STRIKE OF 30,000 PERSONAL SOCIAL BRIDAL SHOWER FOR MISS SHUNK MRS. RODENHIVER SECRETARY MEETS SHIPYARD MEN IS CONTINUED HAS A WAR PARTY THE R. F. O. M. CLUB Beautiful Household Gifts For Bride-Elect Who Will

Boilermakers Refuse to Join in Plan to Go Back to Work

San Francisco, Sept. 28.—The strike 30,000 metal trades unionists here, hich was to have been ended to-day, as indefinitely prolonged late last ight, when members of the Boiler-takers Union voted not to return to ork under the terms of a tempo-stry agreement made Sunday, and hich had been accepted by a major-y of the unions affiliated with the on Trades Council. The action of the boilermakers will the action of the boilermakers will the the unions affiliated work on on-the the boiler makers will right the unions affiliated con-rests let by the United States Gov-rmment. The temporary agreement as signed Sunday by labor leaders hy at the urgent request of Presi-ent Wilson, who appealed to the pa-totism of the men. The Boilermakers Union was one the four organizations affiliated it the iron Trades Council that vot-lagainst acceptance of the tempo-try agreement. The boilermakers unced to-day.

Live in Carlisle Mrs. J. Frank Slack, of 67 North

Eighteenth street, invited some of the more personal friends of Miss Elizabeth Shunk, whose engagement to Albert Buttorff, of Carlisle, was recently announced, to attend a miscellaneous shower for the bride elect at her residence, last evening Many beautiful household gifts were presented with a host of good wishes and a late supper was served. The table appointments were scarlet with hearts and Cupids and centerpiece of dahlias. The favors were little bonbonnieres filled with In attendance were: Miss Pearl

In attendance were: Miss Pearl Tagg, Miss Cynthia Beitman, Miss Emily Hall, Miss Elizabeth Hatz, Miss Kathryn Lyter, Mr. and Mrs. John W. Holsberg, Miss Emily Shunk, Miss Elizabeth Shunk, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Slack, of this city; Miss Pauline Fromm and Miss Mil-dred Fromm, of Hummelstown; Miss Pearl Slack and Dr. C. Lloyd Linde-muth, of Middletown. Central High Seniors

MRS. CROSBY'S BIRTHDAY A few friends gathered at the home of Mrs. Anna Crosby, 328 North street, last evening to celebrate her 66th birthday. Light refresh-ments were served. Those present were: the Rev. and Mrs. G. W. Getz, Mrs. H. M. Heikes, Miss Bertha Zorger, Wm. Zorger, Elmer Crosby, Winfield Crosby and Aliss Alberta Crosby. LANCASTER GOLFERS COMING

LANCASTER GOLFERS COMING Lancaster Country Club golfers, who will play their first match with the Country Club of Harrisburg, to-morrow at the Fort Hunter course, will arrive here about noon to-mor-row and be given an automobile ride and entertained at the new club-house. Chairman Todd, of the Coun-try Club golf committee, will an-nounce the Country Club team to-morrow.

RETURNS TO BUFFALO W. Earle Mark, secretary of the Lackawanna Y. M. C. A., his wife and daughter, Miss Emly Mark, of Buffalo, N. Y., left this morning by motor on their return home via Pittsburgh and Youngstown, Ohio, after a visit with his mother, Mrs. H. B. S. Mark, Rodearmel Apart-ments.

10,000 MAY STRIKE

By Accounted Press Seattle, Wash., Sept. 28, - Repre-entatives of the Seattle Steel Ship uilding plants and the strike com-nittee of the Metal Trades Counci-vere to meet to-day to discuss th mpending walkout of approximatel 0.000 workers, ordered for to-mor

for Fall

The Shop Individual

An Excellent Opportunity to Select

Your Suit or Coat From a Host of

Fashion's Best Styles

Her Twenty Guests Eschew Miss Scott, of the Y. W. C. A., Fashion's Follies and Wear Speaks to Girls at Miss Battle-scarred Costumes Miller's Home

