

NEWS OF STEELTON
FOUR GENERATIONS OF STEELTON FAMILY

The above picture shows four generations of the Spink family. On the left is Harry Spink, North Second street; on the right, Frank Spink, of Norristown, his father; sitting, left, Mrs. Arnold R. Spink, Main street; right, Mrs. Elizabeth Spink, aged 91, of Chicago, Ill.

New Lines of Work to Be Taken Up by Borough Civic Club This Year

Plans for the introduction of new lines of work for the Borough Civic Club this winter, will be brought up at the first meeting of the club this season in Trinity parish house, next Tuesday afternoon.

Traffic Violator to Be Given Hearing

Burgess Wiegand to-night will give hearings to a traffic ordinance violator and several men who have been selling in the borough without licenses.

Crushed By Falling Tree

Doctors Declared Case Hopeless Mental and Physical Weak

CARNEGIE, Pa. "The early part of last winter I was caught under a falling tree and as a result suffered from concussion of the brain. My sufferings were so intense that at times I almost went mad.

FEET BOTHERED HER ALL THE TIME

Trouble Was So Bad That Sometimes Mrs. Gray Could Hardly Get About

TANLAC RELIEVED HER

"I can't begin to tell you how I suffered with my feet and limbs," says Mrs. Velma Gray, of North Seventh street, Harrisburg, Pa. "They troubled constantly and crippled me so that I was often unable even to walk about the house."

PHYSICAL COURSE IS MUCH FAVORED

Training in All Schools to Be Urged by Committee

A report is to be made before the end of the year to the State Board of Education recommending that courses of physical education be established in every school in Pennsylvania, although the committee named to investigate the matter has shown that there has been a notable increase in the number of schools where such training is now a part of the routine.

Special Meeting of Municipal League

Action in regard to the organization of a Home Reserve in the borough will be taken at a special meeting of the Municipal League in the Steelton Trust Company building to-night.

Hits Wife in Head With Ax During Fight

Mrs. Fannie Harris, colored, 153 South Fourth street, is in the Harrisburg Hospital with a fractured skull as the result of being struck on the head with an ax by her husband, Alvin Harris, yesterday.

TO PRESENT FILM

Arrangements are being made for a movie exhibition by the newly organized Owl Nest in Steelton. The picture will be presented in the Standard theater, Front street, October 24 and 25.

BIRTH ANNOUNCEMENT

Mr. and Mrs. U. S. Bigelow, 211 North Second street, announce the birth of a son, Homer Lee Bigelow, Monday, September 17.

CHILD DIES

Bessie Folk, twenty-three-month-old daughter of Isaac Folk, of Oberlin, died yesterday. Funeral services will be held Saturday. Burial will be made in the Oberlin Cemetery.

FIRST LIEUTENANT IS ORDERED TO CAMP HERE

United States Army orders issued to-day relieve First Lieutenant W. H. Warren from his present duties and sent him to the aviation camp near this place.

COMMISSIONED SCOUTMASTER

Christian L. Hoover has been commissioned as scoutmaster of Troop 1, Boy Scouts, to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Joseph Mason.

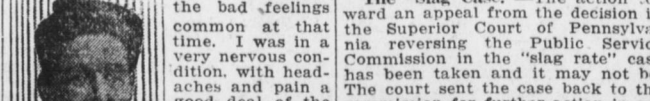

KEYSTONE RESERVES TO HOLD FESTIVAL

The Keystone Military Reserves will hold a festival at 1721 North Sixth street, this evening, at 7:30 o'clock. A committee is in charge of arrangements for the affair and worked hard to make it a success.

WOMAN OF MIDDLE AGE

Mrs. Quinn's Experience Ought to Help You Over the Critical Period

Lowell, Mass.—"For the last three years I have been troubled with Change of Life and the bad feelings common at that time. I was in a very nervous condition, with headaches and pain in a good deal of the time so I was unable to do my work. A friend asked me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It has helped me in every way, and am not nearly so nervous, no headache or pain. I must say that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the best remedy any sick woman can take."

between Ephrata, Lancaster and Reading were discussed with considerable freedom before Commissioner Michael J. Ryan to-day in the hearing of the complaint of Hiram E. Steinmetz, historian and correspondent, Ephrata, against the Bell Company. In the complaint of the city of McKeesport that it was not getting just rates in the readjustment of charges it was agreed that the case should be continued pending certain investigations.

