

Mrs. Lindsay's Scholars Elect Class Officers

The monthly meeting of Mrs. H. W. Lindsay's class of the Derry Street U. E. Sunday school was held with Miss Esther Shark, 229 North Fourteenth street, when the following officers were elected to serve for a year: President, Miss Esther Shark; vice-president, Miss Edna Lands; recording secretary, Miss Opal McCans; statistical secretary, Miss Elizabeth Wilson; assistant secretary, Miss Vera Harman; treasurer, Miss Mary Hench; chairman devotional committee, Mrs. William Fickes; chairman lookout committee, Miss Bethel Wilbert; chairman social committee, Miss May Barley; chairman press committee, Miss Mabel Bright; librarians, Miss Pearl Moyer and Miss Saule Gillespie.

A social hour followed the business session, with refreshments served. The next meeting of the class will be held with Mrs. William Fickes, 1424 Derry street.

"WITCHERY OF DREAMS" The Rev. R. F. Hart, a former pastor of the Fifth Street M. E. Church, will lecture Friday evening in the church on "The Witchery of Dreams." This lecture is being given under the auspices of the Women's Home Missionary Society for the benefit of the deaconess work of this city. A silver offering will be taken. All persons interested in this work are invited to attend the lecture.

LEAVES FOR THE SOUTH Mrs. Frederick C. Hyatt, of Greensboro, North Carolina, who spent the past fortnight with her sister, Mrs. Harry A. Fry, in Paxtang, leaves this evening for her home in Hyatt, who accompanied his wife here, remained for but a brief visit because of his extensive practice.

FOR TEN DAYS ONLY Modern Finger Piece Mountings THIS NOSE PIECE $1.50 On and Off With One Hand Why not change your old frames?—Be modern. Warranted for ten years and guaranteed any defects for one year. Regular value $3.00. We can put your own lenses in this mounting. RUBIN & RUBIN EYESIGHT SPECIALISTS 320 Market Street—"OVER THE HUB" Open Wednesday and Saturday Evenings. Bell Phone, 2020-W

SOUTTER'S 25c DEP'T STORE Buy Here Not Alone Because Prices Are Lower, but Because Qualities Are Better MAKE YOUR DOLLARS HAVE MORE SENSE This Fall season will bring to notice many wardrobe and household needs, practically all of which may be filled here satisfactorily and at big savings. Through the extra purchasing power your dollars will not only have more cents here, but from the standpoint of quality, more sense as well.

In the Millinery Department A Wonderful Display of Tailored Hats Ready-to-wear hats, in jaunty and stylish smart, straight Sailors with velvet brims and Hatter's plush crowns, finished with grosgrain ribbon, band and bow. Untrimmed Velvet Shapes of excellent quality silk velvet, in large sailor and high flare effects, mushroom, turbans, etc., in black and the new autumn colorings. Genuine Velour Hats best shapes and desirable colors. Plush and Velvet Tam O' Shanter Children's Trimmed Hats in a large assortment of the latest combinations. TRIMMINGS OF ALL KINDS All at Lower-Than-Elsewhere Prices

SOUTTER'S 1c to 25c Department Store Where Every Day Is Bargain Day 215 Market St., Opposite Courthouse

PERSONAL AND SOCIAL NEWS OF GENERAL INTEREST

The Phillips-Carter Engagement Announced

Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin B. Carter, of Nutley, N. J., announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Addie Carter, to Vernon Phillips, of Cuthbert, Ga. Mr. and Mrs. Carter and their daughter are well known here, having made their home in this city prior to their residence in Nutley. Mr. Carter was formerly efficiency man for Howman & Company.

Miss Carter attended the Central High School and has many friends among the younger set. She completed her education at a woman's college in the South.

Mr. Phillips is engaged in scientific farming at Cuthbert. The wedding will be an event of next month.

MISS CRESSMAN'S CLASS PLANS WORK FOR YEAR Miss Carter attended the Central High School and has many friends among the younger set. She completed her education at a woman's college in the South.

Refreshments were served to Miss Ruth Snyder, Miss Pauline Booth, the Misses Margaret and Barbara Redman, Miss Grace Culp, Miss Virginia Wood and the Misses Agnes and Ruth Kruger.