A surprise and war party was held last evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Rodenhiver, 1411 the home of Miss Carrie M. Miller, Market street, with twenty guests 2117 Penn street, with Miss Lois Market street, with twenty guests 2117 Penn street, with Miss Lois present, enjoying music and social diversions. As Dame Fashion has been decreed out of style during the war, many of the guests appeared in looks had survived many battles. An elaborate supper was served to Mrs. J. W. Zimmerman, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Shoemaker, the Misse Kath-ryn Bolton, Ruth Orner, Esther Decover, Holes Wearse Serve Won looks had survived many battles. An elaborate supper was served to Mrs. J. W. Zimmerman, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Shoemaker, the Misses Kath-ryn Bolton, Ruth Orner, Esther Demmy, Helen Weaver, Sara Won-ders, Jessie Caldwéil, Helen Shatto and Sara Meals, Levi ^{*}Bolton, Leo Oren, Charles Jones, Isaac Henne-man, Frank Zeiders, Lester Jones, Bruce Wonders, Elmer Jones, B. E. Hockenberry and Reynolds McDon-ald.

Initiated Into S. A. E.

as now each individual is responsible for her own work which no one else can do quite as well. Miss Scott ended her talk by telling the story of "The Master Workman and the Little Samples."
Mrs. John W. German, Jr., a member of the committee, spoke on "Friendship and Loyalty." The girls sang several club songs and refreshments were served before closing. In attendance were Miss Scott, Mrs. German, Miss May Patterson, Miss Charlotte Loudon, Miss Mary Freed, Miss May Kerstetter, Miss Clara Helsp, Miss Marte Hutton, Miss Carrie Oren, Miss Ether Smith, Miss Carle M. Miss Mark Ether, Mrs. Clarence Griffey and Master Harry Lusk.

Sixteenth Birthday

of Miss Susan Hayward

Initiated Into S. A. E. Fifteen senior siris from the com-mercial High school department are-looking forward with anxiety to their initiation into the S. A. E. Society which will be held to-night at the home of Miss Katherine Bogar. 119 Calder street. After the mysteries of the initiation are explained the even-ing will be spent in dancing. Re-freshments will be served to the fol-lowing new members: Miss Anna Hause, Miss Florence Horning, Miss Mary Ammon, Miss Anna Hertzler, Miss Leah Fisher, Miss Helen Sea-bold, Miss Ruth Blair, Miss Edna Bowers, Miss Holen Smith, Miss Ha-zel Snow, Miss Ida Yoder, Miss Jose-phine Hubler, Miss Cara Grove, Miss Marguerite Reynolds, and Miss Edna Mozingo: charter members, Miss Helen Smith, Miss Katherine Nicely, Miss Grace Stoner, Miss Ruth Beatty, Miss Grace Stoner, Miss Ruth Meatory, Miss Esther Dunlap, Miss Ruth Mc-Cormick, Miss Hazel Hamill, Miss Mary Saunders and Miss Helen Rote. A junior class dance will be held this evening at Hanshaw's Hall. Stewart Wagner and Miss Virginia Forrer, committee on arrangements. Musc by the Sourbeer orchestra. MISS SPEAKMAN HOSTESS Miss Chillion Stokenson 200 North Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hayward, of 34 North Eighteenth street, arrang-ed a surprise party in celebration of the sixteenth birthday of their daughter, Miss Susan L. Hayward, Games and music were features of pleasure with refreshments follow pleasure with refreshments follow-ing. In attendance were the Misses Sarah Beek, Jessie Stonier, Edith iders, Emma Fellows, Phylene Rit-chie. Anna Erb, Ora Davis, Susan Hayward, Mildred Bowman; Messrs. Earl Gates, Albert Beard, Robert Wallower, Harold Towsen, Karl Hoo-ver, George Shafiner, Harry Stouffer, Madison Keefer, Karl Shriner, Don-ald Hayward, Karl Hayward, J. C. Garvick, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Bow-man, Mr. and Mrs. A. Hayward.