"The Live Store"

and the roads will be selected later on. Only One Bid.—Bids for the construction of bridges in twenty-two townships of the Commonwealth were opened to-day by State Highway Commissioner J. Denny O'Neil.

"Always Reliable"

Yes---proud of our clothing service this Fall---for despite unprecedented conditions and shortage of wool, there is no shortage of good clothes HERE — Our stocks offer a bigger assortment of styles, a wider range of fabrics, patterns and colors in "Suits" and "Overcoats" than ever before.

Kuppenheimer Clothes

Deliver the satisfaction. It's no time to take chances on satisfaction and these fine clothes will give you the same long wear and are tailored in the same smart and exclusive styles as in past normal seasons.

This "Live Store" is a store of certain service

Come to this store with confidence. come here expecting more and you will not be disappointed.

Headquarters For "Stetson Hats"

Army Sweaters Hundreds of Good Warm "Army Sweaters"

They'll make a very acceptable gift — already we've sent some of these "Sweaters" to France.

"Manhattan Shirts"

"Adlers Gloves"

"Interwoven Hose"

304 Market Street

sylvania, and which amounted to $5,199. Governor Returns.—Governor Brumbaugh and Secretary Ball, who were in Washington relative to the rehabilitation of state regiments, returned late to-day. Colonel Vandling Here.—Colonel Frank W. Vandling, of Scranton, former Harrisburger, was here to-day attending the meeting of the Lauriston State Institution Commission. More Charters.—Governor Brumbaugh approved twenty charters before leaving for Washington last night. In the list were some for York. Montgomery Visitors.—Representative James S. Boyd and County Treasurer George Anders, of Montgomery, visited the Capitol.

SEEK DECISION ON SOLE NOMINEE

Interesting Political Question to Be Submitted to Dauphin County Court

Proceedings to have the Dauphin county court enjoin Secretary of the Commonwealth Woods from certifying the judicial candidates polling the four highest votes in the Philadelphia courts, where there are contests and in Schuylkill county, were inaugurated here to-day and it is expected that they will lead to a new decision on what is necessary to make a "sole nominee" under the judicial election law. The Dauphin

RETIRED TAKES OATH

Alderman G. Vernon Rettew, who was recently appointed, took the oath of office in the county recorder's office this morning. He will open offices probably Monday.

Use All Apples

The State Department of Agriculture is urging that every apple be turned to use this fall. Attention is called to the fact that there is an unusual demand and that the state crop will be about 12,000,000 bushels instead of 18,000,000 as was the case last year and also to the decline in the crop estimates from New York and Canada.

Appointed Delegates

Governor Brumbaugh has announced the appointments of Dr. Alfred H. Stengel, Philadelphia; Dr. Charles H. Miner, Wilkes-Barre, and D. W. G. Turnbull, Cresson, to represent the state at the North Atlantic Tuberculosis conference at Baltimore.

To Govern 16 Cases

Dairy and Food Commissioner Faust announced to-night that the proceedings in the Dauphin county court relative to arrest of judgment in the alleged fraudulent sausage cases would affect sixteen cases in eight other counties where such actions had been brought.

Should Use Charter

The state brought an action requiring the Rutherford State Bank, of Pittsburgh, which is alleged not to have started business, to show cause why its charter should not be revoked.

Paying the Districts

Further payments of state aid to school districts were made yesterday and to-day. Most of the districts sent warrants where those of small resources.

To Meet Governor

Arrangements have been made for a conference within a few days between Governor Brumbaugh and members of the Camp Curtin Memorial Commission.

Agree on Basis

An agreement was reached yesterday afternoon between Auditor General Snyder and a committee of representative publishers regarding rates for state advertising, especially constitutional amendments. It will be on a zone basis.

Holiday Friday

Announcement was made to-day that Friday being Columbus day there will be a holiday on Capitol Hill.

Did Not Bid

No bids were received for construction of state highway bridges in Berks and several other counties yesterday, but some were made for Bart township, Lancaster county, and Carroll township, York county.

Plans Approved

The State War Supply Commission last evening announced approval of the plans for the new dam of the New Haven Water and Power Company at Three Mile Island, below Middletown. The plans of improvements for the Newville Water Company were also approved as were applications for bridges of the cities of Lebanon and Williamsport.

