been heard of him since, and it was assumed that he had been lost, but not until to-night did army head-quarters issue a confirmatory report. Captain Guynemer, who attained world-wide fame by his exploits, was perhaps the most brilliant aviator in the war. He was last cited in the official announcement of September 10 for having won his fiftleth aerial victory. An unofficial press dispatch a few days earlier said he had accounted for fifty-two enemy machines. He was 21 years old.

the cross of the Legion of Honor, the Military Medal, the War Cross and almost every other honor which his country could bestow.

The feeling of his countrymen for him was shown when the young captain, carrying the flag of the aviation group, marched in the parade in Faris at the celebration of the French national holiday last July. He was greeted with wild outbursts of cheering and covered with flowers thrown by women and children.

Captain Guynemer first came into public notice in February of last year by bringing down his fifth enemy plane thus becoming an "ace" and carning an official citation. Victories followed in rapid succession and the young aviator, who took part in many spectacular fights, had the narrowest escapes on several occasions. In March of last year he was wounded. One of the most spectacular achievements of Captain Guynemer was the shooting down of three German airplanes in two minutes thirty seconds in September of last year. On one occasion he was forced to descend between the French and German trenches, but was able to ascape.

Guynemer was admitted to the army as a volunteer after having been rejected five times by medical inspectors. He operated his airplane alone, serving as both pilot and gunner.

A well-known downtown druggist says everybody uses Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound now because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied—it's so easy to use, too. You simply dampen a comb or soft brush and draw it through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two, it is restored to its natural color and looks glossy, soft and beautiful This preparation is a delightful toilet requisite.
It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.

I. W. W. Plays on Fears of Illiterate Farmers

By Associated Press

Washington, Sept. 26.—How a small coterie of active antiwar workers, operating under the direction of the Industrial Workers of the World, persuaded hundreds of unlettered Oklahoma farmers to take up arms against the Government's enforcement of the selective draft law, is revealed in papers seized by Federal agents in the recent nationwide raid of I. W. W. headquarters.

The antidraft demonstration started as an agrarian movement, the records show, in Oklahoma, where a number of illiterate farmers obtained an exaggerated idea of the law's operation. Certain I. W. W. leaders learned of secret meetings held by the farmers in churches and other buildings and sont agitators to the scene to fan the discontent into open rebellion, it is said, by playing on their fears.

Ensinger vas then called before Chief Wetzel and confronted with Krebb's evidence. He denied his guilt and was permitted to go with instructions, however, to return yesterday with a passenger whom he deflared could explain Krebb's story. In the country of t

Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and is very harmful. Just plain mulsified cocoanut oil (which is pure and entirely greaseless), is much better than the most expensive soap or anything else you can use for shampooing, as this can't possibly injure the hair.

Simply moisten your hair with water and rub it in. One or two teaspoonfuls will make an abundance of rich, creamy lather, and cleanses the hair and scalp thoroughly. The lather rinses out easily, and removes every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves it fine and silky, bright, fluffy and easy to manage.

You can get mulsified cocoanut oil at most any drug store. It is very haber, and a few ounces is enough.

the first quota of drafted men to the mobilization camps commencing September 19 and closing on September 23 was accomplished without an accident. The railroad reports show that over 25,000 men were moved to the three camps, the majority going to Camp Meade. Not only were there no casualties reported but were used in different days.

In some few instances reports were received of men being left behind and having to take regular trains, but the movement by the special trains was carried out in accordance with schedules the officials here say, Owings to the locations the same carrs, were used in different days.

The next movement is scheduled to start October 3, just two weeks after the first, but the original call for forty per cent, has been reduced. The railroad schedules for this movement which will be five per cent, only, will lykely be on one day.

No information has been received as to the disposition of colored men who have been drafted.

Logic

When a man buys a newspaper day after day at a higher price than other papers cost in his community, that paper MUST be the paper he WANTS.

¶ That's logic, isn't it? And the paper he wants above all others is the paper that gets his BEST attention.

That, too, is logic.

And the paper that gets the BEST attention from 75 per cent. of all homes in its community must be reaching pretty close to 100 per cent. of the money-spending families in its field.

¶ There's logic in that, isn't there?

And the paper that 100 per cent. of the moneyspending homes want above all other papers, should be the one the advertiser should likewise make FIRST CHOICE.

Isn't that logic?

¶ 75 per cent. of the homes in Central Pennsylvania — that means practically 100 per cent. of the well-to-do homes in the field — hold the Harrisburg Telegraph in such high esteem, and consider it so important a part of their daily life, that they are willing to pay more to get it than other papers cost.

Isn't it sound logic to figure that by using the Harrisburg Telegraph, the advertiser comes pretty close to covering the field effectively at a big saving in advertising expenditure?
