

FIVE-CENT LOAF IS HOOVER'S AIM FOR WAR BREAD

Food Administrator Believes 14 Ounces Can Be Sold For Nickel at Profit

Washington, Sept. 18.—A standard loaf of bread for the 40,000,000 Americans who depend on the bakery to supply them with the staff of life is expected to be the achievement of Herbert C. Hoover, national food administrator, working now in conjunction with the war emergency board of the Association of Master Bakers in an effort to solve the vital problem created by the entrance of war prices into the bread business.

This board, composed of twelve members, should make its final report to Mr. Hoover this week. It is the hope of the food administration, with the cooperation of the bakers of the country, that the price of bread to the consumer will be stabilized presently and brought down to a figure commensurate with the reduction of 33 in the cost of a barrel of flour, which resulted from the fixing of the $2.20 wheat price.

But one thing is certain. No matter what the bakers say, and it is known they are giving the food administration not a little trouble, government action will be resorted to in order to guarantee a fair price for bread to the consumer. Already, it is pointed out, the estimated 60 per cent of the American people who buy a home-baked bread are beginning to reap the benefits of the decreased cost of wheat and the reduced price of flour, and Mr. Hoover is determined that the other 40 per cent, the people who live in the cities and buy from the bakeries, shall in the same degree, plus the actual cost of baking bread, plus a fair, and only a fair, profit to the baker, be enabled to benefit from the lowered cost of the raw wheat.

To Fix Price Standards The present outlook is that President Wilson will promulgate bread prices, or standards, just as he will shortly announce the official price of coal at the retailers. And in the same manner that coal dealers will be licensed by the government bread marketers will be licensed and held strictly to the provisions of the license, which will set forth the price standard. Violation of the provisions of the license will mean that the baker will be thrown out of business and his plant requisitioned and operated in accordance with the food regulations, whatever they shall be. No baker, large or small, will be exempt from the necessity of being licensed.

What the standard for a loaf of bread is to be a question now widely discussed, but the food administration has consistently hoped and aimed for a fourteen-ounce loaf to be sold for five cents. Inasmuch as a loaf of this size is bringing ten cents in many places, the benefit to the consumer of this aim is strikingly apparent.

JUNIATA VALLEY ARRESTS SOON

Dairy and Food Commissioner's Men Make Some Inspections With Vigor

State food agents have just completed a series of visits through the Juniata valley, where numerous samples of canning compounds and similar concoctions which have lately been occupying the attention of the Dairy and Food Commissioner's force were taken. It is probable that some arrests will be made, as the materials taken are like those which have led to arrests in Bedford, Blair and western counties. Commissioner Foust says that some of the stuff sold as harmless contains boric acid.

Inspections have also been made in parts of Dauphin and Cumberland counties where some samples were taken. Considerable interest is attached to the case of the sausage at which are scheduled to be tried in the Dauphin county court shortly. In these cases it is alleged that the state chemists found more water than the law allows and also some use of cereals to make up for the deficiency in fat.

Attended Funeral.—James A. Steese, of the State Department of Labor and Industry, represented the department at the funeral of Patrick Gilday, chief of the state bureau of mediation, which was held at Morristown and which was the occasion of a notable demonstration by residents of Clearfield county.

Many Leave "Hill."—Many persons left Capitol Hill for their home to vote to-morrow. In some of the departments, notably the financial end, the attaches nearly all went to their homes. Most of the officials in other departments left this afternoon and some will not return until Monday, as they will take part in demonstrations for the drafted men.

To Act Later in the Week.—Highway Commissioner O'Neil will act later in the week on several contracts for road improvement in which matters were held up for further information.

Milkmen Protest.—Schuylkill Valley milkmen, whose complaint against the early start of the Reading's milk train from Reading was rejected by the Public Service Commission, yesterday refused to ship milk to people living between Reading and Pottsville. They proclaimed that they were on a strike. It is believed here that the law of supply and demand will settle the case.

Dr. Willits' Criticism.—Dr. C. H. Willits, of one of the Philadelphia district boards, declared in a statement yesterday that the boards were hampered because of conditions at Washington and Harrisburg. In a statement in which there was no mention of words Dr. Willits took the Governor to task. Incidentally, he is directing attention to $2,000,000 appropriated by the Legislature for emergency war purposes, he suggests that it made available for the purpose of the draft and should have been drawn upon to meet the emergency. According to Dr. Willits, none of the local boards have received a cent from the federal government or the state since the work of certifying for the draft was undertaken. Many of them, according to Dr. Willits, have been handicapped through the inability to employ the help necessary to carry on the work. Aside from the financial handicap, however, Dr. Willits charges that the authorities at Harrisburg, as well as at Washington, have caused much trouble and an enormous amount of extra work by the frequent change in orders sent the local boards.