MISSION SOCIETIES MEET The Women's Foreign and Home Missionary Societies of Grace Methodist Episcopal Church will meet in the parlor of the church on Friday, October 5, at 2 p. m. All the women are urged to be present.

Primary Department in Pleasing Program

An entertainment will be given by the primary department and former primary scholars of the Camp Curtis Memorial M. E. Church, this evening, at 7:45 o'clock, in the Sunday school room of the church.

The program follows: "Welcome Song," primary department; piano duet, Dorothy Gibbons and Nora Gross; piano solo, Mabell Pottelger; recitation, Lauretta Galst; vocal solo, Dorothy Haas; recitation, Cloyd Hench; vocal solo, Elizabeth Marshall; piano duet, Violet Portytha and Mary McCallin; vocal solo, Martha Hays; vocal solo, Dotty Leonard; selection, primary department; piano solo, Beba Glingrich; recitation, Elizabeth Ruby; vocal solo, Evelyn Taylor; piano solo, Richard Reese; recitation, Franklin Ruby; vocal solo, Mildred Fisher; vocal duet, Ruth and Mary Taylor; recitation, Wilson Hoffa; piano solo, Palmer Reiff; recitation, Emma Williams; vocal solo, Wilson Hoffa; piano solo, Ruth Tuckey; selection, primary department.

TOURING NEW ENGLAND Mrs. Josephine Felton and Mrs. Ethel Ball left yesterday morning for Philadelphia, New York and Boston. They will motor through the New England states before returning home.

ROBERT SHAUB IS HOST Robert Shaub, 1624 Green street, will entertain the members of the Epworth League of the Fifth Street M. E. Church this evening. There will be a general discussion of the work for the coming year and some social events will be planned.

STOP ON THE WAY HOME Dr. and Mrs. H. M. Kirkpatrick, of 129 Whitehall street, are entertaining Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. Gruen, of Dayton, Ohio, over the week-end. They are on the way home from Atlantic City where Mr. Gruen attended the convention of the American Bankers' Association.

ATTEND SCHOOL REUNION Miss Almada Herman, of North Front street, who is visiting Miss Margaret Wood in Brookline, Mass., leaves there to-morrow for Lowell, Mass., to attend the twenty-fifth reunion of the alumni of Rogers Hall school. Mrs. Harry Taylor Neale of this city and her guest, Mrs. Alfred Evans, of Curwensville, who are now in New York, will also attend the reunion at which a hundred former students will be present.

Dr. and Mrs. E. C. Erust and children of 10 North Fifteenth street, left yesterday for a several weeks' stay in Oil City and Reading.

CIVIL SERVICE EXAMS The Civil Service examination for clerk and carrier in the Harrisburg Post Office will be held in the Stevens school building, 121 Chestnut street, Friday morning, October 6, commencing at 9 a. m.

Mrs. George W. Creighton and Miss Mary Creighton, who have a host of friends in the city, have moved from Altoona to the Riverside apartments expecting to make a permanent home here.

Mrs. H. J. Eabner, a former resident, visiting Mrs. Carl Willis Davis, at Clendenin, River road, is being much entertained by old friends during her stay.

LOCATING IN CHINA Mr. and Mrs. Walter H. Daub, of New York, located in the Harrisburg on the Empress of China for Japan and China. They will locate in the French quarter of Shanghai, China, where Mr. Daub will represent a large exporting and importing house of New York, having as his territory, China, Japan and India.

Mrs. Daub was formerly Miss Caroline Haldean Longenecker, of this city, daughter of Admiral and Mrs. Longenecker.

STORK NEWS Mr. and Mrs. Warren Jay Vinton, of Ann Arbor, Michigan, announce the birth of a daughter, Jane Vinton, this morning. Mrs. Vinton was formerly Miss Dorothea Jones of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Shadow, of 1822 Derry street, announce the birth of a son, Edward LeRoy Shadow, Monday, October 1, 1917. Mrs. Shadow was Miss Sara Mountz prior to her marriage.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul D. Washburn, of Cincinnati, Ohio, announce the birth of a son, Paul Weston Washburn, Monday, October 1, 1917. Mrs. Washburn is remembered here as Miss Grace Leedy.

