Recruiting Campaign Mana- Reading Has More Than Any Other Third Class

Reading has more policemen than yof the third class cities in a list thirty-one such municipalities ted by the state bureau of mucipal statistics in a statement issued on the cost of maintenance of police departments in the smaller cities. The data was compiled by J. Herman Knisely, chief of the bureau, which is a branch of the department of labor and industry.

The cost in Reading is $115,000 for 104 policemen, while Corry, which has four, the smallest number, pays $3,820. The annual wage cost for each policeman runs from $1,140 in Johnstown to $800 in Williamsport. The lowest cost per capita of population is 36 cents in Carbondale, which has one policeman to each 2,799 persons, and the highest is $1.33 in Erie.

You've heard the call "Awake America." What shall we do: turn over and dream as did the Turks before Bozzaris during the night of their annihilation, or shall we realize the prantice of the gravity of the situation. Make up your minds not to forever be accused by your own conscience as "delinquents."

Go to any United States Recruiting office and select the branch of the service for which you are best fitted and a clear conscience, knowing that you are trying the conscience, knowing that before Bozzaris during the night of their annihilation, or shall we realize that this means Arise, Americans, and gird yourselves, for the world looks to us to do our duty for liberty and civilization. We need men, we need ships, we need munitions. Without ships we cannot transport our troops, nor can we carry food, munitions or coal to the allies. Consider that the total shipbuilding capacity of all the allied plants and yards is approximately 3,000,000 tons a year. The average loss by submarine warfare admitted by the allies is 500,000 tons a month or the loss each year of a tonnage equal to the entire tonnage of the world is at the bottom of the coean. Another thing—as tonnage of the world is at the bottom of the coean. Another thing—as tonnage decreases, so does the means of carrying shipbuilding materials to the allies, thus decreasing their building output while the submarines are constantly increasing in number, size and efficiency. DRAMATIC TIME of the foreigners and the champion of right.

Worms when Martin Luther, out-lawed, came to answer for himself

The Doctors Disagree.
Luther had been excommunicated the year before. Excommunication not only barred from the Church and the hope of heaven, but it also and the hope of heaven, but it also made a man an outlaw and even called on the faithful and the civil authorities to put him out of the way. Luther had defled the Pope. He affirmed that the Pope and even when they erred from the truth of God's word their authority ended. He was forced to speak out this logical conclusion of his ideas by a debate, beginning on July 4, 1519,