GET-TOGETHER SUPPER Charles B. Thompson, director of the John Y. Boyd Memorial Build-ing, of Pine Street Prosbyterian Church, announces the start of the season's work at the building with a get-together- supper, on October 1. Two hundred men of the church will hear of some of the activities which have been planned for them this year. Several prominent men will be in charge of special work for the men and they will take this time to give out their plans for the work. The Boyd Building will be the scene of great activity from the 1st of October. MISS SPEAKMAN HOSTESS Miss Lillian Speakman, 709 North eventeenth street, will entertain the nembers of her Sunday school class afternoon. Interest nd contests are arranged for little guests and refreshments be served to the following: Miss a Shultz, Miss Mary Wirt, Miss y Deardorfe, Miss Irene Fulmer, Mary Deardorfe, Miss Irene Fulmer, Miss Helen Hoke, Miss Jean Myers, Miss Catherine Dreshman, Miss Ada Bagshaw, Miss Sarah Eleanor Graeffe, Miss Ethel Grace Shaeffer, Miss Helen Shatto, John Beck, John Guyer, Edward Feindt, "Billie" Chambers, Marlin Langlotz, Fred Miller. David Roberts, Franklin Lar-kin, Russell Hope and Miss Lillian Speakman.

HOLD TROOP MEETING Troop No. 1 held a meeting last hight at the home of Miss Elizabeth Murray. The advisability of admit-night at the home of Miss Elizabeth Murray. The advisability of admit-ting Junior members was discussed with the leader, Miss Anna Murray. After the business session dancing was enjoyed by the following: Miss Esther Wheeler, Miss Miriam Ul-rich, Miss Mary Bright, Miss Susan Moltz, Miss Martha Goodyear, Miss Margaret Jacoby, Miss Nelle Ard, Miss Frances Caton, Miss Grace Robinson and Miss Elizabeth Mur-ray. J. G. CLUB ENTERTAINED The J. G. Club was entertained the home of the Misses Pauline d Marie Neidhammer and refresh-ents were served to the following people: Miss Josie Hoon, Miss Nerissa Sad-ler, Miss Jean Baker, Miss Shaeffer, Miss Ruth Baker, Miss Frances Shaeffer, Miss Marle Neid-hammer and Miss Pauline Neid-hammer, of Wormleysburg; Miss Martha Moltz, of Harrisburg, and Miss Sophia Witmyer, of New Cum-berland.

8-10-12

S. 4th St.

Miss Edith Bentley, of 1417 North ront street, has gone to the Beach rood school, Jenkintown, to take a

Miss Celeste Baker and her sis-ter, Miss Wilma Baker, started for their home in Cincinnati, Ohio, this morning after a fortnight's stay with their aunt, Mrs. Paul L. Thomas, of

HARRISBURG Miller-Demuth Wedding Surprise For J. E. Myers at Home of the Bride

on His 34th Birthday

A pretty home wedding took place Wednaeday evening, September 20 at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Demuth, Brandtsville, when their daughter, Miss Verna May De-muth, and Henry Lee Miller were united in marriage by the bride groom's fafter, the Rev. Jacob Mil-lier, of Mechanicsburg. Miss Margaret Hubley played the tohengrin bridal chorus on the plano as a processional for the bridal parts and the ceremony was performed under an arch of snow blossoms. The de wore white satin and creps frange blossoms and carring playk roses. Gor man Aoat Chestnut was best mail of honor, wearing plak roses. Gor man Aoat Chestnut was best mail of honor, wearing plak roses. Gor man Aoat Chestnut was best mail of honor, wearing plak roses. Gor man Aoat Chestnut was best mail of honor, wearing plak roses. Gor man Aoat Chestnut was best mail of honor, wearing plak roses. Gor man Aoat Chestnut was best mail of honor, wearing plak roses. Gor man Aoat Chestnut was best mail of honor, wearing plak roses. Gor man Aoat Chestnut was best mail of honor, wearing plak roses. Gor man Aoat Chestnut was best mail of honor, wearing plak roses. Gor man Aoat Chestnut was best mail of honor, wearing plak roses. Gor man Aoat Stutu sister, was mail of honor, wearing plak roses. Gor man Aoat Stutu was best mail of honor, wearing plak roses. Gor man Ana Mrs. Miller left for a honys moon in Atlantic City, Philadephi and Washington. They will makk their home at 132 Horner street, thil city, after November 1.

