

LONDON AIR ATTACKS TO BE AVENGED

Premier Lloyd George Promises to Pay Kaiser With Compound Interest For Outrages on London and English Coast Cities; French Airmen Bombard Baden to Give Germans a Taste of Their Own Medicine

"We shall bomb Germany with compound interest," Premier Lloyd George is quoted in the London press as declaring to a London crowd in promising it that Great Britain would soon launch reprisals for the many German air raids on England.

The French reprisals already underway were continued last night. French airmen dropped bombs on the town of Baden, some 55 miles beyond the French frontier. More than seven tons of bombs also were dropped on various military objectives in German-held territory.

Paris, Oct. 3.—Continuing their reprisals for attacks of German airmen on French cities, French aviators last night dropped bombs on the German town of Baden, the war office announced.

In the course of these various explosions, projectiles to the amount of 7,000 kilograms (15,400 pounds) were dropped.

The town of Baden in the Grand Duchy of the same name, is one of the most famous and beautiful resorting places in Europe, best known for its medicinal baths. It is a town of some 15,000, about fifty-five miles from the French border.

Violent artillery fighting continues on the Verdun front, says to-day's official announcement. No important infantry operations occurred during the night. The statement follows:

"East of Rheims our artillery effectively shelled the German positions and broke up preparations in the enemy trenches for an attack. West of Navarin, French lines men penetrated the enemy lines bringing back prisoners."

Patrol Fighting "On the Verdun front the night was marked by violent artillery fighting on both banks of the Meuse, particularly in the region north of Hill 24, where the patrol engagements also occurred.

"An incursion into the enemy lines in the region of the Casque gave us good results."

Will Petition Court For Special Hearings of Hardscrabble Appeals

It is expected that City Solicitor John E. Fox will petition the court some time this week to set a date for special hearings of all the Hardscrabble property appeal cases. Several weeks ago issues were awarded by the court in such cases in which property owners in the Hardscrabble district appealed from the award of viewers.

Many important points will be settled during trial of these cases it is anticipated. In opinions the court has upheld the various moves of the city to acquire the North street property, but the questions of settlement with some of the owners who appealed from the viewers' awards has delayed taking over the ground. There is much interest in the final settlement of the cases and the trial of the appeals will be one of the last steps in getting possession of the properties.

PRACTICAL PATRIOTISM Means Enlistment of Thousands of Little Boosters in Campaign

Superintendent F. E. Downes of the Harrisburg schools, this morning arranged to take up with all principals and the 342 city schoolteachers the matter of educating the thousands of pupils in Harrisburg schools to the importance of the Liberty Loan.

A series of little talks which will appear in the Harrisburg evening papers will be the basis for the daily lessons in the city schools. These talks will start next Monday. Lessons in the schools above the fourth grade will begin Wednesday, October 3.

"This is a system by which to teach practical patriotism," said Superintendent Downes this morning. In connection with the teaching of practical patriotism it is the plan to have the schools use their influence in continuing the efforts to float the second Liberty Loan. We will teach, by the coming lessons, not only patriotism, but practical thrift.

Means Agents by Thousands The teaching of Liberty Loan responsibility to the thousands of children in Harrisburg, practically every child above the fourth grade will have something to carry to the folks at home; and as the children "boil down" the Liberty Loan story it will reach the wage-earners in a concrete form, stripped of all useless verbiage.

Signs Going Up Arrangements have been made for electric signs on Market street and Market Square. The government has donated the use of the poster board of Federal building property. A huge banner will float across Market street, bearing this legend:

THE KAISER IS WATCHING YOU! BUY A BOND! Thousands of "stickers" and posters will be received at loan headquarters, Dauphin Building, this week. After Saturday owners of automobiles who wish small posters for their windshields may get them at headquarters. The publicity committee will leave nothing undone to show Harrisburg that a campaign is on.

WHO WILL GET THIS $30?

THE Telegraph, in connection with the Liberty Loan Executive Committee and a number of individuals, has arranged to offer cash prizes to pupils in the Harrisburg schools who submit the best answers to certain questions dealing with the Second Liberty Loan.

