no person who could tell me until I went to church.
The priest, after his sermon, then told us that orders had come to take all the church bells to make munitions of war of them.
I never will forget the sorrow of that priest. The tears were running down his face as he told his congregation that never again would they hear the sweet sound of their bell--which had a singularly beautiful tone--I often had noticed it.
He spoke of the times it had rung in gladness for them; of the times it had rung in sadness when their loved ones were dead. He spoke of the many years it had called them to worship, speaking as with the tongue of an angel to bid them come to God's house. He spoke of the years he himself had served within its silvery sound.
"How sad it is," he said, "that when peace shall come, this bell shall not be able to tell you of it. How sad that it shall be silent. How terrible that it shall be made into bullets or cannon to kill men."
Then he prayed for peace, and for Germany that his country might not be desolated.
I was a stranger in a strange land; the bell meant nothing to me before; but I felt the pulse of the congregation, sobbed and cried as though a dear friend had died.
THE TOLLING BELLS.
When we came out into the street it was full of people crying and sobbing for their beautiful bell.
The old men cried; the women cried; the young girls cried; even the little

Catarrh Always Means
Lessened Vitality

It is a stagnation of a mucous surface. Sometimes it is local; often it is systemic. Then it may manifest itself in unexpected ways -- in the stomach, the intestines, or the head. Always it means a part of the delicate mechanism of the body is not working and other parts must overwork. Continued, catarrh means the involvement of larger areas, and eventually a diseased, weakened system that invites worse troubles.

Control It Promptly

Take a tonic that will invigorate the whole body by restoring digestion and cleaning up the stagnation. That tonic should be Peruna, because it is specially designed for just such conditions, and because of its wonderful record of success in nearly half a century it is relied upon. The large number--many thousands--who have willingly told of its help to them are the best proof that it will relieve you as well. It's worthy of your trial.
Liquid or Tablet form--the latter very convenient for regular administration. 50c a box. Manalin is the ideal laxative. Doesn't gripe or form a habit, pleasant, mild and effective. Liquid, $1.00 and 35c. Tablets, 10c and 25c.

hears from Germans, about the way in which Warsaw was stripped of its gold, and that the church at Wawer for freedom, they only had exchanged one master for another, soon began talking war and revolution. Result--the university was closed in double quick time. A great number of the students disappeared. The German soldiers were probably the German firing lines. And the Poles now know that German rule means anything but freedom for them.
I often wonder why the Germans do not treat the Americans who are in Germany better. They know that when these Americans go home they will tell of their treatment. As Gerard is doing, and as hundreds of other Americans will do. The only thing Gerard can do to see that the Germans think they can combat any such revelations, simply by calling them lies. HATED AGAINST GERARD.
As I was leaving Germany, I was butting heads with Gerard. He happened to mention that I was returning home. "Well, I guess you will tell a lot of lies about us," said the shop keeper with a very noticeable sneer.
They hate Mr. Gerard. With the exception of President Wilson, there is not a person in the world whom they hate as they do Mr. Gerard. They are doing a lot of cartooning in Germany. They always picture the King of Italy as a cat on the top of his gun. I never found out what that was for. The reports in this country that Gerard is calling her very young men, all are true. She is calling on her 1918 army now. I have seen wounded men go back to the front in such bad shape that one would think common humanity would let them stay at home.
I have seen men taken for the army whom we would put in tuberculosis hospitals. On September 10 in Berlin in particular, a frail, hollow-cheeked man, who continually coughed and seemed hardly able to walk, was taken into the army.
BOYS AND WOMEN WORK.
The boys of 12, 11 and 10 and on to 16 are in the fields working, trying to grow as much grain and produce as possible.
Of course the women are doing everything, carrying heavy loads as porters, or far into the fields, carrying coal into cellars, driving wagons--everything that men did before the war. The children, too, are brought my telegrams.
All Germany seems driven by the one big impulse, to get every energy possible into the war machine.
It was a terrible country when I left it--what it is now I do not know unless the war stops I hardly like to think.

LEMOYNE TAXPAYERS FAVORING ANNEXATION TO HARRISBURG

Committee Circulating Petition Get Signatures of 160
Out of 162 Requests; Meeting at West Fairview
Last Evening; Other Towns to Act

Lemoyne has taken the aggressive in the proposition of annexing the West Shore to Harrisburg. A committee of businessmen which has been passing the petition among the taxpayers announced to-day that out of 162 taxpayers 160 signed in favor of the move. Agitators of the move think this is a remarkable showing and are placing this fact before the taxpayers of other boroughs at the mass meetings being held this week. Lemoyne has 500 voters. The remainder of this number will be seen within the next week in regard to annexation.
The first meeting in regard to the move in West Fairview was held last night. About fifty taxpayers attended the meeting. Much opposition to the move was evident at the outset of the meeting, but after several speakers explained the proposition and much debating several were converted to the move. The taxpayers asked for another meeting so they may be able to become better informed about the movement. This meeting will be held next Tuesday evening.
L. L. Hammacker, of Lemoyne, was the principal speaker. In his talk he explained the advantages of being taken into the city, having sewers, city schools, cheaper water rates and various other adequate facilities.
Colonel H. C. Downing, of Harrisburg, brought out the fact that fire insurance would be lowered with the protection of up-to-date apparatus. He said that boxes being installed and apparatus could be on the scene of the fire in a short time.
A meeting will be held at New Cumberland about a meeting of the committee last night. E. E. Bachman is chairman of the committee. Various amusements have been planned for the week. A contest between grammar school boys and girls for the highest number of tickets sold will be staged. Five boys and five girls will be picked to enter the contest and prizes will be awarded the winners of each division. A contest between a girl from each of the four classes of the high school will be held in addition to the ticket contest. A prize of a diamond ring will be given to the winner turning in the most money collected by cash subscriptions.
It is the intention of the company to hold several chemical tests during the week to arouse interest in the fair. One of these tests will be held at Summerville on the first night. Special attractions will be held each night of the fair.
Chairman Bachman appointed the following committees: Ice cream, Philip Fordney and Edward Hazard; booth committee, A. C. Keel, chairman, George Burkholder, F. F. Fries and E. E. Bachman; publicity committee, George Fisher, chairman, Samuel G. Hafford and Horace H. Way. Solicitors appointed for the various districts are as follows. District No. 1, Charles Bowman and Guy Ruppel; district No. 2, J. R. Johnson and Phillip Fordney; district No. 3, A. L. Wynn and A. C. Keel; district No. 4, Edward Hazard and Roy H. Hulmes; district No. 5, C. L. Cocklin and C. F. Fries; district No. 6, John F. Gruver and C. H. Shaffer; Summerville, E. E. Bachman, F. O. Fries and M. V. Sanderson.
