RAILROAD RUMBLES
WILLIAM ELMER ASSUMES CHARGE
PENNSY MEN TO JOIN ENGINEERS

New Superintendent of the Schuylkill Valley Division of Pennsylvania R. R.

William Elmer to-day assumed his duties as superintendent of the Schuylkill Valley division of the Pennsylvania Railroad. His headquarters will be in Reading. He succeeds J. J. Rhoades, who goes to Oil City to become superintendent of the Allegheny division.

Mr. Elmer was born in Trenton, N. J., September 29, 1870, and was educated at the schools of that city, graduating from the New Jersey State Model School in 1888. He entered Princeton in the John C. Green school of science in the class of 1892, and after four years in the mechanical engineering course, was graduated from the electrical school in the class of 1896, with degree of electrical engineer.

On October 1, 1896, Mr. Elmer entered the service of the Pennsylvania Railroad as an apprentice at the Meadows shops, having previously spent four months of the vacation of his senior year at the Pennsylvania Railroad division. During his apprenticeship he was called on for special duty. This work included the designing of an electric light apparatus; the designing of an electric fan; the design of plant and road tests of the Mount Holly electric road; and the designing of the power plant of the Atlantic City electric road.

On April 1, 1898, Mr. Elmer was transferred to Altoona as a special apprentice, and during his last year was assigned by the superintendent of motive power to prepare the 1899 report for the M. C. B. coupler committee.

General Foreman
On January 14, 1900, he was appointed to be foreman, electric car service, Atlantic City; and in October was transferred to Altoona as assistant master mechanic. Altoona was his headquarters until January 1, 1903, when he was promoted to assistant engineer of motive power, Pennsylvania Railroad division, and while in that office he had charge of the development and extension of various shop improvements, including new buildings at the Juniata car and Altoona machine shops, and the development of a new building at the Juniata car shop, South Altoona foundries, Hollidaysburg and Enola shops.

ALIEN PILOT
LAW NONCE OUT
State Authorities Will Insist That Foreigners Give Up Their Firearms

State Game protectors, as the wardens of the State Game Commission are entitled to begin enforcement of the 1917 prohibition against the possession of firearms by alien residents of Pennsylvania to own or possess of "any kind."

To-day the unnaturalized foreign born resident of this State may not hunt or shoot or be possessed of a shotgun or rifle or pistol or firearm of any kind, says the notice which will be issued. Reference is made to the conditions which prohibit about the passage of the laws and to the fact that the appellate courts held that they do not conflict with treaties.

Dr. Joseph Kalbuss, secretary of the Commission, in speaking of the notice says: "We do not want to annoy or harass anyone, neither do we want to deprive them of a cent of their hard earned dollars, but we want and must insist that they obey our laws. Notices in English, Italian and Slovenian will be posted throughout the State, especially in sections where aliens reside, and at the expiration of a limited period after such posting our officers are instructed to enforce the provisions of this amendment."

Those in the Squad
In the squad were Glenn Eichelberger, Paul Montell, James Smith, Frank Arney and Clayton Daugherty, who, with Paul S. Favorite, were machinists and employed at the Enola enginehouse, and Harry E. Arnold, of Duncannon, a fireman, who has served four years in the navy. Mr. Favorite is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Favorite, of Wormleysburg, and is well known in railroad circles. He graduated from Technical high school in 1911.

President Rea Has Birthday Celebration

Samuel Rea, president of the Pennsylvania Railroad, was sixty-two years old yesterday. As celebration he observed it by attending to his duties as a member of the Railroad's War Board in Washington in exactly the same manner in which he had spent four days out of each week ever since he was appointed to the board six months ago.

Railroad Notes

The telegraphers' strike on Pennsylvania branches has been called off. Frank J. Hoffman, a Reading machinist who has joined the Army, was presented with a safety razor and complete toilet outfit by his fellow shopmen.

From signed statement of Miss Rose V. Soule, 1716 Oriana St., Philadelphia:
It is so easy to prevent skin and scalp troubles by using Cuticura Soap, and no other, for all toilet purposes, assisted now and then by touches of Cuticura Ointment to first signs of pimples, rashes, dandruff or irritation. Bathe with Cuticura Soap and hot water, dry lightly and apply Cuticura Ointment. At once the itching ceases, sleep and rest follow, and complete healing in most cases results in continued use. Do not confound them with coarsely medicated soaps and ointments.

For Free Sample Each by Return Mail address post-card: "Cuticura, Dept. H, Boston." Sold everywhere. Soap 25c. Ointment 25 and 50c.

GEN. BLISS NAMED CHIEF OF STAFF
Succeeds Hugh L. Scott; Has Had Experience in Many Fields

Washington, Sept. 22.—Major General Tasker H. Bliss to-day was named chief of staff of the army to succeed Major General Hugh L. Scott, who retires from office to-morrow.

General Bliss has been acting chief of staff since General Scott went to Russia as a member of the United States commission. General Bliss is 64 years old, but he immediately will be recalled to active service. Secretary Baker has announced that the present general would be assigned to duty in connection with the training of troops in the United States, but would not specify the command.

General Bliss has been chief of staff since General Scott left for Russia several months ago as a member of the American mission. He also will reach the age of retirement on December 31 next, but before his appointment to-day there were intimations that he would remain as chief of staff for at least three months.
