a hundred of the student body that will go to Lebanon to-morrow. The local eleven plays the High School team of that place. Tech will put a full varsity team in the field. Carl Beck has received some internal injuries that may keep him from playing. "Tony" Wilsbach is again in good shape, although he strained his left arm in the Mount Carmel contest.

Frank Back in Game

"Haps" Frank, after being on the deline with injuries during the pening game, will likely have an opportunity to break into the game or the local school. "Butch" Essig also rounding into form and hopes oget a chance to play against the ebanon eleven.

to get a chance to play against the Lebanon eleven.

"Dutch" Miller returned to school this week and will make a bid for one of the halfback positions. Last year he was fullback for the reserves, and played in several varsity games. During the past week Coach Ryan has been putting the candidates through hard practices, and will not take any chances with the Red and Blue of Lebanon High School.

School.

The "Dutch" are again coached by "Stubby" Wilder, the former Lebanon Valley end. While most of the material is green, he has predicted one of the best teams in the school's history. Lebanon lost eleven "L" men from last season, so that with the exception of four players a new
