Werd from Washington te-day is to the effect that in the second Liberty Loan campaign, which is to start some time in October, particular attention will be paid the farmers of the United States, who will be urged to share with Uncle Sam the tremendous profits of the World's war. You people have the money, he'd say, 'and, cannot steps to prevent the charging of high prices in many lines, and has taken to first the world's war. You people have the money, he'd say, 'and, cannot steps to prevent hase war profits, it of the United States that so untricked $2.20 for this year's wheat crop and assured the agricultrist that seed the agricultrist that are a remarkable one for the agricultrist. Not only were the crops large, with and tax mes ot that extra little world to three per cent, was tied up. He had a great deal invested in his fields and for improvenced the upin the ready cannot be a set of the profit of the country to share my lives and barns insured against fire. I have my livestock insured. I have been in the habit of loan. "Thave been in the habit of loan." Thave been in the habit of loan. If sure from the farmer is money in the ready cannot, the latter than the ready cannot may be a little event of the first loan because he hadry the ready can money, the farmer is one seven or even higher per cent." This farmer's view is that of the all a farmer from the formity of agriculturists in the sore men or even higher per cent." This farmer's view is that of the latter than 10 miles and a sure of the country of the

FRIDAY EVENING,

Man Picked Up in Street Placed in Cell With No Medical Attention

ives his name as Elmer Zigler. His in Mechanicsburg. It is probable that he will recover.

HERE IS A SWEET SURPRISE

es of the cutting.
"The extra trouble is not great, and e children are always delighted hen the candy is discovered."

Gohl, Rinkenbach & Rouse PTOMETRISTS & OPTICIANS

Make Direct Appeal to Every Consumer of Food to Cut Waste

A man whose name appears on the records at the police station as Elmer Zigler was picked up last night and taken to the police station. The man was believed to be under the influence of liquor and was given a berth at the expense of the city for the night.

This morning it was discovered that Zigler was in bad shape in his cell.

By Associated Press
Philadelphia, Sept. 21. — A direct appeal to every food consumer in this State to conserve all foodstuffs to the imit as part of the big effort which this country must put forth to win the war will be made by a food conservation train that starts out from Philadelphia to-day. The train consists of three cars which have been prepared by the Department of Food Supply of

Governor's Troop Is Quartered in Grove

Fred Lyter, a former employe of the Harrisburg Telegraph, now with the Governor's Troop at Camp Hanpitche in a spitched in a wonderful pine grove and that the picket line is in a cotton field. He says the sanitary arrangements and housing are excellent. Francis Sullivan, formerly a cartoonist of the Harrisburg Telegraph, is now in Chicago where he has enlisted in the Regular Army.

Mrs. M. Pfuhl Froehlich's SCHOOL OF MUSIC

HARRISBURG, PA.

complete graded course of instruction in the study of Piano, Pipe Organ, Theory, Harmony and History of Music. Diplomas Upon Graduation

TERM OF 1917-1918 BEGINS SEPTEMBER 10, 1917 For terms and further information apply in person or by mail to the above address

PERSONAL -- SOCIAL Alderman Walter's Son

GIVE RECEPTION

hood, presided at brief exercises in the church when an address was the made by the Rev. Harry B. King, the pastor of the Paxton Presbyterian church. There were musical numbers by Mrs. Bird, Miss Esther Kauffman, Miss Mary Garland, Miss Margaret Elder and Mrs. S. R. Harris, and the entire audience of 250 people joined in singing America. The typesiding officers made a few-time by remarks as did the pastor and then came a surprise, when the Recand Mrs. Klaer were presented with a handsome tapestry-covered box couch by the congregation. Refreshments were prepared and served in the basement, by the men of the brotherhood and everyone enjoyed the good fellowship prevailing throughout the social part of the entertainment.

MAKE MANY SUGGESTIONS

Members of the adult Bible class of the Holy Communion Lutheran Church held their bimonthly meeting at the home of the pastor, the Art was from those present.

