IMPORTANT NEWS OF TOWNS IN CENTRAL PENNSYLVANIA

BOARDINGHOUSE FOR WORK GIRLS

American Wire Fabrics Company at Mt. Wolf Will Care For Female Employes

SCOUTS IN NEW HOME

Amos Miller Tendered Enjoyable Surprise Dinner on His Fifty-seventh Birthday

Mount Wolf, Pa., Sept. 29 .- An

the borough and employs a large ber of female heip. The place be put in charge of a woman York, who has had experience onducting first-class boarding-es. At the present time a por-of the first floor is being used as houses. At the present time a portion of the first floor is being used as a barber shop, but this will be moved to another building on the same street.—Members of the local order of the Knights of Golden Eagle will go to York on Saturday evening to attend a meeting of past councilors.—Permanent headquarters have been secured by the Boy Scouts in the building in Main street formerly occupied as a barber shop. The first meeting was held there Thursday evening and a number of new members admitted. The roster now contains more than thirty names.—In honor of his fifty-seventh birthday, Amos Miller was tendered a surprise last Sunday by relatizes and friends. A dinner was served. The guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Amos Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Lehr, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Lehr, Mrs. Charles Siple, Annie Lehr, Helen Hehr, Thelma Lehr, Wilbert Lehr, Irvin Lehr, Norman Lehr, Latimer Wallace, and Russel Lehr.—James W. Bare, who left here last Thursday with the first contingent of men from the county district, returned home on Tuesday. Bare gave no reason for his return, except that he asked two negroes who passed the camp in an automobile to take him with them and they brought him to Baltimore. From that city he came to Mount Wolf by train.—Charles Hershey, of Hilton, and Miss Florence Wolfrom, Brookside, were guests over Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mis. Norman Miller.—Miss Beulah Aughenbaugh, who spent severuned home.—Mr. and Mrs. George Warner and son Lloyd spent last Sunday at Hanover.—Jerry Brown, a clerk at the Pennsylvania freight station, who with his family spent their vacation with friends at Philadelphia and Harrisburg, have rearber shop, but this will be another building on the station, who with his family spent their vacation with his family spent their vacation with friends at Philadelphia and Harrisburg, have returned home.—Miss Margaret Warner entertained Miss Helen Miller, of Glen Rock, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Warner.—An attractive program has been arranged for the Rally Day to be held Sunday at the United Brethren Church, the Rev. H. W. Zuse, pastor. The speaker for the forenoon and evening sessions will be the Rev. Dr. Brane, editor of the Religious Telescope, of Dayton, Ohio.

Annville Will Entertain Delegates to Conference county this week. Corporal Smith David Mockerman, at Harrisburg.— is in the Quartermaster Department of the United States Army, located at Dauphin County during the coming Governor's Island, New York. He is a graduate of Lebanon Valley Colis a graduate of Lebanon Valley College and Dickinson Law School

David Mockerman, at Harrisburg.—
Farmers' institutes will be held in Dauphin County during the coming winter as follows: Linglestown, 1s a graduate of Lebanon Valley Coljanuary 14 and 15; Gratz, January 18

Priests Are Changed to Fill Vacancy Created by

Departure of Rev. Stock

IN CITY'S CHURCHES

UPPER END MAN SUCCESSFUL HUNTER

Wichigan, P. Sopt. 29—Ad mp. Breath Strong A. Dark Specht, whose picture appears above, let proving himself in bast accome himself of the upper ad. Similar proving himself in bast accome himself of the upper ad. Similar proving himself in bast accome himself of the upper ad. Similar proving himself in bast accome himself of the upper ad. Similar proving himself in bast accome himself and the upper ad. Similar proving himself in bast accome himself and the upper ad. Similar proving himself in bast accome himself and the upper ad. Similar proving himself in bast accome himself and the upper ad. Similar proving himself in bast accome himself and the upper ad. Similar proving himself in bast accome himself and the upper ad. Similar proving himself in bast accome himself and the upper ad. Similar proving himself in bast accome himself and the upper ad. Similar proving himself in bast accome himself and the upper ad. Similar proving himself in bast accome himself and the upper ad. Similar proving himself in bast accome himself and the upper ad. Similar proving himself in bast accome himself and the upper ad. Similar proving himself in bast accome himself and the upper ad. Similar proving himself in bast accome himself and the upper ad. Similar proving himself in bast accome himself and the upper ad. Similar proving himself in bast accome himself and the upper admits a second the upper admits and the upper admits a second the upper admits an Mrs. grandmother, Mrs. Daniel Miller .-Annville, Pa., Sept. 29.—Preparations are being made by the people of Annville to entertain the ministers and laymen of the United Brethren conference which will be held here next week.—John Biever, who has been ill for some time, is slowly recovering.—Professor Charles Arndt, formerly of this place, left for Texas where he will teach in an agricultural school.—George Derickson is spending several weeks with his grandmother, Mrs. Mary Valler-champ, at Harrisburg.—William Blouch has enlisted in the cavalry branch of the United States Army—Annville teachers will attend the county institute next week.—Herman Sherk, who is teaching in a high school in Western Pennsylvania, came home for physical examination on Thursday.—Corporal Edward H. Smith, son of Frank Smith, cashier of the People's Deposit Bank, is here for a few days, having been admitted to the bar by Lebanon county this week. Corporal Smith is in the Quartermaster Department

