TIMELY NEWS OF CENTRAL PENNSYLVANIA AND CITY'S SUBURBS

WOMAN'S CLUB SEASON TO OPEN

"President's Night" Arranged Carctaker at Waynesboro For October 5, With Enjoyable Program

Mechanicsburg, Pa., Sept. 21.—
"President's night," Friday, October 5, when Miss Caroline S. Saxton entertains the club members, will formally open the season for the Woman's Club. The club study, which is miscellaneous this year, includes a program well planned and of unusual interest. South America will be discussed during the first part of the program, in the autumn months. The Woman's Club, which was ornarized October 29, 1896, and federated with the Pennsylvania Federation of Woman's Clubs, October 1, 1898, is one of the best-known social factors in the Cumberland Valley. The departmental plan has been adopted and the two general divisions of work are literary and civic in character.

The officers for this year are:

The officers for the woman with the cart which was at the side of a mile from his home at the dam, the cat, which was at the side of a mile from his home at the dam. The cat, which was at the side of a mile from his home at the dam. The cat, which was at the side of a mile from his home at the dam, the cat, which was at the side of a mile from his home at the dam, the cat, which was at the side of a mile from his home at the mount of the was on his way home from Waynesboro, was attacked and injured by a wildcat. He was on his way home from Waynesboro and about 6 o'ctock, when passion at a tattlesnake Run, in the waynesboro was at at attacted and injured by a wildcat. He was on his way home from Waynesboro at a tattlesnake Run, in the waynesboro was at attacted and injured by isons of work are literary and civic character.

The officers for this year are resident, Miss Caroline S. Saxton; strice-president, Mrs. Sara Firesident, Miss Caroline S. Saxton; strice-president, Mrs. Mrs. R. A. De Frehn, Mrs. R. Thomas, Jr., Miss Clara Titzel, stalle George. These committees are appointed: Club study, Miss tharine H. Keefer, Miss Beulah istle, Miss Edith R. Mumma, Miss tharine H. Keefer, Miss Beulah istle, Miss Edith R. Mumma, Miss Edith R. Mumma, Miss Karoline S. K. Robbt, Mrs. W. W. Strong; hostality, Miss Mary Clark, Mrs. Samil E. Basehore, Miss Marguerite hrich, Mrs. Harry Mumper, Miss Marian Bell; afternoon tea, Mrs. N. Hershner, Miss Manilva Zug, Mrs. A. Burnett; decoration, Mrs. R. Burnett; decoration, Mrs. R. Robert H. Thomas, Jr., alrman; librarian, Miss Grace E. itmer.

Mechanicsburg Takes Up Soldiers' Libraries Work

rvin Steel and Professor Raiph Jacoby. A soliciting committee was appointed as follows. H. H. Mer-cer, First ward; Miss S. Edith Swartz, Second ward; John S. Davis, Third ward; Mrs. R. H. Thomas, Jr., Fourth ward; J. W. Geiger, Fifth ward, John S. Davis was elected

BIG WILDCAT

Water Works Has Lively Encounter With Animal

s A little further up the valley they are said to be quite numerous.

DRAFTED MAN DISABLED

Waynoshro, Pa. Sept. 21.—Stanking of the front part of that member, it loss that the part of the member, and while in the woods of John, about 200 yards back of his home, he tripped on some up debrush and, having the gun cocked with his finger on the trigger, So Baughters turned out, head only support of his mother. Exemple of the town and the poly support of his mother. Exemple of the poly support of

PHYSICAL DIRECTOR CALLED Mount Union, Jartin, physical director,
Jof mathematics in the Mount High School, was called to serve in the first draft and as a result the school is without a physical director.
The work of the football team had to stop for a day or two. Professor C. C. Smith, principal of the high school, now has charge of the foothis, is being sought.

MARRIAGE ANNOUNCEMENT
New Bloomfield, Pa., Sept. 21.— Announcement has been made of the marriage of Roy Harter and Miss E. Annie K. Bryner, both formerly of New Bloomfield, at Detroit, where have are both employed in a munition
The bride is a daughter of SamSamJeffel Walter Diller.

George W.

George W.

Red Cros.
Address, telling v.
Saddress, telling v.

APTURES CHICKEN THIEF Vaynesboro, Pa., Sept. 21—Sheriff os Horst captured Harry B. Hon-Blacks Gap, as a thief who stole number of chickens from Benjah Helman, at Altenwald. He was glt with the chickens in his posion near Shippensburg.

Helman at Shippensburg.