Just a day or two before, the pastor of wife celebrated her birthday, freceiving a goodly supply of gifts which were on exhibition. Refreshments closed a delightful wening.

KNITTING CLUB MEETS
Miss Irene Lutz, 1410 Liberty street, will entertain the members of the Knitting Club, organized this week, at her home this evening. The following officers were elected: Miss Jessie Harman, president: Miss Freda Dahr, treasurer; and Miss Miriam Hoover, secretary. The club will hold a meeting once a week at the homes of the members, and will do Red Cross knitting to be sent to their friends who are in training at Augusta, Ga. The following are members: Miss Tressa Kennedy, Miss Irene Lutz, Miss Freda Dahr, Miss
Jessie Harman, Miss Martha Yeager, Miss Miriam Hoover.

DINE LIEUTENANT LOWE DINE LIEUTERANT LOWE
Mr. and Mrs. Herald K. Goodman, 2307 Hoffer street, entertained at dinner in compliment to their cousins, Lieutenant and Mrs. D. C. Lowe, of Uniontown, Pa. Covers were laid for the following guests:
Mrs. J. B. Fast, Mr. and Mrs. C.
Z. Huffer, Donald Huffer, Mr. and Mrs. William Consylman, Frank Barley, Mrs. R. E. Wolfe and Miss Janice Wolfe, of Coatesville, and Lieutenant and Mrs. Lowe.

NEW JERSEY VISITORS rs. Cary Hutson and son, Rich-Hutson, of East Orange, N. J., in the city visiting her cousin, are in the city visiting her cousin. Mrs. William Davis, 624 Ross street. They accompanied Mr. Hutson, who is in the city testing the new motor engine recently purchased by the City Fire Department.

Mr. and Mrs. William H. Bushnell

In the host of soldiers leaving for DINING DR. CULP Camp Meade, Maryland, yesterday wa

NATURAL 'HISTORY HIKERS
The hike which the Natural History Society was forced to postpone last Saturday on account of rain, will be held to-morrow. The members are requested to take the Marysville car which will leave Market Square at 1 o'clock. Arriving at Little Mountain, above the Rockville bridge, they will hike along the north side and return via the south side and expect to be back to the city by 6 o'clock.

John C. Shopp, a student of the University of Pennsylvania, leaves next Wednesday to resume his studies with the sophomore class.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel C. Todd 1005
North Front street came home yesterday after spending a few days among old friends at Brownsville.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Rogers and small son, Theodore Rogers, of Providence, R. I., left for home to-day after a week's visit among relatives in suburban Harrisburg.

Mrs. George Klush, of 705 Norte.

Miss Clara May Harclerode is home rom a motor trip to Pen Mar and

Bushnell tt Second leisurely pent part with his r vist to Yale graduate and Miss ome after bunkport, street, is latives at lative at lative

Miss Sara Blake, are enjoying an cutting in Atlantic City and nearby Arrest Men Loitering esorts.

Mrs. Thomas Dunn went to Pitts-burgh this morning, to remain ten lays with her daughter, Mrs. Andrew

Near Rockville Bridge

Mrs. Thomas Dunn went to Pittsburgh this morning, to remain ten days with her daughter, Mrs. Andrew Thompson.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Talbot, of Fostoria, Ohio, are spending some time with Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Beidleman, Market and Thirteenth streets.

Mrs. J. U. Knisely, of 232 South Fourteenth streets.

Mrs. J. U. Knisely, of 232 South Fourteenth streets, has returned from Carlisle and is spending the remainder of the month at her cottage, Bide-a-Wee, at Mt Olivet.

Miss Sarah Wensell, of Paxtang, will leave the beginning of next week for Wellesley, Mass., to resume her studies at Wellesley College, where she is a member of the senior class. Mrs. Frank Williams of Dauphin, visited here yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Williams I. Reed and small son, Williams S. Reed, of Palmerton, as visiting Mrs. Reed's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Stucker, of 206 Relly street.

