

NEW RECORDS MAY COME IN BIG SHOOT FRIDAY--GAUGING WORLD'S WINNERS

VETERAN UMPES FOR BIG SERIES

O'Loughlin Starts; Drops Out One Season; Others With Records

New York, Oct. 2.—The umpires appointed for the world series of 1917 are William J. Klem and Charles Rigler, National League, and Frank O'Loughlin and William G. Evans, American League. All of these have had considerable experience as arbiters of play in the world's championship contests.

O'Loughlin is Veteran Klem's first experience in the big baseball feature was in 1908, and since that time only two world's flags have been won without having been connected with the games in his official capacity.

Evans had his initial experience as a world series umpire in 1909, when he worked with Johnstone, Klem and O'Loughlin in the Pittsburgh-Detroit series.

The White Sox first line of defense against the New York Giants in the world series consists of "Chick" Gandil, first base, with a batting average of .276; Eddie Collins, second base, with a batting average of .273; "Buck" Weaver, shortstop, with a batting average of .273; Fred McHullin, third base, with a batting average of .241; Collins, Manager McGraw, who was not batted for the White Sox as he did when he played with the Philadelphia Athletics against the Giants. The batting average of the four players of the Chicago infield is .268, against the batting average of .262 for the infield of the Giants.

GAUGING WINNERS START WITH PENNANT FORECAST; WHEN TEAMS PLAY BEST

New York, Oct. 2.—While the winning of a pennant and the resultant participation in the World Series is based upon the number of games won during the entire season of league play it is as a rule the final weeks of the schedule in which the championships are clinched.

Based upon this assumption an analysis of the work of the Chicago Americans and the New York Nationals in the closing weeks of the present season should afford a somewhat general outline of the form which may be expected of the world's series of 1917.

HERZOG RETURNS TO GIANT CAMP

Manager Muggsy McGraw Rejoices; Bennie Kauff Has Bail

Philadelphia, Oct. 2.—The prospects of the Giants for victory in the coming world series were brightened considerably by the arrival in their camp of Charlie Herzog, keystone of their infield, and reported to have been under suspension as the result of his leaving the team on their last western trip and going to his home at Ridgely, Md., contrary to the orders of Manager McGraw.

The Giants pulled into town shortly after 9 o'clock last night and Herzog joined the squad about an hour later. McGraw went over to New York and was not on hand to receive his returned star, but the rest of the team joyfully welcomed him.

The World Series Round-Up NO. 7. THE TWO LEAGUES

From 1905 through 1909 the National League was undoubtedly stronger than the American.

Note the shift. For the first five years the National League had a world series percentage of .800, the American League .200.

AMERICAN LEAGUE ON TOP The American League has beyond any doubt had superior strength in the last seven years.

THE BARRIER Yet the White Sox barrier is no light one. This club is the first American League machine in some years to win a pennant.

ONE MORE TRIAL With the Giants an aggressive, confident, hard-charging outfit, to carry off the banner, the National League has its best chance in some time to emerge from the rut.

THE LONG COUNT Taking in the full count, the two leagues have been well matched. Of the twelve world series, the American League has won seven to the National League's five.

Baseball Fans Sore; Unable to Get Tickets Chicago, Oct. 2.—Vigorous protests from scores of Chicagoans were received yesterday at the Chicago American League Park when the first batch of unfilled applications for world series seats were returned to their senders.

Football Scouts Extinct; Big Cut in Expenses Philadelphia, Oct. 2.—With the announcement of the University of Pennsylvania that it would not engage any paid scouts this year to observe the work of other football teams, the most expensive incidental of the modern football eleven has disappeared in the east at least and with him goes a story that has often been told of Jimmy Kniox, the old-time Harvard star.

Big Tobacco Leaves Monmouth, N. J., Oct. 2.—William Hopkins, of East Dunmore township, has a copper kettle that was given to his father, James Hopkins, who was in the century ago was a leading lawyer. The kettle is one hundred years old and was one of the first that ever came to this part of the country.