Y. M. C. A. Improvements to Be Finished Saturday Re-equipment and improvements at the Y. M. C. A. will be completed by next Saturday when the house-warming will be held. The new department of the building is being remodeled, and the floor is covered with paint. New lights and shower baths are being installed, bowling alleys finished, and billiard and pool tables being placed.

C. W. Miller, the physical director, has made a list of classes into which the men and boys will be divided. Classes for businessmen, young men, office men, older boys, employed boys, younger boys, and a class for leaders which is a normal course for those who wish to do volunteer work. Examinations for this normal course, as prepared by the International Committee, will be held later.

Three Harrisburg Boys in Line For Promotion Recent letters from Fred W. Ramble, Harold Moore, and Harry Nell tell of their experiences in the United States Army camp at Fort Hancock, Ga. The boys are former students of the camp, and are in line for promotion from the rank of first class privates to noncommissioned officers. Moore is ill, and is confined to the hospital. All express their eagerness to go to France.

WHARTON REGISTRATION CLOSES To-morrow will be the last registration day of the Harrisburg Wharton Extension School. So far the registration has been excellent but the exact figures could not be learned. Professor Thomas E. Bartley, who is in charge of the enrollment expects the registration of many late comers. Many women have registered.

VETERAN FIREMEN TO MEET A meeting of the Veteran Firemen's Association will be held this evening at 923 North Third street.

Winterdale Special The Palm Beach Orchestra of Baltimore will play for dancing Thursday, Friday and Saturday evenings, October 5, 6 and 7. Admission 25 and 50 cents.—Adv.

SEND DELEGATES TO CONFERENCE

Members of Harrisburg Chapter, D. A. R., Will Attend State Meeting in Allentown

Harrisburg Chapter Daughters of the American Revolution, has elected the following delegates to the twenty-first annual Pennsylvania state conference to be held in Allentown, next week: The regent, Miss Cora Lee Snyder; Mrs. Samuel F. Dunkle, Miss Cora Lee Pearson, Miss Mary Harris Pearson, Mrs. David S. Funk and Mrs. Arthur H. Bailey. Other members of the chapter who wish to attend may secure credential cards from the local secretary, Mrs. Mary Boyer-McCrea, 213 Pine street, telephone 2139.

The new Hotel Traylor will be conference headquarters and all business meetings will be held there from October 9 to 11, inclusive. The formal opening will be held in the historic Zion Church, Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock, with Mrs. Anthony Wayne Cook, state regent, presiding.

Beginning with a reception on Monday evening at the hotel, each day will have some special delight for the delegates beside the business program. Liberty Bell Chapter of Allentown, will celebrate its twenty-fifth anniversary Thursday evening and all delegates who can remain over for that event, are invited to do so.

Harrisburg Chapter has a fine report for the year's work to present at the conference, including cash gifts of nearly $300 for war work and school support. The regent, Miss Snyder, who is chairman of the state committee, will report for that committee, which will be addressed during the conference by Miss Harriet, national chairman.

VISITOR FROM KANSAS Simon Green, of Wellington, Kansas, who has been visiting for the last month in the East, stopped over en route West, with his brother-in-law and nephew, W. G. Fair and C. A. Fair, of Harrisburg. Mr. Green is in the automobile business in Kansas.

Mrs. George W. Creighton and Miss Mary Creighton, who have a host of friends in the city, have moved from Altoona to the Riverside apartments expecting to make a permanent home here.

Mrs. H. J. Eabner, a former resident, visiting Mrs. Carl Willis Davis, at Clendenin, River road, is being much entertained by old friends during her stay.

LOCATING IN CHINA Mr. and Mrs. Walter H. Daub, of New York, located in the Harrisburg on the Empress of China for Japan and China. They will locate in the French quarter of Shanghai, China, where Mr. Daub will represent a large exporting and importing house of New York, having as his territory, China, Japan and India.

Mrs. Daub was formerly Miss Caroline Haldean Longenecker, of this city, daughter of Admiral and Mrs. Longenecker.