COLONIAL CLUB NIGHT Fifty people attended the first of the season's club night at the Colonial Country Club last evening. The Up-degrove orchestra played for dancing and a supper was enjoyed. Arrange-ments have been made by the dance committee to resume the Saturday night dances which were so popular in October of last year.

IN ORDNANCE DEPARTMENT Paul Gerdes, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard J. Gerdes, 120 Sylvan Ter-race, a senior of the University of Chicago, has gone to San Antonio. Texas, to complete a training of six weeks at the university for the ord-nance department of the Regular Army. The young man was graduat-ed from Central High school in 1914. He expects to be sent to France for active duty this autumn. Major and Mrs. A. M. Porter, of 42 North Seventeenth street, are home after a vacation spent among Pitts-burgh friends.

Mrs. B. F. Daugherty, Mr. and Mrs. John D. Bitner and son. John Bitner, of 35 Motth Seventeenth street, have returned after spending some time at their cottage, Lindenhurst, at Mt.

Gretna. Miss Martha Fletcher, of Pine street, is home after visiting Miss Beidleman at Frostburg, Md. Mrs. Robert J. Holmes, of Indian-apolis, Ind., formerly Miss Sara Egle, of this city, is a guest of her mother, Mrs. William H. Egle, North Second street.

The Twelfth squad of Company K, son, Miss Mildred Reel, Miss Roy Nell, Miss Elva Peters and the Eighth Pennsylvania Infantry, of York, a Camp Hancock, Georgia, mposed mostly of Harrisburg boys, had a celebration in honor of Cor-

MRS. FULLER'S CLASS GUESTS AT THE HOME OF MISS JONES Class No. 13 of the Christ Lutheran hurch, taught by Mrs. W. B. Fuller,

MUST FILE ACCOUNT Candidates who spent less in the primaries election must file an expense account Prothonotary of the Courts or not they were nominated certificates must be locked. Church, talgart by Mrs. W. D. Fuller, must nie an expense account was entertained last evening by one Prothonotary of the Cou of its members, Miss Emma May or not they were nomina Jones, at her home, 1533 Beryhill street. After the business meeting. I spent more than 350 has music and singing was enjoyed. Re-tober 20 to file their account

Witmer, Bair and Witmer Walnut, Near Second

Anticipate Your Fall Wants ---You Can Buy Better Now Than Later. A Choice Assortment of All That Is New and Desirable.

SERGE DRESSES

NAVY BLUE SERGE DRESSES-All around white silk collar, NAVY SERGE DRESSES-Sport pockets and cold
atin collars — some embroidered and others pla ailored,	dle, self belt, patent leather belt, attractive white in $15.75
25 EXCLUSIVE MODELS in higher grade to	SERGE DRESSES—Models to suit the young miss 516.75, $17.75, $18.75 & $19.75 rge dresses—plain tailored, braid trimmed, em- 50, $23.50, $25.00 TO $29.75
BLOUSES — Tailored Georgette crepe Blouse izes, GEORGETTE CREPE BLOUSE in white only- eaded, WASH SATIN TAILORED SHIRTS in flesh and white, SUIT BLOUSES in plain and beaded models, in	-Hand embroidered and $3.95 $5.00 and $7.75 actuding odd designs in indestructible voiles,
FANCY SILK LINED CUT EOLIVIA COATS- n plum, brown, green, wistaria and $25.00 an-an exceptional value,	S4.95, $5.50, $7.95 to $16.75 FIFTEEN SAMPLE COATS—Plain and large fur collar — majority silk lined— values $29.75 to $47.50. Sample prices. $19.75 to $35.00
traight lines - $38.50 to $53.50	MISSES' MODELS — With the high waist lines and tailored shoulder — $35.00 to $55.00
POM POM COATS — In plum, Cuban brown, boncord, Pekin, Green and navy — full lined in lain and fancy silks— $35.00 $37.50 $39.75	FUR SCARFS — In amber, taupe, smoke, red, black in foxes, wolves and lynx — $26.50 to $53.50
WITMER, BAIR

SEPTEMBER 28, 1917.

