Robert H. Thomas, 3rd, Promoted to Sergeant Major

ROBERT H. THOMAS, 3D

Mechanicsburg, Pa., Oct. 8.—Robert H. Thomas, 3d, spent Saturday and Sunday at the home of his mother, Mrs. R. H. Thomas, here.

Mr. Thomas is a member of the Fifty-eighth Regiment, United States Infantry, stationed at Gettysburg, and has just been appointed sergeant major of the regiment.

Last year Sergeant-major Thomas enlisted in the Eighth Pennsylvania Infantry, United States National Guard, and went with the regiment to Camp Stewart, El Paso, Texas, for Mexican border service.

Previous to that service he had military training at Fort DuPont, a coast artillery fort on the Delaware river.

While in the Eighth Pennsylvania, Mr. Thomas was transferred to the Machine Gun Company, of the Eighth Regiment, commanded by Captain Ralph C. Crow, of Lemoyne.

When the company was examined for transfer into the Federal service while the regiment was encamped on Hargest's Island at Harrisburg in July of this year, Mr. Thomas was rejected by the surgeon and discharged from the service.

He then made application to Lieutenant Robert Lester, at the Harrisburg recruiting office to enlist in the United States Regular Army, passed the examination and was assigned to the Fifty-eighth Regiment at Gettysburg.
