Outlines Plans

A. H. Dinsmore, new boys' secretary, was present at the meeting of the board of directors held in the Harrisburg Club, and outlined plans for activities in civil, religious and educational lines for the year. The board authorized Ms. Dinsmore's attendance at the older boys' conference at Berwick, and he will be one of the leaders of the assembly. He will be accompanied by a number of delegates.

A Bible conference is being ar-delegates.

A Bible conference is being arranged by G. W. Relly chairman of the Committee on Religious Work, to be held in Fahnestock Hall. Considerable equipment for the new men's and boys' department is on the way, and the pool and billiard tables will be installed by the end of the next week.

next week.

Secretary Reeves announced that the Rotary Club's Monday afternoon luncheons would be held in the Assembly Hall. E. J. Stackpole presented a check for $1,000 from Mrs. John H. Weiss to completely re-equip the gymnasium originally supplied by her as a memorial to her son, Frank Weiss.

Upper End Men Hurt in Night Auto Accident

Williamstown, Pa., Oct. 4.—Harry Hiller, Harry Curtis, of Williamstown; "Butch" Bowman, of Lykens, and Samuel Miller, of Wiconisco, narrowly escaped death when the automobile in which they were riding turned over in the road about a mile east of town Tuesday night at 11 o'clock. Bowman, who was the more seriously hurt, was taken to the Pottsville Hospital, where it is thought he may die. Curtis received a fractured arm and Harry Miller is badly cut about the head. As they were rounding a sharp curve the accident occurred, throwing the occupants twenty-five feet. The machine was owned and driven by Samuel Miller.

PRISONERS CLEAN JAIL

Sunbury, Pa., Oct. 4.—House cleaning at the Northumberland county jail, where fifty prisoners are incarcerated, has been completed by Warden Barr. The walls inside were whitewashed, and every inch of the cellrooms and corridors scoured and crubbed. The work was done by prisoners.