Prof. Harry Starrey Sapent over Shippensburg.—Prof. Harry Starrey Amrs. J. I. Thompson, of Washington, N. J., spent several days at the home of Pash Starrey Starrey Supent over Shippensburg-Prof. Harry Starrey St

Happy Hour of Sermon

and Song to Be Held at Stevens Memorial

A number of changes of priests in York and Adams counties have been in Stevens Memorial Methodist directed by Bishop Philip R. Mc-Devitt, of the Harrisburg diocese of Vernon streets, a happy hour of serdirected by Bishop Philip R. McDevitt, of the Harrisburg diocese of the Catholic Church, resulting from the appointment of the Rev. Mark Stock, of New Oxford, to the position of lieutenant chaplain at Camp Meade, the cantonment for conscripts from the State of Pennsylvania. The changes become effective on October 6, next.

The Rev. Matthew Scanlon, assistant pastor at St. Patrick's church. York, has been moved to Fairfield. Adams county, and will preach his initial sermon to his consregation at that place next Sunday. The vacancy caused by the removal of the Rev. Mr. Scanlon from the York church has as yet not been filled. The Rev. Herman Gies, of Fairfield. The Rev. He priests of the several Catholic churches,

The Rev. Mark Stock has been in charge at New Oxford several years. He left yesterday for Camp Meade and will be in daily touch with the Harrisburg Knights of Columbus. The latter are supplying the boys with reading matter and will aid in furnishing reading rooms for them near the camps.

Hadiste; anthem, Trust in the Lord." Handels large arr. by Max Second Sonata, Mendelssohn; post-lude, (Toccato in (3), Dubois, Evening—Prelude, Dudley Buck; anthem, "The Lord Is Loving Unto Every Man," George Dudley Buck; anthem, "The Lord Is Loving Unto Every Man," George Magraett, sopprano solo, Miss Cora Keeny; post-lude, (Fantasia and Tuge in G minor), J. S. Bach.

GRACE M. E. Morning—Organ

ONLY ADDRESS ON MAIL PACKAGE

Postmaster and Clerks at Gettysburg Office Find Trouble in Service to Soldiers in Big Army Camp; Names Frequently Torn Off

Names Frequently Torn Off

Gettsburg, Pa., Sept. 29.—Fort-lefts in the post office are having elerks in the post office are having elerks in the post office are having the selected president, but refuses to all kinds of rouble in Indian, the selected president, but refuses to all kinds of rouble in Indian, the selected president, but refuses to all kinds of rouble in Indian, the selected president, but refuses to all kinds of rouble in Indian, the selected president, but refuses to all kinds of rouble in Indian, the selected president, but refuses to all kinds of rouble in Indian, the selected president, but refuses to a convention of the indiancy of the selected president, but refuses to a convention of the indiancy of the selected president in the selected pre and mobiled to New Bloomfield on New Bloom New S harmonious and artistic appearance to the guests to-night. After the guests to fair, and Mrs. and Mrs. Stew art was the wife of Percy F. Stewart. Private funeral services will be held at the home, 1241 Market street, at 20 o'clock. Tuesday afternoon. The Rev. Homer S. May, pastor of the Fourth of the fourt

M. E. church, in Harrisburg. From several sections of the size extended from the policy of the polic

"HERE'S CATSUP MOTHER MADE," | MR. O'NEIL URGES | VICKSBURG READY BUSINESSMEN TO TREE PLANTING FOR CELEBRATION

Placed Along the High-

Suggests That Fruit Trees Be Pennsylvania Veterans Will Have Fine Camp There

nish shade and fruit; grow high and ally received by the officials of the leafy and yet not so dense as to prevent dry roads. The apple is another tree that can be trained well.
They can both be made profitable to the owners and pleasant to travelers: lows: "Here brothers fought for while if people do not want to plant fruit trees there are the red oak and the sugar maple. They are Pennsylvania trees."

"Here brothers fought for their principles; here herees died for their country, and a united people will forever cherish the precious sylvania trees."

GET COPIES OF PROCEEDINGS

Pres. Tracy Arranges That War Convention Activities Be Sent C. of C. Members

NEW BOARD IS WOMEN CAN RUN ELEVATORS NOW HAVING TROUBLE

State Industrial Board Makes Civil Service Members Ex- Pennsylvania Committee of a Definite Ruling in Regard to Their Work

There is no reason why women periencing Difficulties in Interpreting Law mine applicants and advise with the

HOOVER SPEAKS ON FOOD SUPPLY

Public Safety Meets in Philadelphia

By Associated Press

Philadelphia, Sept. 29. - Herber Hoover, national food administra