Thompsontown Pa Sept 21 45 LEAVE THOMPSONTOWN

*Thompsontown, Pa., Sept. 21.—

A demonstration was given in Mifflintown Wednesday afternoon to the forty-five boys of this county who were drafted into military service.
Prominent speakers gave the boys Godspeed and the ladies of the county presented each one with a comfort kit. Those leaving from this place and Delaware township were:
Roy Cromer. Charles Fry. Samuel ICE-MINT CERTAINLY MAKES THE FEET FEEL FINE ired, aching feet, painful corns or calluses touch stops soreness and makes the feet feel cool, easy and comfortable. Nickle. They started on Thursday morning for Camp Meade, Admir al, Md.

e of the many that ing skin in normal, healthy condi-out troubles, here's tion. It's Magic. If your poor, tired mfort for you at feel the kindly touch of Ice-Min by to your old corn, they will feel so cool, easy and com iquids, plasters and fortable that you will just sigh with e modern way—the relief. It's grand, It's glorious, New GREETED AT DUNCANNON Duncannon, Pa., Sejt. 21.—All business houses and the seven lustrial plants suspended busine in the farewell to the fifty-eight young men of Perry county who were to arrive here on the 8 o'clock train from New Bloomfield, where they had been assembled on Wednesday and enrolled in the national army. George E. Boyer, president of the borough public schools, was in charge. The soldier-boys from here are Frank Light, Lloyd Hetrick, Clarence E. Wahl, Harry M. Noss, Walter Baker, Edgar Harold, Elmer P. Collins, N. E. Lowe, Daniel R. Bornman, John McCann, George A. Louden, Abraham Dearolf, Morris W. Lightner and John E. Haas. sense white preparation whose sense where the preparation whose signal ingress are imported in Japan, where the people have finest, healthiest little feet in world. The properties of the prope

SIXTEEN FOR HUMMELSTOWN Hummelstown, Pa., Sept. 21.—On Wednesday evening an ovation was given the drafted boys, sixteen in number, who left Hummelstown yesterday morning for Camp Meade.
At 7 o'clock all the bells of town were rung and the parade formed at different meeting points and at 8 marched through the principal thoroughfare of town, finally returning to the square, where exercises were held. The speakers occupied the porch of the Russell Stoner home and the program was in charge of Principal W. A. Geesey. It consisted of the rendering of a number of patriotic airs by the school children of town and the high school boys and girls; prayer by the Rev. Arthur S. Lehman and an eloquent address by William H. Ernest. At the close of the exercises each of the boys was presented with a comfort kit by the local Red Cross organization. SIXTEEN FOR HUMMELSTOWN

SUIT AGAINST RAILROAD New Bloomfield, Pa., Sept. 21.— The Susquehanna River and Western Railroad is the plaintiff in a suit brought by the Makoma Coal Company, of Harrisburg, in Perry county courts to recover $382.22 with interest from February 15, 1917. The plaintiff claims that this amount of money is due on a carload of coal money is due on a carload of coal purchased by the defendant.

MANY DRAFT MEN MAN AND HORSES UNDER HIS HORSE

ATTACKS MAN Parades and Speeches in Franklin Bashore, of Hummelstown, Instantly Killed at P. and R. Crossing

Towns Where Delegations

Start For Training

The Rev. J. Harold Wolf was toast-

New Bloomfield, Pa., Sept. 21.—
When the fifty-eight drafted men from Perry county left for camp Meade, Md., on Wednesday afternoon, a great demonstration with the fifty-eight drafted men from Perry county left for camp Meade, Md., on Wednesday afternoon, a great demonstration with the fifty-eight drafted men from Perry county left for camp Meade, Md., on Wednesday afternoon, a great demonstration with the fifty-eight drafted men from Perry county left for camp Meade, Md., on Wednesday afternoon, a great demonstration with the fifty-eight drafted men by the fifty of the boys with the fifty-eight drafted men for the parade columns, James M, Barnett The Rev. J. Thomas of the parade columns, James M, Barnett The Rev. J. Thomas Fox made a prayer and an addition when for the parade columns, James M, Barnett The Rev. J. Thomas for the parade the drafted men for the parade columns, James M, Barnett The Rev. J. Thomas for the parade the drafted men for the parade of the fifth of the boys was delivered by the Rev. George H Johnson of Duncanom as Fox made a prayer and an addition of the boys who will goin the service. When it became known that some of the upper end men were than the parade and banquet. The schools, lodges, Red Cross, Grand Army and King's Daughters turned out, head only the passenger train not the service. When it became known that some of the upper end men were than the parade and banquet. The schools, lodges, Red Cross, Grand Army and King's Daughters turned out, head only the plibburg band, and part A grande and banquet. The schools, lodges, Red Cross, Grand Army and King's Daughters turned out, head only the plibburg band, and part is the followed by the Rev. Capture of the boys who will goin the passenger train to the boys who will goin the passenger train to the boys who will goin the passenger train to the passenger train the parade will be be maded by the Rev. Sept. 21.—Citizens of p

STORE AND DWELLING BURNED

Bendersville, Pa., Sept. 21.—The dwelling and store property of W. C.
Yeatts were completely destroyed by fire, entailing a heavy loss to the owner. The blaze is thought to have started from mice gnawing matches, which were stored on the second floor. Most of the stock in the general store and the furniture in the house were removed from the building before the flames reached the first floor, but the building was a complete loss.

