Boys' Court Is Formed at Meeting During Which Plans Are Made

ens Memorial Guards, last evening, plans were outlined for fall and winter activities. A chorus, composed of fifty members, has been formed, and will make their first public appearance on Rally Day, when they will sing in the Sunday school. Also a boy's court was formed, composed of Major W. L. Vaanaman as judge advocate; Kenneth Bell, provost marshal, and the following as jurymen Captain Charles Miller, Harold Geiger, Faul Wynne, Andrew Stouffer, Wentzell Grove, Nelson Peregoy, Robert Hamilton and Robert Bowers. The court will sit weekly and pass on infractions of rules, if any, by members. At a business meeting of the Stev-treat Department of the members of Company "A" have enlisted in the United States service. A special meeting has been arranged to honor these members, as well as other members of Stevens Memorial Church, who have enlisted. This meeting will be open to the public.

Death From Hydrophobia

Waynesboro, Pa., Oct. 2.-William Stine, aged 26, died at the home of his mother, Mrs. Julia Stine, at Shippensburg, on Sunday, from hydrophobia.

It has been learned that Mr. Stine on August 19, had gone to the home of a man in Southampton township, this county, to purchase a pup, and it was while he was examining the animal that it bit him. He continued at his work and didn't even given the wound any medical attention, and thought nothing of the result until the fatal illness developed.

Ill sing in the Sunday school. Also the sum of the sunday school. Also the sum of the su

Food Economy

This is the watchword of the 1 nation.

Every frugal housekeeper should get the greatest value from her purchases.

Buy in large quantities at a saving in price. Preserve all food until every bit is consumed.

An even temperature of 40 degrees is necessary to properly keep all food products nutritious and wholesome.

This can only be accomplished by using a well-iced refrigerator.

Out of doors it is cold at night and warm during the day. A varying temperature destroys the flavor of all food and starts dis-

While some charms 'diminish,' others should replace them—charms of experience, cultivation, wisdom. The great physical changes met between the forticth and fittieth year are indeed serious, and are not always well borne. In the strain of modern life, few women are in condition to meet these changes without some apprehension of deranged health. But with the excellent help of Lydia E.