Entertainment at Camp owing: Mrs. W. B. Fu For Harrisburg Boy elyn McCloskey, Miss Ve Miss Cordelia Morgan, Mis

ess, Miss Emma May Mrs. amuel J. Jones naterial for the celebration was ob-tained through the courtesy of Cap-tain J. J. Hartman. The entertainers were a quartet ADMITTED TO ANNAPOLI Marietta, Pa., Sept. 28.-Edwin-I raves, Jr. son of Dr. and Mrs. thin J. J. Hartman. The entertainers were a quartet composed of Edgar Myers, John Gill, John Strickler and Wilbur Myers. The squad is composed of Corpoal Mogel, Samuel Koplovitz, Edgar My-ers, S. Ritchie, John Strickler, Wilbur Myers, W. M. Buckmyer and Johnny Gill, the well-known puglilist of York, D. Graves, has passed the exami at Annapolis, Maryland. He is mber of the largest class in history of that institution, and thirty four other Pennsylvanians have accepted.

RUBIN & RUBIN EYESIGHT SPECIALISTS 320 Market Street — "OVER THE HUB" Open Wednesday and Saturday Evenings Beil Phone 2020-W

GIVE A SURPRISE PARTY TO HOWARD WEVADAU TO HOWARD WEVADAU Lemoyne, Pa., Sept. 28.—Friends of Howard Wevadau, living on the McCormick estate farm near herer, surprised him on his birthday last night. M. P. Kister was awarded the prize for securing the title of champion cake eater. The guests'in-cluded: Mr. and Mrs. Howard We-vadau, Harry Wevadau, Miss Cath-erine Wevadau, Walter Wevadau, Mr and Mrs. Harvy Sweger, Mr. and Mrs. I. W. Appler, Mr. and Mrs. George Quigley, Mr. and Mrs. Solo-mon Wevadau, Mr. and Mrs. M. B. E. Kister, Mrs. Clayton Snell, Mrs. Clinton Stone, Miss Sarah Kister, Miss Ruth Snell, Miss Evelyn Walter, Guy Stone, Woodrow Stone.

ter, Miss Wilma Baker, started for their home in Cincinnati, Ohio, this morning after a fortnight's stay with their aunt, Mrs. Paul L. Thomas, of Penn street. Mr. and Mrs. Abbott Lingle and daughter, Mrs. Henry Dietrich, of Brooklyn, are stopping for a few days with their relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Paul M. White, of North Third street. Miss Nelle Thompson, of Buffalo, Miss Nelle Thompson, of Buffalo,

Miss Austa TenEyck has returned to her home in Albany, N. Y., after spending some time with Miss Evelyn Speakman, 709 North Seventeenth County W. C. T. U. Able to Furnish Hospital Cot

Mrs. Street.

Reports of the recent W. C. T. U. convention of Dauphin county held in Christ Lutheran Church tell that the various branches of the union have contributed enough money to furnish a Red Cross hospital cot to be placed in one of the hospital camps and to be known as the Dau-phin County W. C. T. U. bed. Mrs. R. A. Ronemus, 816 Capital street, and Mrs. Charles E. Kins, 429 Hamilton street, were elected delegates to attend the state W. C. T. U. convention to be held in Greensburg the latter part of next week.

SPEAK IN CARLISLE Mrs. Ralph E. Boswell and Mrs. S. B. Wilson, of this city, will speak in Carlisle this evening at a mission-ary rally of the Queen Esther circle of the Allison Memorial Methodist Episcopal Church of that place.

North Beaching as stay among old friends at Milther Mutrices in the city for a week or two.
 Mrs. Henry C. Orth, of Titusville aformer Harrisburger, is a guest of the rolece, Mrs. William H. Middle town, at Camp Hill.
 Mrs. Affred Turner, have gone home to Utica, N. Y., after Visiting relatives in the city for a week or two.
 Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Bitner, of 33 North Seventeenth Esreet, entertained Lieutenant Francis Rupp, of the viation school at Ithaca, N. Y., after Visiting relatives in the city for a week or two.
 Mrs. Cleeste Baker and her sity in the city for a week or two.
 Miss Celeste Baker and her sity in the city for a week or two.
 Miss Celeste Baker and her sity in the mine in Clincinnative in unday night dinner.