A FINE THIRST QUENCHER

ited his old nome in the Complete has been deaded.

Dr. L. M. Shumaker, of Harrisburg.

Wistler, of Blain, held a consultation Stroup yesterday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Annie Woods.
Visitors at the home of C. M. Bower were: Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Bower and son Guy, Mr and Mrs. C. K. Bentley and baby Ruth, of Bellwood; Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Bower and there children, Ray, Willis and Ruth Bower, of Shiremanstown, and Misses Margaret and Rosalie Barnett, of New Bloomfield,

Who wants bread and butter when a feller can have POST TOASTIES money is due on a carload of coal purchased by the defendant.

Bell-Ans

Absolutely Removes
Indigestion. One package proves it. 25cat all druggists.

Marietta, Pa., Sept. 21.—Daniel M. Campbell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Campbell, of Quarryville, is now a part of General Pershing's expeditionary force in France. In a letter "There are many things I would like to say, but the censor has tightened considerably on news." He is with States Marines. All are well and he hopes soon to see other Lancaster faces,

BURNS ON ROAD

Animal Falls Into Reward Mechanicsburg Man Loses Minister Brings Out in Novel Machine and Load of Creek With Rider on His Lumber by Fire Back Near Newport

Newport, Pa., Sept. 21.—Eli Sarver, of Reward, had a narrow escape from large autotruck owned by John K. of Reward, had a narrow escape from large autotruck owned by John K. the annexation of the West Shore to death when pinned to the bottom of Snavely, of Mechanicsburg, was to-Harrisburg, the Rev. C. D. Rishel, death when pinned to the bottom of Reward creek, near here. Several broken bones and bad bruises, in addition to the scare, is the toil exacted however.

Sarver started out to plow his fields and he endeavored to cross the creek, as he approached it he was obliged to pass a high bank and on this the horse fell. Rolling over, the horse landed in the bottom of the creek and pinned Mr. Sarver to the bottom and pinned Mr. Sarver to the pinned Mr. Sarver to the bottom and pinned Mr. Sarver to the b Reward creek, near here. Several tally destroyed by fire last evening on

USED LANTERN

Way Advantages of Annexation to Harrisburg

To prove his arguments in favor of pastor of the Church of God, South asking questions during the explana-tion, which gave them a better idea of the proposition. There was little opposition to the move.

INFANTILE PARALYSIS CASES Lewistown, Pa., Sept. 21.—Infan-tile paralysis has made its appearance in Mifflin county. Two cases being reported by Dr. C. H. Brisbin, ounty medical inspector. Children a little over two years of age are the victims. The families live near Alported to the State Health Depart-most cases of eczema, rash or similar distressing skin eruption, not due to serious internal conditions. Physicians prescribe Resinol Ointment regularly

Unusual Modes In Misses' Suits For Fall and Winter

Comprising distinguished garments in twelve models cut along the lines of the youthful figure. These are not garments for small women.

Only designers and manufacturers who devote their entire thoughts and time to the fashioning of garments strictly for the miss's figure contribute to the Schleisner

And then Schleisner's approves the modes for the season.

Every adaptable material and harmonious color represented.

Serge and Satin Dresses For the Miss $16.50 to $25.00

Very inexpensive but embued with the youthful lines and thoroughness of fine dressmaking and the charm of design found only in Schleisner's garments. The large collars are particularly smart. Tunics are in vogue. Trimmed and plain

Schleisner's New and Enlarged Blouse Shop

Presents For Saturday Suit Blouses at $5, $5.95, $7.50, $12.50

In tones suitable for any occasion. Beetroot, taupe, navy, all shades of gray, cinnamon, etc. Materials of fine Georgette crepe most alluringly trimmed or beaded in exclusive

Georgette Crepe Blouses Crepe de Chene Blouses

with the new shawl collar of satin. White and flesh. Some are embroidered -some hemstitched.

$5.50, $5.75, $5.95 -of excellent quality crepe de chine-in flesh and white. 15 new models to select

New Tailored Blouses of Linen at $2.95 and $3.95

Fifty Distinctive Trimmed Hats $5.00 and $5.95

Something entirely out of the ordinary in trimmed millinery at popular prices. So much more desirable when coming from Schleisner's.

