

Enormous Demand For Tickets to War Meeting of C. of C.

Chestnut Street Auditorium will be packed to the doors on Monday evening when the Harrisburg Chamber of Commerce holds its annual dinner and special War Meeting, which will be addressed by Secretary of War Baker.

Over 400 reservations have already been made by members of the Chamber for seats at the dinner, and they are still pouring in by the dozens. The hall will present a most pleasing appearance when Secretary of War Baker rises to speak, as all the seats on the side of the hall will be filled with the wives of the members and the gallery will be packed with members of the Stenton and Harrisburg Red Cross chapters.

The demand for tickets has been greater than was expected, and the Secretary of War will be shown in supporting the Government during the war. The distinguished men who will attend the dinner besides the officers and directors of the Chamber, will be Governor Brumbaugh and Secretary Ball, John Price Jackson, President Guy Carleton Lee, of the Carlisle Chamber of Commerce; Quincy Bent, W. D. B. Alney, chairman of the public service commission; Commissioner Rilling, Vance C. McCormick and A. B. Johnson, president Baldwin Locomotive Works, of Philadelphia.

MACCABEES' ENTERTAINMENT The Women's Benefit Association of the Macabees announces an entertainment to be held this evening at the hall, James and Verbeke streets, by Harrisburg Review, No. 257, in celebration of the twenty-fifth anniversary of the organization. All members and friends are invited to be present as well as other reviews of the order.

James A. Shope, engineer in the City Park Department, is spending his vacation in North, Mass.
