Dauphin County Patriotic Citizens and Veterans of Foreign Wars Recruiting Tells of Work to be Done

(IN TWO INSTALLMENTS—PART ONE)

Provost Marshal General Crowder, with the assistance of the local boards, has achieved splendid results in the handling of the multitudinous details pertaining to the inauguration of the selective system...

Very few people have an adequate conception of the danger of our situation. Without the aid of the allied fleet our shores before now would probably have shown the results of Teutonic depredation...

Perhaps some will say "Germany can't last much longer, her manpower and resources are weakening and she and her allies are torn by internal dissension. It is never safe to underestimate an opponent—especially an opponent as powerful, resourceful and scientific as Germany..."

Germany is the only country at war which spends practically all of its money at home, with the result that the armaments industry is constantly in circulation and the Teuton loans to a "paternal government" are each time fully subscribed by both the wage-slaves and the financiers who, like well-trained performers, spring indefatigably around the monetary ring...

T. R.'S SPEECHES CLEAR WAR AIR

Congress Looked to Former President in His Flaying of Copperheads

Washington, Oct. 5.—The smashing blows Colonel Roosevelt has dealt copperheadism in his trip through the Middle West have had the effect of making the atmosphere here in the nation's capital a whole lot clearer. Once in a while a congressman runs counter to the pronounced sentiment of his state, but the average member is figuring on getting close to his people back home...

Colonel Roosevelt's trip to Missouri, Wisconsin, Minnesota and other states that have had misrepresentation in Congress accordingly was watched with more than usual interest. It had been the windup of a national political campaign, the politicians in Congress could not have studied and analyzed the reports of his speeches and his meetings closer to judge the effect on the people. They were not interested in Roosevelt—they were in how the people felt about the war. Colonel Roosevelt was the first national character to invade the homes of copperheads. Needless to say, he did not mind words but he can't doubt of the issue. The response has been to give many here an entirely different idea of sentiment out West...

Civil War Veteran Lost For Two Days in Woods

Lewistown, Pa., Oct. 5.—Lost for two days and nights in the woods between Yeagerstown and Vira, and found only after a wide search early yesterday morning, was the experience of W. H. Kreider, aged 78, of Yeagerstown...

home of a daughter on Tuesday morning. When he failed to return that night fear was felt that harm had overtaken him and searching parties were organized. Thirty Boy Scouts helped to hunt for the missing man. Mr. Kreider had left the home of a daughter in Yeagerstown to visit a daughter at Maitland and lost his way.