Large sailor shapes are in the center of fashion's attention and certainly becoming. Correct colors to match Schleisner apparel.

Schleisner's Men's Shop

Offers a most Discriminating Choice of Models

For Fall and Winter For the Men and Young Men of Discriminating Taste Suits and Overcoats $18 to $40

Materials are such that could be only conscientiously put into Schleisner Clothes and sold under the Schleisner label. Men need not fear for quality and correct fashions here.

49. New Universities Dictionary COUPON Presented by the HARRISBURG TELEGRAFH One Coupon Secures the Dictionary

How to Get It
For the Mere Nominal Cost of Manufacture and Distribution

Coupon 98c

secure this NEW authentic Dictionary, bound in real flexible leather, illustrated with full pages in color and duotone 1300 pages.

with ninety-eight cents to cover cost of handling, packing, clerk hire, etc. ORDERS

Present or mail to this paper one like the above

WILL BE FILLED

25 DICTIONARIES IN ONE All Dictionaries published previous to this year are out of date

CUMBERLAND VALLEY FAREWELLS FOR FAST TRAIN HITS FARMER PINNED BIG AUTO TRUCK

Mrs. Uriah Steffey.

STUDENTS RETURN TO STUDIES Blain, Pa., Sept. 21.—Students who have returned to resume their studies are: Misses Mae and Leslie Wentzel, to the New England Conservatory of Music, at Boston; Miss Lee Smith, James Neidigh and J. F. Harkink, to Susquehanna University, at Selins grove: Miss Margaret Spotts and Carleton B. Spotts, to Dickinson College, Carlisle.

Mrs. Daniel Zeigler, of Newville, is wisiting her daughter, Mrs. John Sollenberger.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Wentzel, D. P. McKee, Mrs. D. G. Keck and Miss Ida McKee motored to Pittman and Atlantic City, N. J.

Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Tressler and Mr. and Mrs. Willis Smith, of Marletta, Montored here on a visit.

John Boyd, of Idaho, engineer, is visiting his nother, Mrs. William Boyd, who is critically ill at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Edward Ernest, at Pine Grove.

J. E. Rickard, of Pittsburgh, is visiting his father, J. C. Rickard, The Blain Vocational School now has forty-seven pupils enrolled.

STORE AND DWELLING BURNED Bendersville, Pa., Sept. 21.—The dwelling and store property of W. C. Yeatts were completely destroyed by fire, entailing a heavy loss to the owner. The blaze is thought to have case of Mrs. Mary Ellen on the case of Mrs. Mary Ellen The Rev. J. Harold Wolf was toast-master; the Rev. O. E. Krenz, the Rev. George H. Eveler, the Rev. S. A. Crabill, J. Calvin Strayer and J. T. Atkins made addresses. Mrs. Crawford, president of the Red Cross Auxiliary, made a short address, telling of the work of the organization and presented to each one of the boys present a pair of wristlets.

Quarryville Boy With

DANIEL M. CAMPBELL

MILLERSTOWN Edgar Ulsh, of Philadelphia, is spending his vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Ulsh. Quarryville Boy With Pershing's Force in France Ward. Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Snoke left Wednesday for Elmer, N. J., where they will live. Miss Anna Rowe, of Harrisburg, spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Patterson and two sons have ireturned to their home at Hollis, N. Y., after visiting the former's aunt, Miss Elizabeth Patterson. Misses Anna and Edith Rounsley were at Harrisburg on Tuesday. Miss Olive Dimm has returned home from a month's visit with relatives in Connecticut and Newark, N. J. Miss Sarah Spiche, of Liverpool, spent Sunday with her sister, Miss Eva Snicher.

spent Sunday Eva Spicher.

Eva Spicher.

NEWPORT

Miss Ruth E. Jones is visiting at Johnstown and Pittsburgh.

R. B. Thompson, of Millerstown, was here this week.

Mrs. Ida Bingaman, of Washington, D. C., has returned to her home after visiting her friend and former schoolmater, Mrs. Charles W. Smith.

Mrs. Carrie Jeffers, of Newport, and Mrs. Martha MacLeod, of Altona, who is spending some time with her, have returned here after spending three weeks along the New England coast.

F. D. Jeffries, who has been employed for the past four months at Highspire, has returned home.

Miss Ida Reapsome has returned to her home at Fort Robinson.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Hoke, of Penbrook, have returned home after spending the week-end with Mrs. Hoke's uncle, W. C. McKeehan and family.

Edward Groff and Henry Raubb, of Ouarrytille, have returned home.

Edward Groff and Henry Raubb, of Quarryville, have returned home after visiting with Hiram M. Keen.

says Bothy