Miss Anna Behrens, of Brooklyn, N. Y., has returned home after visiting Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Curtls, of 1712 Forster street.

Miss Louise Zaepfel, of Lancaster, will spend the winter with her grandperents, Mr. and Mrs. Julius Bucher, of 1414 Derry street.

Miss Louise Zaepfel, of Lancaster, will spend the winter with her grandperents, Mr. and Mrs. Julius Bucher, of 1414 Derry street.

Miss Louise Zaepfel, of Lancaster, will spend the winter with her grandperents, Mr. and Mrs. Usited in this city several days this week.

Miss Virginia Bishop, who will reside with her parents in Mechanicsburg for the winter, is vusiting Miss Aitec Lescure, of 807 North Second street, prior to the opening of Irving College, where she will enter the freshman class.

Washington Camp No. 8 will hold the complaint filed by the Borough of Lewishwa against the increase of the Penn Central Electric will be considered by the commiss.

Washington Camp No. 8 will hold a progressive hassenpeffer party next Thursday evening after the regular session of the lodge. On November 1 they will hold their Halloween party. John L. Porter of Dauphin, staate guard, is paying a visit to each camp in the district. The new camp at Penbrook meets on Thursday evening and is getting along well. The booster committee of Camp 8 is starting its winter drive and received two propositions last evening.

ATTENDS BANQUET
Mechanicsburg, Pa., Sept. 21.—
Postmaster M. M. Dougherty left for Philadelphia yesterday to attend a banquet given at the Bellevue-Stratford hotel in honor of Roland S. Morris, ambassador to Japan, last evening.

His oday informed of an outbreak of small town in Snyder county.

DIES IN MARYLAND
Landry Moats, of 1114 Capital street, city, died at his brother's home in Hageratbun, Md. last Wednesday. Burial was made in Hageratbun, Md. last Wednesday. Burial was made in Hageratbun, Md. last Wednesday.

TELLS OF GRIM Joins Ambulance Corps

Woman on Visit Here Says Raiders Drop Poisoned Candy For Children

that the Wharton School of Finance and Commerce, who is in the cutyrise and Commerce, who is in the cutyrise and another than the wharton branch here is a street the Wharton branch here is a street that the Wharton branch here is a street that the Wharton branch here is a street that the wharton branch here is a large percentage of women and girls attending. But the word of the street is a large percentage of women and girls attending in the street that the street is a large percentage of women and girls attending. But the word in the street is a large percentage of women and girls attending in the street that the street is a large percentage of women and girls attending the street that the street is a large percentage of women and girls attending the street the other attended on the street that the street is a street the other attended on the street the other attended of the street the other attended the street that the street is a street the street the other attended the street that the street the other attended the street that the street that the street that the street the other attended the street that the street that the street the other attended the street that the street that the street the other attended the street that the street the street that the street that the street that the street the street the street that the street that the street that the street the street the street that the

WEST SHORE NEWS

Personal and Social Items of Towns Along West Shore

Mrs. J. A. Sprenkel, of New umberland, spent yesterday at Me-

Cumberland, spent yesterday at Mechanicsburg.

Mrs. J. Grimes Miley, of New Cumberland, has returned from a visit to her mother and brother, at Ashiand and Normal, Ky.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Walker and daughter, Lorene, Mrs. William Walker, Mrs. Everett Walker, son, Everett, of New Cumberland, motored to Carlisle on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hauss, of New Cumberland, have returned from a visit to relatives at Bridgeport, near Philadelphia.

Mrs. Clarence Sweeney, of New Cumberland, visited friends at Middletown.

Cumberland, went to Pittsburgh to visit relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Hippensteel and daughter, Dorothy, of New Cumberland, who have been spending several weeks at Mr. Hippensteel's home, near Oyster's Point, have returned home.

