Gettysburg, Pa., Oct. 5.—Of the four sons of the late Baltzer Snyder, of Two Taverns, near here, the oldest, Colonel Henry D. Snyder, is in charge of the Medical Supply Depot of the United States Army at New York; Dr. J. J. Snyder, of New Oxford, is lieutenant commander of the former German steamship "Waterland," while the other two sons, George A. Snyder, of California, and William R. Snyder, of New Oxford, are in the Dental Reserve Corps, the former at Camp Kerney, Luna Vista, Cal., and the latter at Camp Thomas, Kentucky. All four of the brothers saw service in the Spanish-American War.

HONOR ROLL FOR PASTOR'S 15TH ANNIVERSARY CHURCH MEMBERS

Greencastle Presbyterian Sunday School Records Names of Those in Service

Greencastle, Pa., Oct. 5.—At the Regular Day services held in the Presbyterian Sunday school Sunday morning the program called for ten minutes for remembrance of young men belonging to the church who had volunteered or been called for services for their country. The names of the young men were placed on the blackboard and this week an honor roll is being prepared to be hung in the church. It will contain the following names: Miss Ella Shoemaker, a volunteer Red Cross nurse; Major John Brewer, with the Regular Army in France; Lieutenant Pitt J. Carl, Jr., stationed at Camp Sam Houston, San Antonio, Texas; Lieutenant Henry Fletcher Martin, at Camp Meade, Admiral, Md.; Private Henry Gilland, with the Princeton Unit Ambulance Corps in France; George Royer, of the Tenth Regiment Forestry Engineers on the way to France; Private Winfield Carey, Perkins Glass and Robert Dawson Garman, at Camp Meade, Admiral, Md.

PASTOR'S 15TH ANNIVERSARY

The Rev. Henry K. Lantz, Pastor of St. John's Church Many Years

Mechanicsburg, Pa., Oct. 5.—Next Sunday, and Monday, the fifteenth anniversary of the Rev. Henry K. Lantz, pastor of St. John's Lutheran Church, of Shiremanstown, will be celebrated. The affair will have double force in view of the fact that this is the closing season of the quadri-centennial of the Reformation. The chief service will be held on Sunday morning at 10:15 o'clock, at the country church. The Rev. Dr. Jacob C. Kunzmann, of Philadelphia, will deliver the sermon. The anniversary of Pastor Lantz will be continued on Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. On Monday afternoon, a program will include: Words of greeting, T. J. Webb; prayer; recitation, Mary Garrett; scripture reading, George E. Eckert; remarks on topic, J. Boyd Frost, of Lemoine; anthem, choir; vocal solo, Pauline Robinson; vocal duet, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wenrick. The Rev. Dr. Winter will speak again at the evening church service and Mr. and Mrs. Wenrick will sing. "Lovely Appears" by Guoniol. The special features of the celebration will be a special thank offering of $100 by the congregation, the presentation of a number of memorials, and the music. The crowning feature of the celebration will be a festival of music Monday evening at 8 o'clock, under the direction of the Rev. Mr. Lantz. St. John's vested choir will sing in honor of the anniversary, "O Great is the Depth" and "How Lovely Are Thy Messengers" from "St. Paul" by Mendelssohn; "The Inflammatus," by Rosini; "God is Our Refuge and Strength," by Schmak; and "We Praise Thee" from the "Redemption," by Guoniol. The choir will be assisted by prominent soloists from nearby cities. The organist, Mrs. George Kubacher, will play the "Prelude," by Bach; "Ricordate," by Gottschalk. The postlude will be "Maul Pontiffical," by Lammen. This will be quite a historical event for the Rev. Lantz and St. John's congregation. Under the Rev. Lantz's pastorate, the church has grown in remarkable growth. A handsome new church was built in Shiremanstown, societies organized, membership of the church increased materially and other things of importance accomplished. The Rev. Lantz is to be commended on the great work which he has accomplished with the help of his congregation.

Annual Rally Day at Grace Evangelical Church

Mechanicsburg, Pa., Oct. 5.—On Sunday the fourth annual Rally Day will be observed by Grace United Evangelical Church, the Rev. D. L. Kenner, pastor. The Rev. Dr. A. A. Winter, superintendent Evangelical Home, at Lewisburg, will be the principal speaker. In the morning at Sunday school the superintendent, M. W. Snyder will welcome the members and friends, W. F. Snell-baker will read the lesson, Kenneth King will give a recitation; Reba Hurst, vocal solo; the Rev. Dr. Winter, address on the lesson; Verna Shover, recitation; E. E. Weaver, secretary's report; Charles Wenrick, of Harrisburg, vocal solo. At the church service, the Ave. B. Winter will deliver the sermon following an anthem by the choir. The program will include: Words of greeting, T. J. Webb; prayer; recitation, Mary Garrett; scripture reading, George E. Eckert; remarks on topic, J. Boyd Frost, of Lemoine; anthem, choir; vocal solo, Pauline Robinson; vocal duet, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wenrick. The Rev. Dr. Winter will speak again at the evening church service and Mr. and Mrs. Wenrick will sing.

