

GIANTS AND SOX BATTLE FOR HONORS

Champions of National and American Leagues Meet in Chicago For World's Championship; Great Crowd Braves Cold Weather to Watch Opening Contest of Baseball Classic

Scoreboard for the game between the White Sox and the New York Giants, showing runs, hits, and errors for both teams.

Comiskey Park, Chicago, Oct. 6.—The Chicago White Sox, pennant winners of the American League, and New York Giants, champion of the National League, did battle to-day in the first fray of that blue ribbon event of our national pastime—the world's baseball series.

How Giants and Sox Lineup for First Game. Indications late this afternoon showed that the batting order for the first game would be as follows: NEW YORK—CHICAGO—Burns, lf. J. Collins, rf. Herzog, 2b. McMullen, 3b. Kauff, cf. E. Collins, 2b. Zimmerman, 3b. Jackson, lf. Fletcher, ss. Felsch, cf. Robertson, rf. Gandil, 1b. Holke, 1b. Weaver, ss. McCarty, c. Cicotte, p. Salep, p. C. Cicotte, p. Umpire—Evans and O'Loughlin, American League; Klem and Rigler, National League.

First Inning—Umpire O'Loughlin gave decisions on ball and strikes; Umpire Klem gave decisions at first base; Umpire Rigler, at second base, and Umpire Evans at third base. Burns up. Strike one. Strike two. Ball one. Ball two. Ball three. Burns singled sharply over second after the court was three and two Herzog up. Herzog flied to Joe Jackson on the first ball pitched. Kauff up. Strike one. Kauff sent up a high fly to Jackson who almost dropped the ball. Zimmerman up. The crowd booed Zimmerman. Ball one. Cicotte tried to pick off Burns at first. Strike one. Burns stole second. Foul strike two. Zimmerman flied to Felsch. No runs, one error.

and when the teams took the diamond for practice it was found to be perfect. "The White Sox are right and fit," said Manager Rowland before the game. "We expect to win, and there will be plenty of action. Yes, it may be Cicotte, and possibly Faber who will do our pitching." Manager McGraw agreed that the Giants were going to meet a good ball club, but believed the final inning would show the New York Club in its best.

VETERAN OF BIG LEAGUES VS. THE BUSH LEAGUE MANAGER

CLARENCE ROWLAND. JOHN J. MCGRAW.

John J. McGraw, manager of the New York Giants, is pitted against Clarence Rowland, manager of the White Sox, in the world series. McGraw is a veteran of the big leagues. Six times he has won the pennant in the National League with the New York Giants, and once the world championship. Rowland went the other way with the White Sox. He was laughed at, but he has made good. McGraw will use the old-time baseball tactics; Rowland is more inclined to the new.

Peru Votes to Break Off Relations With Germany

Lima, Peru, Oct. 6.—The Peruvian government probably will soon break off diplomatic relations with Germany. The first step was taken yesterday when Congress by almost unanimous vote decided in favor of such a course. The Peruvian government on September 25 instructed its minister at Berlin to present to the German government a demand that satisfaction be given within eight days for the sinking of the Peruvian bark Lorton. It was added that if the demand was not met diplomatic relations would be broken.

AMERICAN PATROL SHIP FOUNDERS IN EUROPEAN WATERS WHILE ON DUTY

Washington, Oct. 6.—An American patrol ship foundered in European waters on the morning of October 4, while on duty. The Navy Department has no information of the cause of the loss of the ship and has ordered an investigation. There was no loss of life. Further information of the incident, which was reported by Vice-Admiral Sims, is being asked for by the Navy Department. There is nothing in the department's announcement to indicate the class of the ship. Most of the American patrols are destroyers. The lost ship was an auxiliary, not one of the regular Navy list and was on mine sweeping work when lost. The report that she foundered is taken here to mean she was lost in rough weather.

EXPECTS HARDSCRABBLE APPEALS TO BE THOROUGHLY THRESHED OUT IN COURT

City Solicitor Fox expects that the appeal of property owners in the Hardscrabble case will be thoroughly threshed out at a special sitting of the court in December. Many of the property owners in the section affected already accept the decision of the city and are awaiting the award of the viewers and the compensation for all the properties. The report of the viewers in the various cases growing out of the construction of the Cumberland Valley railroad viaduct in Mulberry and Second streets will be submitted soon. The testimony was closed and argument made before the viewers this week. These claims for damages grew out of the vacation of Mulberry street and the change of grade in Second street.