STORK NEWS Mr. and Mrs. Warren Jay Vinton, of Ann Arbor, Michigan, announce the birth of a daughter, Jane Vinton, this morning. Mrs. Vinton was formerly Miss Dorothea Jones of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Shadow, of 1822 Derry street, announce the birth of a son, Edward LeRoy Shadow, Monday, October 1, 1917. Mrs. Shadow was Miss Sara Mountz prior to her marriage.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul D. Washburn, of Cincinnati, Ohio, announce the birth of a son, Paul Weston Washburn, Monday, October 1, 1917. Mrs. Washburn is remembered here as Miss Grace Leedy.

Y. M. C. A. Improvements to Be Finished Saturday Re-equipment and improvements at the Y. M. C. A. will be completed by next Saturday when the house-warming will be held. The new department of the building is being remodeled, and the floor is covered with paint. New lights and shower baths are being installed, bowling alleys finished, and billiard and pool tables being placed.

C. W. Miller, the physical director, has made a list of classes into which the men and boys will be divided. Classes for businessmen, young men, office men, older boys, employed boys, younger boys, and a class for leaders which is a normal course for those who wish to do volunteer work. Examinations for this normal course, as prepared by the International Committee, will be held later.

Three Harrisburg Boys in Line For Promotion Recent letters from Fred W. Ramble, Harold Moore, and Harry Nell tell of their experiences in the United States Army camp at Fort Hancock, Ga. The boys are former students of the camp, and are in line for promotion from the rank of first class privates to noncommissioned officers. Moore is ill, and is confined to the hospital. All express their eagerness to go to France.

WHARTON REGISTRATION CLOSES To-morrow will be the last registration day of the Harrisburg Wharton Extension School. So far the registration has been excellent but the exact figures could not be learned. Professor Thomas E. Bartley, who is in charge of the enrollment expects the registration of many late comers. Many women have registered.

VETERAN FIREMEN TO MEET A meeting of the Veteran Firemen's Association will be held this evening at 923 North Third street.

Winterdale Special The Palm Beach Orchestra of Baltimore will play for dancing Thursday, Friday and Saturday evenings, October 5, 6 and 7. Admission 25 and 50 cents.—Adv.

SORORITY INITIATES THIS EVENING

CORNROAST FOR CENTRAL GIRLS

Miss Katharine Dubbs Hostess For School Society at Summerdale Tonight Miss Katharine Anna Dubbs, acting president of the D. S. Sorority of the Central High school, has invited all the members to Summerdale for a cornroast, following the initiation of the girls of this year's class. The sorority stands for much of good in the school and has worked for charity and made a gift to the trophy case (fund of the school since its organization. In the cut above are the original members of the sorority with their mystic symbols.

Members of the class of 1917 who will be present this evening are: Miss Katharine Dubbs, Miss Miriam Blair, Miss Kathryn Earnest, Miss Margaret Rimers, Miss Helen Wall, Miss Isabelle Phillips, Miss Mildred Runkle, Miss Katharine Klinedinst, Miss Kathryn Earnest, Miss Margaret Hogentogler, Miss Marguerite Gipple, Miss Louise Johnson, Miss Dorothy Taylor, Miss Irene Sweeney, Miss R. A. Bernice Beigel, Miss Leona Scott, Miss Katharine Keene.

The new members of the class of 1918 to be initiated this evening are: Miss Kathryn Earnest, Miss Margaret Rimers, Miss Helen Wall, Miss Isabelle Phillips, Miss Mildred Runkle, Miss Katharine Klinedinst, Miss Kathryn Earnest, Miss Margaret Hogentogler, Miss Marguerite Gipple, Miss Louise Johnson, Miss Dorothy Taylor, Miss Irene Sweeney, Miss R. A. Bernice Beigel, Miss Leona Scott, Miss Katharine Keene.

DELEGATES TO CONVENTION The following delegates from the Dauphin County W. C. T. U. have gone to Greensburg to attend the State W. C. T. U. convention, October 5 to 9: Mrs. O. J. Marston, Mrs. Gertrude Pike, Mrs. Charles King, Mrs. R. Ronemup and Mrs. A. Lincoln Shope.

Fred Squires and little daughter, Rebecca Mary Squires, who is known as "Bonnie" by her Harrisburg friends, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ward D. Carroll, 705 North Second street.