COMMISSION FOR INDOOR GAME

Basketball Managers to Take Up Question at Meeting Sunday

Philadelphia, Oct. 2.—Prominent basketball managers who are interested in the Eastern Interstate Intercity and Penn-State Leagues are to meet in this city next Sunday at the Hotel Adelphi for the purpose of forming a National Basketball Commission on similar grounds as that which now prevails in baseball.

After Contract Jumpers The principal purpose of the body is to restrict players from jumping from one league to another. This practice became so violent last year that some of the players were working in three leagues under different names.

SAWYER LANCASTER STAR Lancaster, Pa., Oct. 2.—Lester High had his first real tryout against Columbia High, and it gave Jake Welles the opportunity to correct a number of rough edges that developed in his practice.

Lively Bouts Feature First Lancaster Bill Lancaster, Pa., Oct. 2.—The opening show here last night was attended by a large crowd, who enjoyed some excellent bouts. The winship between Johnny Wolgast, brother of the former lightweight champion, Ad Wolgast, and Jack Brady, who substituted for Joe Stefank, ended in the second round, when Referee Leo Hrodek stopped the contest to save Hrodek, who was merely a punching bag. Tim Dromey won from Lew Stinger, who took Fighting Bob's place, in six hard rounds. Bill Koenig defeated Joe Becker, Johnny Williams stopped Kid Burns in the first session and Charley Wright and Bill Brown, local colored boys, opened the show, with the honors going to the former.

WELLY'S CORNER

This week will wind up the major league seasons. Few games remain to be played. Manager McGraw will go west for a game with the Cubs on Thursday. He wants to keep in shape. It will be necessary, for those White Sox backers want 9 to 10 odds.

Now that Charlie Herzog is back in the game with New York, the Giants will become strong favorites with the fans. In Chicago the White Sox backers want 9 to 10 odds.

The Phillies need not worry about second honors. Pat Moran's boys will not be headed. The Quakers played in hard luck this season, season's breaker coming at the wrong time. Pitchers fell down. Lookout for them next season if there is any baseball.

Mack's men played the Seventh Regiment baseball team at Gettysburg yesterday and won out, score 7 to 1. The soldier boys could not hit. A half holiday was declared and the crowd numbered 5,000.

Charley Comiskey is in favor of buying Liberty Bonds with the commission profits from the world's series. It is like putting the cash in a big safe. The interest may come in handy later on.

"Dick" Rauch, a former Tech star in the Penn-State line-up and indications are that he will make good. Clarence Beck will be missed. He is not likely to return until after the year. Beck is at present with the Ambulance Corps at Allentown and expects to be in France soon.

On Friday shooters from all over the State will come to this city to see the final match in the Pennsylvania Four City Trapsshooters League. There is a further inducement. The handicap event will be open to all comers. An all-day program has been planned.

REAL RIVALRY IN NEXT SHOOT Final Tournament For Four-City Trapsshooters League in This City Friday

Ideal weather is wanted Friday. On that day a record shoot is planned for this city. It will start at 10.30 in the morning and continue throughout the day. The big feature will be the fifth and final match in the Pennsylvania Four City Trapsshooters League. The Harrisburg and West Fairview are tie, each having 50 straight in the first shoot at Lancaster, June 22, Harrisburg, 328; West Fairview, 918; Lancaster, 328; York, 807.

NEW ASSISTANT PRINCIPAL Enola, Pa., Oct. 2.—Miss Bessie Dorsey, a recent graduate of Gettysburg College, has been elected by the East Pennboro township school board to succeed Miss Mary Dougherty as second assistant principal of the Enola high school. Miss Dorsey assumed her new duties yesterday.

ANNOUNCE BIRTH OF SON Enola, Pa., Oct. 2.—Mr. and Mrs. William Fisher Cooper, of Columbia road, announce the birth of a son, Friday, September 28. Mrs. Cooper was Miss Charlotte Weidman before her marriage.