PERRY COUNTY'S LOAN CAMPAIGN

Committees Appointed and Plans Made For Extensive Work in District

Marysville, Pa., Oct. 5.—Extensive preparations have been made in Perry county for the county's part in the second Liberty Loan campaign, now in progress. No efforts have been spared to keep Perry up to a standard with her sister counties. Patrick F. Duncan, of Duncannon, is chairman of the committee that has charge of the plans. Full committees have been appointed, with representatives in all the larger towns and in the more important rural districts. The committee will work with the various banks of the county.

NEW MINISTERS TO BE ORDAINED

United Brethren Conference at Annville Hears Reports on Business Matters

Annville, Pa., Oct. 5.—Wednesday evening's session of the Pennsylvania Conference of the United Brethren Church was devoted to "Education" and Lebanon Valley College, the institution located here, Professor A. E. Shroyer, of Annville, presided at the service and the devotions were conducted by the Rev. I. M. Hershey, of Myerstown. After an anthem by the large choir of the local church, the report on "Education" was read by Professor J. T. Spangler, of Annville. Addresses in regard to the institution were delivered by the Rev. O. T. Ehrhardt, of Lebanon; Miss Edna Weidler, a member of the junior class; the Rev. Paul Shroyer, a senior of the institution, and the Rev. G. W. Hallman, of Annville, a graduate of the institution of the class of 1917. The closing address was made by the Rev. Dr. S. D. Faust, of Dayton, Ohio, who occupied the chair of church history at the conference. Previous to his election to the present position he served successful pastorates at In-scourse, Pa.; Hygiene, Colorado, and Harrisburg, Pa. The second day's morning session of the annual conference was opened by Bishop Bell. The devotional exercises were conducted by the Rev. W. E. Daugherty, of Reading. Bishop W. M. Bell, of Washington, D. C., then addressed the conference on "The Menaces of Ministerial Inefficiency." The forenoon session was also devoted to the transaction of general business. The name of J. E. Morrison was on motion dropped from the roll of the conference. The Rev. Dr. J. E. Fout, of Dayton, Ohio, general manager of Bona-brake Theological Seminary, was introduced and granted an advisory seat. The Rev. A. G. Nye, of Paradise, read the report of the third year's course of reading and the Rev. M. H. Jones, of Lebanon, presented the first year's course report, both of which were adopted. Professor R. L. Mowery, solicitor of the Quincy Orphanage, was introduced and granted an advisory seat. At the close of his address he presented the report of the Rev. M. H. Jones, one of the retired members of the conference, who conducted the devotions. The Rev. Dr. J. K. Statton, of Hagerstown, Md., was introduced to conference and granted an advisory seat. W. E. Herr, a representative of the United States Navy Y. M. C. A. work, was also introduced and presented the interests of the work in that line among the boys who have gone to the front. The Rev. J. M. Walters, of Sun-bury, presented the report of the fourth year's course of reading. The following ministers have completed their studies and will be ordained on Sunday afternoon by the laying of hands by Bishop Bell: The Revs. J. R. MacDonald, of Lykens; C. R. Longenecker, of Palmyra; H. A. Smith, of Lebanon; H. M. Mentzer, of Valley View; O. T. Ehrhart, of Lebanon; C. Y. Ulrich, of Philadelphia, and J. F. Brown, of Shamo-kin. An interesting woman's mission-ary rally was held, presided over by Mrs. Oliver Fridy, of Mountville. The greetings to the conference were brought by Miss Erel Grabbill, of Lancaster. An impressive duet was rendered, after which the Rev. Dr. S. S. Hough, of Dayton, Ohio, the general foreign missionary secretary of the denomination, delivered the closing message. The Rev. O. T. Ehrhardt, of Lebanon, presented the report on "The Home," the Rev. M. A. Wagner, of Lebanon, on "Bible Cause"; the Rev. Joseph Daugherty, of Harrisburg, on "Temperance," and C. S. Snook, of Philadelphia, on "Christian Stewardship." For the first time in a number of years a special series of addresses is being delivered during this session of conference. Bishop Bell called upon the Rev. Dr. H. E. Miller, of Lebanon, who gave a message on "Conference Resources and Opportu-nities." He was followed by the Rev. Dr. R. R. Butterwick, of Her-shy, who read an excellent paper on "Possibilities of the Rural Church." The Rev. Dr. J. S. Kendall, of Day-ton, Ohio, will deliver an address at the conference this evening.
