

CAMP HANCOCK Y. M. C. A. IS FAST BEING ERECTED

Secretary Landis Writes That Two Buildings Are Practically Completed

"Building operations are progressing nicely," on the Y. M. C. A. at Camp Hancock, Secretary George B. Landis writes. "The administration building is in use. The artillery brigade building is almost finished. Two others are started, for two the foundations are laid, meanwhile we are using three 40x60 tents and one mess shack. Thousands of letters and postcards are being written so that the mail is congested. The Pennsylvania newspapers are coming from every section of the state and are greatly appreciated. Of course they are always two days late. We have about one hundred and fifty books for each tent and these are in constant circulation. Pennsylvania State Library sent us some books and some have come from associations and Women's Clubs. Magazines have also been sent by these last two. We could use more current magazines, more disc records and books.

"We have begun to show moving pictures and will present them out doors as far as possible. Lectures have been given in different buildings. Dr. J. Ashby Jones, one of the noted preachers of the South, has been very acceptable on "The War For Democracy." Leslie Shaw, former Secretary of the Treasury, will lecture Friday night. Two groups of entertainers have spent five days each with us, each night in different parts of the camp. We have also arranged for five entertainments in Augusta people. In French and Camp," the weekly publication, will be issued beginning the first week in October.

"Prof. I. L. Foster, of State College, Pa., is organizing French classes. There is some little demand for English.

"Fleming has laid out the ball grounds, basketball courts, erected the boxing stands and started a large number of baseball and football games. Prechtel has gymnasium class composed of three hundred of Motor Supply Timmen and he certainly directs well from the top of an Army truck. The athletic equipment is used to the limit during leisure hours.

"With five religious work directors, the Rev. W. J. Miller, Jr., and the Rev. A. D. Curry, Jr., of Philadelphia; the Rev. William Borg and the Rev. J. H. Lee, of Germantown, and the Rev. R. S. Dickson, of Lewistown, much religious work is being promoted under the direction of Dr. M. W. Lamps, secretary of the University of Pennsylvania Association. Not only religious addresses on Sunday and Thursday nights but Bible classes and personal ministrations are being held in many of them. There are some of them here. There are a number of morning watch groups organized among former college students. The singing is religious and popular songs has developed a great interest, in some companies more than others. Several of our secretaries have regional services each Sunday since the troops came, especially in those regiments without chaplains.

"Compton, camp secretary and secretary of the Y. M. C. A., Wilmerding, Pa., has his hands full in supervising the erection of the building. The organization of the force and the conduct of activities."

President of Argentina Refuses Break With Huns

Washington, Oct. 2.—All expectations that Argentina might follow the lead of her neighbors and break with Germany have been dispelled here with the news that President Irogoyen is determined not to heed the action of the Argentine congress and popular demand for action and will continue a neutral course.

His suggestion that all South America determine her war course by a joint conference is not expected to bear fruit because a similar proposal was rejected by all other important governments some time ago.

Oust Professors From Columbia For Injuring U.S.

New York, Oct. 2.—Professor James McKeen Cattell, head of the department of psychology in Columbia University, and Professor Henry Wadsworth Longfellow Dana, of the English department, were expelled by trustees of the university last night.

The announcement says the action was taken because the two professors had done "grave injury to the country by their public opposition to the conduct of the war."

GRANDPA DIDN'T NEED CASCARETS FOR THE BOWELS

Two hours a day sawing wood will keep liver and bowels right.

You who take exercise in an easy chair must take "Cascarets"

Enjoy life—feel bully! Don't stay sick, bilious, headachy, constipated. Remove the liver and bowel poison which is keeping your head dizzy, your tongue coated, your breath offensive, stomach sour and your body full of cold. Why don't you get a 10 or 25-cent box of Cascarets at the drug store and enjoy the nicest, gentlest liver and bowel cleansing you ever experienced. Cascarets work while you sleep. You will wake up feeling fit and fine. Children need this candy cathartic too.

EXPERT TEAM TO PUSH CANVASS FOR EXEMPTION

Methodist Ministers Take Action On Dickinson Funds.

At the meeting of the Methodist Ministerial Association of Harrisburg and vicinity this morning at the Y. M. C. A. Building the following preamble and resolutions on proposed canvass for Dickinson College and Dickinson Seminary were presented by Dr. S. C. Swallow and seconded by two others and after a lengthy discussion were lost by a vote of five for and eight against. Three of those present not voting. Hence it is understood that the canvass by team of experts from the West will proceed. Every pastor must send a list of the names of his members to Dr. Morgan, president of Dickinson College, that an assignment of them may be made by the western team of solicitors who, it is understood, will make an exhaustive canvass for nearly two months beginning with October 14 and ending December 6.

