Conflicting reports are in circulation regarding Jess Willard. Some say he will continue his circus through the south, and will not fight until he is good and ready. A recent report tells about preparations to close his circus and pick an opponent. "Billy" Rocap, sports editor of the Philadelphia Ledger, says Willard is not only ready, but in good shape.

Should the McGraw bunch win to-day and to-morrow, and then get one game in Chicago, the final game would be played in New York.

New York, Oct. 9.—Notwithstanding the reverses by the New York Giants, champions of the National League, in their two encounters with the Chicago White Sox, pennant winners of the American organization, followers of the national game in greater New York are eagerly awaiting the third contest, which will be played on the Polo Grounds to-day.

Still hopeful that John McGraw's men have the punch that will bring the world's baseball championship to this city after twelve years of effort, many thousands of devoted fans will pack the spacious stands to root for the home club.