Miss Eleanor Rutherford Elder, of Frederick, Md., is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Edward Clark Cowden, at 303 South Front street.

Miss Alice Thompson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Thompson, of Stoneleigh, Paxtang, left this morning for the Ogontz school, near Philadelphia.

Miss Mary Potts, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. George C. Potts, 1613 North Second street, has begun her studies at the National Park Seminary, Washington, D. C.

Mrs. Rudolph K. Spicer, of 511 North Second street, is able to be about the house after a week's illness.

NEAR sightedness may grow to be a very annoying defect of your eyesight that can be remedied if taken in time. The proper examination and the proper glasses will do worlds to give your eyes that much needed help. Besides expert service our prices are always reasonable.

MAKE AN APPOINTMENT WITH OUR OPTOMETRIST

DIENER THE JEWELER 408 Market St.

SATURDAY TEA AT COLONIAL Mrs. Brooke Trout will preside at the tea on Saturday afternoon at the Colonial Country Club. The women attending will spend a pleasant afternoon on the porch looking for the soldiers, while the men enjoy the outdoor sports.

WITMER, BAIR & WITMER Walnut Near Second SPECIAL FEATURE FOR Friday Bargain Day Selling 69 choice light Fall Suits, Black, Navy, Copen., Mixtures and Colors — Skirt alone worth more than the asking price for the whole suit. 9 Suits $5.00 Green, Brown, Gray, Tan and Gold; sizes 16, 18, 40, 44, and two 4 1/2 fashionable figure sizes; original prices $14.75, $25.00 and $26.50. SPECIAL $5.00 11 Suits $10.00 In choice Scotch Mixtures, plain tailored and Sport models; sizes 18, 36, 38, 40 and 42; original prices $27.50, $33.50 to $42.50. SPECIAL $10.00 7 Suits $10.00 Copen and Hague Blue; plain and fancy silk lined; sizes 16, 36, 38 and 40; original prices $18.75, $31.50, $34.50 and $42.50. SPECIAL $10.00 20 Suits $10.00 All choice Navy materials — Serges, Poplins and Gabardine, matched and colored lining; sizes 16, 18, 36, 38, 39, 40, 41, 42, 42 1/2, 43, 46 and 50 1/2; original prices $19.75, $23.50, $25.00, $28.50, $33.50 to $42.50. SPECIAL $10.00 9 Suits $15.00 In choice Black Serge, Poplin Poret Twills and one Black and White Hair-line; sizes 38, 40, 42, 44, 45, 46 1/2, 48 and 49; original prices $24.75, $27.50, $33.50 to $47.50. SPECIAL $15.00 13 Suits $15.00 Choice high-grade Navy and Imported Fine Hair-line Mixtures; sizes 18, 36, 38, 40, 42, 42 1/2 and 52 1/2; original prices $29.75, $33.50, $38.50, $42.50 to $48.50. SPECIAL $15.00 Witmer, Bair & Witmer

KEEFE CORSET AND HOSIERY SHOP 107A N. Second St. Announces The Complete and Splendidly Assorted Lines of Women's New Fall and Winter HOSIERY In Silk and Silk Lisle Featuring the well-known Gordon, Phoenix and McCallum Brands. Black — White — and leading shades. Gordon—H 300 Silk Hose. $1.35 Black, white, colors..... The New Fall And Winter Lines of Women's and Misses' Underwear Awaits Your Early Inspection "Merode" American Hosiery Co.'s

A Monthly Magazine of Good Suggestions For Your Home Style in furniture and decoration is a subject that is continually demanding more and more of the housewife's serious attention. To assist in solving the problems that present themselves in every good home, we are now publishing a handsomely illustrated magazine for the women who are interested in better Furniture and more comfortable homes. Each issue contains a timely article by some prominent decorator, photographic reproductions of attractive rooms, individual pieces of furniture, rugs and draperies, and a large number of helpful suggestions in furnishing the home. Subscription is free, if you will request that your name be placed on our list. Send postal card, phone, or fill in Coupon GOLDSMITH'S North Market Square Harrisburg. Please Send Me Style in Home Furnishings, Free of Charge. NAME ADDRESS