A first prize of $10 and a second prize of $5 will be offered to High School pupils. Similar prizes will be offered pupils in the grammar grades.

The contest will be operated in conjunction with the Liberty Loan lessons which will start in the schools Wednesday of next week. The subject for the short essay desired of pupils will be announced in this newspaper within a few days, with other details.

ENROLLMENT IN SCHOOLS 329 MORE THAN LAST YEAR

11,662 Children Are Attending Sessions During First Month; Expect Others

Total enrollment in the city public schools for the 1917-18 season is 11,662 or 329 more than the figures for last year, according to attendance reports compiled by Dr. F. E. Downes, city school superintendent. The total this year will be higher after the reports for October are returned, Dr. Downes said, as more pupils have enrolled since the first figures were given.

The biggest increase this year was in the enrollment of beginners. A small army of 1,176 youngsters began their public school career this year, as compared with 895 last year. In the two High schools, 754 freshmen were enrolled, all boys going to Technical and all girls to Central.

More Pupils at Central Despite this change and the elimination of boys in the Central High school, there are thirty-four more pupils at that institution this year than last year. Last fall 1,057 pupils were enrolled at Central with boys in the freshmen class. This year there are 1,091 students and no boys in the first-year class. At Tech there are 662 boys this year. Last year there were 617. The total High school enrollment for the present term is 1,753, as compared with 1,574 last fall.

The figures will be submitted at the regular meeting of the school board on Friday, together with a report on other minor details of the school district work.

The Susquehanna open air school the present building is being razed in preparation for the erection of the new one. The uptown boys and girls have been transferred to the Steele building until the new structure is completed.

Chicago, Oct. 3.—Secretary of the Treasury William G. McAdoo today went to Madison, Wis., to continue his campaign in behalf of the Liberty Loan. In an address before a large audience here last night he urged the purchase of the Liberty Bonds because they are the "safest investment in the world."

Mr. McAdoo digressed briefly from his talk on the Liberty Loan to speak of peace propagandists. "There isn't a soldier in France," he said, "whose life is not more than ever imperiled by this idiotic peace talk. Let us not give aid and comfort to the enemy by letting him think we don't mean to fight. We do mean to fight and the quicker they realize it the better. There isn't a man in khaki who isn't willing to face German bullets, and is it not cowardly to attempt to stab him in the back with peace talk by traitors?"

Baltimore Receives Offer of Fifty Cents Per Ton For All Its Garbage

Baltimore, Md., Oct. 3.—Baltimore city has received a bona fide offer of 50 cents per ton for all of its garbage, and as the amount collected during the year is estimated at 200,000 tons, the municipal revenue would be increased by $100,000. More than this, at present the garbage is a liability. It costs the city $70,000 annually to have it hauled away.

William H. Faust, of Los Angeles, Cal., made the proposition to buy the city's offer to City Water Engineer Lee, who, in turn, submitted it yesterday to the board of estimates. Mr. Faust said he converted garbage into chicken feed by a process not dissimilar to that employed at the disposal plant, but which eliminates odors.

SYNOD MEETS ITS ORPHANS AT LOYSVILLE

Brotherhood light Is Observed Here Afterward; Discuss Foreign Missions

By Associated Press

At a late hour this afternoon delegates to the East Pennsylvania Synod meeting were still discussing the merger of the General Synod, General Council and the United Synod for South.

The discussion started at 10.30 o'clock this morning. The question is revolving around the problem as to which proposition should receive first consideration, the merger or the constitution.

The greatest sermon of the seventy-sixth annual convention of the Evangelical Lutheran Synod of East Pennsylvania was preached Tuesday afternoon when more than two hundred delegates went to Loysville, Perry county, to inspect the orphans' home at that place.

And what a sermon! Five hundred sparkling eyes, two hundred and fifty attractive faces, a quarter of a thousand vigorous healthy bodies and the sweetest, cultivated voices pouring out in the pleasant old chapel with its tasty furnishings and sacred memories, hymns of praise and thankfulness! More than one bronzed ambassador of the King of Kings, not often given to display of emotion, wiped from his cheek a furtive tear as the sweet, childish voices melted away in the last notes of familiar melodies. More than one visitor, for the first time at Loysville,
