List For the State Pardon Board

The meeting of the State Board of Pardons, scheduled for to-day, was postponed because of the primary election until September 25, when the list after the summer vacation will be heard. There are twenty-six applications, including three applications for commutation of death sentences, one by the last man sentenced to be hanged in Pennsylvania.

Two second degree cases.
Henry Ward Mottern, Jefferson, received commutation last October and he refused rehearing and five days granted respite, is asking a hearing again, the man convicted in him having been acquitted on a trial.
