

ALSACE DEMAND BLOCKING PEACE, REICHSTAG TOLD

No End to War, Says Michaelis, So Long as Allies Ask Piece of German Soil

Amsterdam, Oct. 11.—At the plenary sitting of the Reichstag yesterday Dr. George Michaelis, the Imperial German Chancellor, asserted that peace was impossible as long as Germany's enemies demanded any German soil or endeavored to drive a wedge between the German people and their Emperor.

"We would get along much better," said the Chancellor, "if those who combat the peace resolution of July 19, and assert that its supporters want a separate peace, would be more just toward this resolution. We must work out in their positive sense, and forcefully, the aims comprised in this resolution. We must be clear in our minds as to what we desire and must emphasize what was said in the resolution.

Funds Needed to Continue Ripping

Park Commissioner E. Z. Gross announced today that practically all the ground needed for fill along the river slopes from Hamilton to Calder streets had been obtained, but the remainder of the ripping which was started early in the summer could not be completed until sufficient funds are available.

Semaphore System Is Favored by Officials

With traffic troubles constantly increasing in Harrisburg a number of city officials today said they believed one of the systems which would help solve some of the difficulties will be the use of semaphores at a number of the busiest street intersections.

It is believed Council will act favorably on the question of purchasing the semaphores, as the commissioners admit the traffic problem is one which needs attention.

ROB EXPRESS OF $6,000

Hoboken, N. J., Oct. 11.—Four masked robbers held up two Adams Express Company employes, shot one of them, Ernest Hecker, a clerk in the back, and escaped with money reported to amount to $6,000 here today.

CIVILIAN RELIEF BODY AT WORK GOVERNING HOPES FOR REGIMENTS

Volunteers Are Cheering Up Families of Men Who Are at Training Camps

Harrisburg's Civilian Relief Department of the Red Cross is active in home service. Paying visits to the homes of soldiers' families, cheering them and dispelling the sadness and gloom are the duties of the volunteers of this department.

A course of lectures by John H. McCandless, of the Associated Aids Society, and Mrs. William L. Laubenstein, on "Home Service," is being opened in the near future. People who desire to take up this course are requested to register at the Red Cross headquarters, 206 Walnut street, before Monday.

The German nation will stand together as one man, unshakable, and persevere in the fight until its right and the rights of our allies to existence and development are assured.

No Formal Observance of Columbus Day Here

Columbus Day will not be formally observed in the city with a big demonstration, but various organizations, residents of the city and vicinity who are natives of Italy or whose parents came from that country, will have small celebrations.

Militant Suffragists May Be Jailed For Robbery

Washington, Oct. 11.—With a warning to the militant pickets of the woman's party, now in the Occoquan workhouse, that unless they "obey the rules of the institution and continue their acts of insubordination and rioting," they will be transferred to the jail and kept in solitary confinement, the local government today restored to duty the superintendent of the workhouse, who had temporarily been relieved of his charges made by the women being investigated.

PERMIT FOR FIVE HOUSES

A building permit was issued today for F. J. Heintz, contractor, for the erection of five two-story brick houses for Mrs. F. C. Copenhaver. The residences will be built on the west side of Jefferson street, between Mahanongo and Geary streets, and will cost $3,000.

Camp Hill Firehouse Question Up to Council

Camp Hill, Pa., Oct. 11.—A committee from the local fire company will go before council to-night and request that the borough fathers take over the fire hall at Camp Hill property. The firemen at a meeting last week decided to take this move inasmuch as the interest in the work of the body by its members is increasing and that the few who have tried to keep the organization together have been unable to maintain and care for the building. The firemen have not expressed their opinion in the matter individually and what they will do in the matter could not be learned before the session to-night.

OPEN LUXURIOUS CLUB

London, Oct. 11.—Probably the most luxurious clubhouse in London is Lord Leonfield's residence, which was opened today as an "American officers' club." The residence is one of the most spacious in Mayfair. It contains many costly pictures and tapestries.

COMPANY D HAS LONG SERVICE TO ITS CREDIT; UNDER ORDERS TO DISBAND

Company D, Eighth Pennsylvania Infantry, held a farewell dinner at Camp Hancock on Sunday evening, prior to the proposed disbandment of the company in the reorganization of the Twenty-eighth (Pennsylvania) Division.

An excellent menu, including chicken corn soup and fricassees of chicken, a la Hancock, was merely incidental to the occasion. Some excellent speeches were made.

Company D has a proud history, and many reminiscences of other days were reviewed at the dinner.

ANCIENT HISTORY COURSE

Dr. Wing, of Dickinson College, will give a course in Ancient History to the teachers of Harrisburg this winter. This work is open to all who desire to participate. 'SLACKER' IS REFORMED BY TOBACCO FUN

Had an Idea War Was Bore Until He Found Soldiers Needed Smokes

Here's a man who comes out and admits that he's been a slacker. He signs himself "Ex-Slacker," and says that our Tobacco Fund campaign has changed his mind.

"Dear Tobacco Kit Folks: I am one of those who are a little slow, wake up. I dodged the Liberty bond. I sidestepped the Red Cross, and while I wouldn't lend the Kaiser my money, I had an idea that this war was bush. Well, your Tobacco Kit stories jarred me into action like Ben on a dark morning. I read about the boys in the trenches, hungry for smokes. I've been that way myself and it's no fun. Here are three dollars and more to come later. Here are the return cards addressed to you about twice that amount. I'm signing to enlist this week.—Ex-Slacker. There you are. It's a wonderful thing how folks are taking hold of American smokes for some time. Every twenty-five cent piece buys about twice that amount of good American smokes for some time. The French Government and the Red Cross. And each package carries return postal which bears the donor's name and address. That means personal message to you from a soldier. Previously acknowledged... $305. Mrs. C. D. Prescott... 2. Mrs. S. F. Reynolds... 2. Samuel Klompus... 308.
