HIGH A STRONG CONTENDER THIS SEASON---PLAYS AND PLAYER

LEAGUE SHOOT BEGINS EARLY

Four-City Match Title Is To- Meet Stevens Trade School morrow's Big Stake; Special Events

Shooting at Second and Division Shooting at Second and Division streets will begin to-morrow morning at 10.30. There will be something doing all day. The big feature will be the fifth and final tournament of the Pennsylvania Four City Trapshooters League. Harrisburg and West Fairview are contenders for honors.

Steelton High School will open its 1917 football season at home on Saturday afternoon when the Stevens Cottage Hill field. This will give an early opportunity for followers on Steelton's machine in comparison with Central High.

The Harrisburg eleven trimmed Stevens Trade last Sturday. As it was the first game of the year, however, the score is not a sure sign of the strength of the Central crowd.

Steelton Strong Contender

Any other team winning to-morrow's match would mean another shoot. This is not likely to happen as both Harrisburg and West Fairview shooters have been leading in every match.

Championship Tells

This match will decide the team championship, as West Fairview and Harrisburg are tied with two matches each. On the 8000 targets shot by the two teams, West Fairview leads by the small margin of 15 targets. This race will be worth while.

Lancaster and York are also tied up for third and fourth places in the league, and each club will represent with their best marksmen.

There will also be a special event, a 25-target distance handicap, 16 to nominal. One red target to each squad and the fee will be returned to the shooter breaking it.

Steclton Strong Contender

Steelton promises to be a strong contender for local honors this year. With almost a veteran line-up and barring serious accidents, there is a chance for the lower end boys to clean up everything in sight. Naturally, you expect us to say that Pauline Frederick scores a great triumph in "Double-Crossed!" that the play itself is the greatest ever written for her; that it is full of action, thallis, and suspense. You think: "They always say that." But—SEEING IS BELLEVING We want you to see this pleture because we know you will like it. And then you'll agree with every claim we make for the play.

EFORE the war, Stove coal cost from $1.75 to $2.00 per ton more than the Pea coal.

Because of this difference of $2.00 many persons purchased the smaller size and in some instances it proved the cheaper fuel.

Since the present difference in the first cost is but 90 cents, the final results will show that the coal with the slightly higher first cost will ultimately prove the more economical. There are several reasons for this-first, the large size is not so quickly consumed; the fire lasts longer, taking less attention and requiring less coal. The amount of slate, bone and other impurities in large coal is much less than in smaller sizes. The percentage of slate, bone, etc., in Stove Coal is about 7 per cent., while the amount permitted in Pea size is from 18 per cent. to 20 per cent. Taking the amount of impurities for a basis, the Pea coal produces less heat per ton of coal than Stove, Egg or Nut coal.

The first cost of the coal should not be the most important consideration—service and low fuel bills are what is desired.