These were the resolutions: "Whereas, The Central Pennsylvania conference at its session March last took action favorable to raising of $400,000 for the promotion of higher education, more particularly as represented by Dickinson College and Dickinson Seminary; and

"Whereas, World conditions seriously altering and affecting national, state, municipal, conference, church, family and individual conditions have occurred in these six months since conference adjourned; and

"Whereas, Distress appeals are almost constantly coming to our communities, churches and the members thereof, the larger number of whom are in moderate financial circumstances, and thousands of them pressed for the ordinary necessities of life in this period of the hitherto unknown high price of living; and

"Whereas, Hundreds of husbands and sons have gone as soldiers in defense of our country's very existence as a nation, leaving behind their families to depend in part at least on the earnings of others; and

"Whereas, There are frequent and urgent appeals to the members of our local churches throughout the full extent of their ability to the annuity fund of $400,000 just fairly started to be raised and on which the fifty worn-out preachers and seventy preachers' widows of our conference depend largely for a very inadequate support, some of them actually suffering for the necessities of life; and

"Whereas, Crying appeals are almost daily reaching us from our high church officials for collections to bear the expenses of our Methodist missions to our thousands of Methodist soldier boys now at the front or drilling in the famous cantonments in this and other countries; and

"Whereas, The Red Cross, the Young Men's Christian Association, the Young Women's Christian Association and various rescue mission interests, all intent on furnishing not only luxuries but a very inadequate support, some of them actually suffering for the necessities of life; and

"Whereas, Crying appeals are almost daily reaching us from our high church officials for collections to bear the expenses of our Methodist missions to our thousands of Methodist soldier boys now at the front or drilling in the famous cantonments in this and other countries; and

"Whereas, The Red Cross, the Young Men's Christian Association, the Young Women's Christian Association and various rescue mission interests, all intent on furnishing not only luxuries but a very inadequate support, some of them actually suffering for the necessities of life; and

"Resolved, That the Methodist Preachers' Association of Harrisburg and vicinity herewith earnestly petition the Rev. Dr. Morgan and his trustees of Dickinson College, the Rev. Dr. Connor and his trustees of Dickinson Seminary; our beloved Bishop McDowell of this area, and the five presiding elders of the Central Pennsylvania conference, to unite in calling on the trustees of college and seminary two months' crusade against the families and individual members of our local churches, and ask it most humbly in the interest of suffering humanity.

"Resolved, Second, that we pledge ourselves as individuals in case this indefinite postponement is effective, to co-operate with the brethren here-in memorialized in a future endeavor to raise money for these institutions at a time we trust when the effort will really help them instead of injuring them as we believe the scheduled present effort by strong armed experts from a distance will certainly do if persisted in.

"Resolved, Third, that copies of our action be sent by our secretary to the Methodist Preachers' Associations of Altoona, Williamsport, Huntingdon and Sunbury with a request that they co-operate with us in this respectful, kind, but most earnest request for a postponement of the within described crusade."

MANY CLAIMS FOR EXEMPTION TURNED DOWN

Appeal Board Allows but Few of Many Requests; Local Examinations Finished

At the session of the district appeal board this morning in the House caucus rooms at the Capitol the exemption claims from Huntingdon and Mifflin counties were acted on and the majority were turned down. Several were allowed, but the percentage was very small. Below the percentage was very small. Below the percentage was very small. Below the percentage was very small.

Many English Words Come From Arabia

Justice Brandeis to Help Col. House in Peace Work

Through the crusades of Europe came into contact with Arabia, and gained immense profit from the intercourse which followed, with a people more highly civilized than its own inhabitants. It must not be forgotten that the Arabians in Asia and the Moors in Spain kept the sacred torch of learning alight while Europe still groped in the darkness of a semi-barbarism.

To the Arabs we are indebted for the preservation of Aristotle, and for much of our knowledge of Grecian astronomy and medicine, which reached Europe through translations from Arabic into Latin. Many of our current English words came direct from the Arabic, such as zero, almanac, algebra, cipher, nodir, zenith, alkali, camphor, alcohol, and amber.

These words, with their pronunciation and definition, are all to be found in The New Universities Dictionary, now being distributed by the Harrisburg Telegraph almost as a gift to its readers. It contains in addition to the dictionary proper, a condensed encyclopaedia of information for every-day use. Our coupon in to-day's paper explains how this valuable book may be obtained.

Washington, Oct. 2.—America's second representative at the world peace table will be Justice Louis D. Brandeis, of the United States Supreme Court. This was the construction placed last night on the announcement that Justice Brandeis is to assist Colonel E. M. House in collecting peace data for President Wilson.

Colonel House will devote his attention to problems concerning the war in the west, while Justice Brandeis will study the near eastern questions. The work will form the basis for the country's peace contentions.

Council Finds Former Tax Collector Short $1100

West Fairview, Pa., Oct. 2.—Council last evening heard a report of the borough auditors that the last tax collector of former Tax Collector Sneltzer was about $1,100 short. No definite action was taken by the
