THE TRUTH ABOUT GERMANY

How the American Word "Darn" Won a Friend in a Foreign Land — Germans Expect to Collect Huge Indemnity From U. S. After the War

By MARIE BONINI BROWN NO. 4—GETTING OUT OF GERMANY.

It was when I started to come home that I realized fully the attitude of Germans toward Americans and the horrors of German militarism as applied to peaceful citizens.

happen as that Germany would beat us. America will be bled white to satisfy the hatred and revengeful spirit of the Germans. I believe I should not have been in Germany. I was beaten in this war, for we simply would not, to use a common expression, "take the life of a dog" here. Germany would make our lives a hundred times more wretched than it is now.

Washington. — The instant response of the publishers of the United States to the appeal for $1,000,000 by the Library War Council, appointed by the Secretary of War, the money to be used for the purchase and equipment of libraries for our soldiers in cantonments and in the front has been most gratifying.

a council such as the one you described." The Princeton University Press suggests: "In addition to raising a million-dollar fund for the Soldiers Library you are handling the books themselves we shall be glad to send you a bundle of books for the soldiers." They gave me 1,000 marks, and sealed the rest of the money so I could not open it until I was beyond the frontier. This seemed another silly thing for them to do—but they did it.

GERMAN RED TAPE

Tuesday, July 10, I received a telegram from the Kommandantore, to come to his office Monday, July 9, to get my passports. The telegram had been sent on the ninth and of course I did not get it until the tenth.

OUT OF GERMANY!

Then I was taken into a room where a woman stripped and examined me from head to foot. She took down my hair, looked in my shoes, in the waistbands of my clothes and the hems. She worked like lightning, and was certainly very thorough. Finally she said I could pass. Then I received my passports and my bag—which had been put through as grueling an examination as I had, and I was out of Germany.

A STRANGE STORY

In Norway I heard of the Norwegian captain upon whose boat an English army officer, a spy, had secreted himself to escape from Germany. He was in terrible danger, but had managed to get to the boat and he would have escaped, had not the captain been a German sympathizer.

EXPECT INDEMNITY FROM U. S.

When the kommandantore had stamped my papers allowing me to leave from Friday to Monday, I begged and begged him to make it Wednesday the same day I was in his office on Thursday. But he would not, although it would have been so easy for him to do that as not. But they try to humiliate an American in every way possible, just to show their authority.