Burgess Broadhurst, who has been spending thirty days at his home in New Cumberland, returned to Annapolis, Md., where he is a student at the Military Academy.

GIRL LEADS ORCHESTRA
Enola, Pa., Sept. 21.—Miss largaret Hassler, a member of the junior class of the Enola High school 147, and about forty women went to has been elected leader of the school orchestra. Rehearsals will be held weekly, the first next week. It is expected that the school musical organization this year will be the larg.

BOYS LEAVE MECHANICSBURG Mechanicsburg, Pa., Sept. 21.—

the children from the High schoo

Soutter's 25c Dept. Store

Buy Here not alone because Prices Are Lower, but because Qualities Are Better

Be Sure to See This Comprehensive Display of New Fall Millinery

These days of Fall Opening Displays afford an excellent opportunity for making Millinery comparisons-both as to quality and price. We urge you to note well the offerings and prices of this and other stores, and buy as your judgment dictates. We urge such comparisons-while we may have rivals in style, qualities and careful workmanship, we have none in our reasonable pricing.

Weekly shipments from the largest millinery manufacturers in the metropolitan fashion centers, insure the newest models at all times.

Now Ready For Choosing

Dress, Semi-Dress and Tailored Hats

In Turbans, Tricornes, Roll Sailors, Mushroom, Panne and Silk Velvet, in all the leading colors.

Trimmings in Burnt Ostrich Feathers, Flowers, Wings, Gold and Silver Novelties, Etc.

All at Lower Than Elsewhere Prices

SOUTTER'S

1c to 25c Department Store Where Every Day Is Bargain Day 215 Market St. Opposite Courthouse

Warm Outer Garments For Children

> Desirable knitted garments for children from infancy to three years of age. The assortment comprises sweaters, leggings, coach

> > The Shop Individual Third Street at Herr.

Miss Eleanor E. Walter

Announces the reopening of her Studio for Modern and Fancy Dancing.

PHONE 797-J 31 N. 2ND ST.

H. S. KIRKLAND Teacher at the Philadelphia usical Academy, Author of Expression in Singing."

Lessons Resumed on Wednesday September 26, Studio: 1010 North Second Stree

robes, caps, mittens, sacques, etc.

In The Windows.

Commissioner Brecht sat to-day in the complaint filed by the Borough of Lewistown against the increase of rates of the Fenn Central Electric Company recently, and the matter will be considered by the commission shortly. The borough complaints of the company came back with data about costs.

Hearings weer also held in the complaints by Sheppton and Oneida people against the curtailment of train service on the Lehigh Valley Railroad and the complaints the increase in fares of the Schuylkill Railways Company. The cases were continued. SMALL POX IN SNYDER
The State Department of Health was to-day informed of an outbreak of smallpox at Aline, a small town in Snyder county. The Woman's Exchange

$2.98 to $10.98

$2.98 to $11.98

$14.98 to $74.98

$10.98 to $100.00

8-10-12 S. 4th St.

Coat and Suit Value Extraordinary

The Ladies' Bazaar

"It's Right Because We Make It Right"

We call these values extraordinary because we consider them one of the most unusual purchases of stylish Fall Coats and Suits we have

All the newest weaves, in velour, broadcloth, serge and other new effects. Trimmed in hand braided, beads, fur, with belts and belt effects,

IN COATS In Bolivia cloth, pom pom, burella and broadcloth, v lours and plushes, some plain tailored, others trimmed with fur cuffs and collars.

Beautiful Jersey cloth and serges; of the very latest modes, prettily trimmed, a very complete assortment of styles and prices— $10.98 to $24.98

Dresses in georgettes, satins and other novelty materials that offer every opportunity to satisfy the most discriminating tastes.

$10.98 to $39.98 SHIRT WAISTS -A wide variety including crepe de chine, georgettes, voile—in all styles and most pleasing shades—

Our showing of skirts is very varied and includes all the much wanted shades and materials in serges, poplin, check velours, silk striped and plain effects,