Dancer Wins Wealth by Finding Missing Will

New York, Sept. 18.—Mrs. Gertrude McQuade-North, who before her marriage to James E. McQuade, one of the Carnegie group of millionaires, was Gertrude Reynolds, known in this country and England as a dancer, received letters of administration on the estate of Mr. McQuade by a decision made by Surrogate Fowler here yesterday. Letters of administration had been granted Mrs. Sarah McQuade, a divorced wife, on the ground that Mr. McQuade had died intestate, and the action yesterday, which canceled the letters of Mrs. Sarah McQuade, was taken after a will had been found.

Mr. McQuade was founder of the National Conduit and Cable Company. He died in July, 1915, at his villa at Twickenham, England, and in December of the same year Mrs. McQuade was married to Hilton George Morlon North, a nephew of the sixth Earl of Guilford, and has since lived in England. She did not appear in the proceedings here.

As Gertrude Reynolds, Mrs. McQuade-North toured the United States and England after a series of Broadway successes. She also danced in London before King Edward VII and members of the British nobility, and received the personal praise of the King.

Germany Expects to Make Show of Democracy to Stem Tide of Opinion

Washington, Sept. 18.—Germany in the next few months will prepare for the democratization of her government, according to information received in Washington within the past twenty-four hours.

Reports from neutral countries that the reply of Germany to Pope Benedict's peace proposals has been received at the Vatican and is a flat rejection of peace are given no credence by Government officials. The German reply, it is intimated, will contain pointed reference to steps already taken towards the democratization of Germany.

That the German Government is already preparing a "feather bed" for itself is indicated by the word that has been received that the peace reply was prepared by a committee of the Reichstag.

Sends Kaiser Backer to Pen; Guilty of Mayhem

Lebanon, Sept. 18.—Andrew Fleming, who is known here as the Kaiser, because of his pronounced fealty to Emperor William, was yesterday sentenced by Judge Henry to the Eastern Penitentiary for a term of not less than one year nor more than two years.

Fleming pleaded guilty to an assault on Clarence Babb, a Union veteran of the Civil War, whom he bit in the hand. Although in this country for thirteen years, Fleming is not naturalized. His pronounced sympathies for the fatherland have been the source recently of many disturbances.

By all means, girls, prepare a lemon lotion to keep your skin flexible and young looking. You will soon realize that true loveliness does not mean the powdery look or waxen colorlessness of some hothouse flower, but is typified by the velvety softness of your skin, your peach-like complexion and rosy-white hands.

At the cost of a small jar of ordinary cold cream one can prepare a full quarter pint of the most wonderful lemon skin softener and complexion beautifier, by squeezing the juice of two fresh lemons into a bottle containing three ounces of orchard white. Care should be taken to strain the juice through a fine cloth so no lemon pulp gets in, then this lotion will keep fresh for months. Every woman knows that lemon juice is used to bleach and remove such blemishes as freckles, sallowness and tan, and is the ideal skin softener and beautifier. Just try it! Get three ounces of orchard white at any pharmacy or toilet counter and two lemons from the grocer and make up a quarter pint of this sweetly fragrant lotion and massage it daily into the face, neck, arms, and hands, particularly rough, red hands.—Advertisement.

Pass Along the SMOKES

YOU warm-hearted people of Harrisburg won't let the men who are fighting your fight go smoke-hungry.

Not a bit of it. You're going to see to it that they get all the tobacco they need—just as the folks back home in England and France are taking care of the smokes for Tommy and Poilu.

It isn't much to do—considering. A dollar or a quarter from you that gives a little comfort to one of our own flesh and blood doesn't stack up to much alongside the fact that the very man you are befriending may have to give up his life.

But it's a regular thing to do—and you "regular" men and women of Harrisburg will do it.

This is the way. Fill in that coupon in the corner, put it in an envelope together with all you can afford to give and drop it in the nearest box now, addressed to

HARRISBURG TELEGRAPH CAMPAIGN FOR "Our Boys In France Tobacco Fund"

Approved by the Secretaries of War and Navy, the management of this fund buys its tobacco at cost—every contribution of twenty-five cents means forty-five cents worth of tobacco for the man out there. No one profits but the fighting man—rents, postage, advertising are all contributed and the soldier who gets your tobacco will send you a postal telling how much it meant to him.

There's no argument here. Just put your name on that blank line and pass along the smokes.