Ask Halifax Improvement

Highway Commissioner O'Neil late yesterday assured Representative Ush and a committee of upper end residents that he would have steps taken to look over needed improvements on the Halifax-Adlersburg road.

The "Slag Case"

The action toward an appeal from the decision in the Superior Court of Pennsylvania which was told by Governor Brumbaugh to get busy in July and which has held one meeting since, is making another effort to have a session to-day. The last time the commission was called it did not have quorum. Matters relative to agricultural advancement will be discussed with Secretary Patton.

Commissioner Tries Again

The State Agricultural Commission, which was told by Governor Brumbaugh to get busy in July and which has held one meeting since, is making another effort to have a session to-day. The last time the commission was called it did not have quorum. Matters relative to agricultural advancement will be discussed with Secretary Patton.

Discuss Rates

Telephone rates

judges fixed next Monday afternoon for the hearing. The action was brought in the form of a prayer for an injunction against the secretary, the petitioners being Judges W. H. Staake and John Monaghan, Philadelphia court No. 5; Judges J. F. LaMorrille and Edwin A. Anderson, Philadelphia orphans' court, and Judges H. C. Bechtel and C. E. Berer, Schuylkill county. It is contended that these men should be certified as the "sole nominees."

RETIRED TAKES OATH

Alderman G. Vernon Rettew, who was recently appointed, took the oath of office in the county recorder's office this morning. He will open offices probably Monday.

Use All Apples

The State Department of Agriculture is urging that every apple be turned to use this fall. Attention is called to the fact that there is an unusual demand and that the state crop will be about 12,000,000 bushels instead of 18,000,000 as was the case last year and also to the decline in the crop estimates from New York and Canada.

Appointed Delegates

Governor Brumbaugh has announced the appointments of Dr. Alfred H. Stengel, Philadelphia; Dr. Charles H. Miner, Wilkes-Barre, and D. W. G. Turnbull, Cresson, to represent the state at the North Atlantic Tuberculosis conference at Baltimore.

To Govern 16 Cases

Dairy and Food Commissioner Faust announced to-night that the proceedings in the Dauphin county court relative to arrest of judgment in the alleged fraudulent sausage cases would affect sixteen cases in eight other counties where such actions had been brought.

Should Use Charter

The state brought an action requiring the Rutherford State Bank, of Pittsburgh, which is alleged not to have started business, to show cause why its charter should not be revoked.

Paying the Districts

Further payments of state aid to school districts were made yesterday and to-day. Most of the districts sent warrants where those of small resources.

To Meet Governor

Arrangements have been made for a conference within a few days between Governor Brumbaugh and members of the Camp Curtin Memorial Commission.

Agree on Basis

An agreement was reached yesterday afternoon between Auditor General Snyder and a committee of representative publishers regarding rates for state advertising, especially constitutional amendments. It will be on a zone basis.

Holiday Friday

Announcement was made to-day that Friday being Columbus day there will be a holiday on Capitol Hill.

Did Not Bid

No bids were received for construction of state highway bridges in Berks and several other counties yesterday, but some were made for Bart township, Lancaster county, and Carroll township, York county.

Plans Approved

The State War Supply Commission last evening announced approval of the plans for the new dam of the New Haven Water and Power Company at Three Mile Island, below Middletown. The plans of improvements for the Newville Water Company were also approved as were applications for bridges of the cities of Lebanon and Williamsport.

Ask Halifax Improvement

Highway Commissioner O'Neil late yesterday assured Representative Ush and a committee of upper end residents that he would have steps taken to look over needed improvements on the Halifax-Adlersburg road.

The "Slag Case"

The action toward an appeal from the decision in the Superior Court of Pennsylvania which was told by Governor Brumbaugh to get busy in July and which has held one meeting since, is making another effort to have a session to-day. The last time the commission was called it did not have quorum. Matters relative to agricultural advancement will be discussed with Secretary Patton.

Commissioner Tries Again

The State Agricultural Commission, which was told by Governor Brumbaugh to get busy in July and which has held one meeting since, is making another effort to have a session to-day. The last time the commission was called it did not have quorum. Matters relative to agricultural advancement will be discussed with Secretary Patton.

Discuss Rates

Telephone rates

Doutrich's Always Reliable