TWO ESCAPE FROM ADAMS CO. JAIL

For Third Time in Three Weeks Prisoners Get Away From Gettysburg Keepers

Gettysburg, Pa., Oct. 11.—Something seems to be wrong at the county jail. Three weeks or so ago two soldiers escaped from the prison. They were recaptured at Carlisle and after spending several more days in the jail made another escape and are still at large. Late yesterday afternoon two negroes who had been imprisoned about a week got out into the yard and driving nails into the wall, climbed up and dropped down the other side and got away. Some school-children saw them and asked them what they were doing, and were told that the sheriff was sending the children to the playground, which is just a short distance back of the jail, for something. This satisfied the children and no alarm was given until it was discovered by other prisoners some time later that they were gone.

Why Actresses Never Grow Old

Nothing concerning the profession seems more puzzling to the dear public than the perpetual youth of our feminine members. How often we hear remarks like, "Why, I saw her as Juliet forty years ago and she doesn't look a year older now!" Of course allowance is made for make-up, but when they see us of the stage at close range, they need another explanation.

How strange women generally haven't learned the secret of keeping the face young? How simple a matter to get an ounce of mercolized wax at the drugstore, apply it like cream, and in the morning wash it off! We know how this gradually, imperceptibly, absorbs old cuticle, keeping the complexion new and fresh, free from fine lines, sallowness or over-redness. We know, too, that this mercolized wax is the reason actresses don't wear moth patches, liver spots, pimples and the like. Why don't our sisters on the other side of the foot-lights learn the reason, and profit by it?—Theatrical World. —Advertisement.

A Queen Ann Suite $122.50 That's Distinctive

Even Period Furniture May Be "Different"

The chief thing is the "theme" of the design. And in the fashioning of this suite, none of the quaintness of the old Dutch imagination is lost. Here is a suite that is out of the ordinary — that is desirable for its very distinctiveness.

Look at the Price* Again

Think it over. Turn the pages of this paper — or see a few similar suites at other stores. Where will you find a genuine period reproduction in a bedroom suite, sold for such a low price? And remember too, that our easy purchasing plan may be used.

They Will Probably Last Only One Day

There aren't many suites — and at this low price — there will be a great demand for them. So we urge an early inspection — a small deposit will either reserve the suite or deliver it to your home immediately. And a little each week or month pays the bill.

LETTER PRAISES SCHOOLCHILDREN

Harold Braddock, National Director of Loan War Council, Expresses Appreciation

Mechanicsburg, Pa., Oct. 11.—Schoolchildren of Mechanicsburg receive praise in the following letter, on account of liberality to the Soldiers' Library Fund:

Mrs. Robert H. Thomas Jr., Mechanicsburg, Pa.

My Dear Mrs. Thomas:—The members of the Liberty Loan War Council have been especially gratified to find that the fund which is being raised for books for our soldiers and sailors represented by the movement of so large a number of people and indicates the determination of those who stay at home that our boys at the front institutions, will assist the committees in the work by special advertising.

The Council has been especially pleased to learn that even the children have a share in this patriotic work and to know that in Mechanicsburg the boys and girls have been willing to make an actual sacrifice and companionship of good books.

Such a spirit of self-sacrifice as these children have shown cannot but be followed by others. Brothers and sisters who have gone to fight their battles. By their act these children are helping to win the war, for with such a spirit of devotion and heroism behind our troops, American arms cannot fail. We sincerely trust that the example set by Mechanicsburg will be followed by others.

Very truly yours,
HAROLD BRADDOCK,
National Director.

DUNCANNON

Amos Burris has moved his family from the Jackson estate property to Harrisburg and Dr. C. W. Hayes has moved from Landisburg to the house vacated by Mr. Burris.

Teachers and pupils of the public schools had a vacation yesterday. No sessions were held, so that those who wished could enjoy the public schoolchildren's day at the Perry County Fair at Newport. The day was an ideal one for the occasion and there was a large attendance from here.

A heavy frost during Tuesday night destroyed much vegetation that was late in maturing.

DIVIDING ESTATE WORTH $17,000

Valuable Bank Certificates and Gold Found in Modest Little Home

Gettysburg, Pa., Oct. 11.—Legal proceedings have been started in the case of the estate of Amos F. Shank, an elderly bachelor, who died last spring. Mr. Shank and his maiden sister, Miss Annie Shank, lived together on their farm near Cashtown, in the western part of the county, and the sister died ten days before the brother. Living in ordinary circumstances all their lives, relatives were surprised in getting the furniture together for a sale to find hidden away in different parts of the house and in odd places bank certificates and money, most of it in gold, which together with the proceeds of the sale of the furniture and the modest little home, amounted to $17,000. It is for a proper distribution of this estate that the proceedings are now being held.

Farm Workman Receives Compensation For Injuries

Gettysburg, Pa., Oct. 11.—Last May while John Waddles was working on the farm of Charles Ruidisill, in Cumberland township, in removing an old stone fence and breaking up the large stones, a small piece flew into his right eye and totally destroyed the sight. Mr. Ruidisill was carrying workmen's compensation and a claim was presented for the injury. The matter has finally been adjusted and the young man receives $125 weeks and the medical fees incurred at the time of the accident.

Systematic Loan Campaign Planned For Adams County

Gettysburg, Pa., Oct. 11.—The second Liberty Loan campaign is to be pushed here on a more systematic plan than was the first one. Adams county has been placed in the district with York county, and ex-Judge Swopes appointed to have charge of the Adams county end of the district. Ex-Judge Swopes will wage an active campaign and the indications are that Adams county will do her bit.

SUBMARINE MATE WEDS

Waynesboro, Oct. 11.—Miss Irene Krebs, daughter of Thomas H. Krebs, of Baltimore, and Stewart Benchoff, son of Mrs. Jane Benchoff, Rouzer, were married on Monday, at Camden Cottage, Monterey, the home of Mrs. Walter B. Benchoff, a sister of the bride, by the Rev. H. F. Coffelt, of Rouzerville.

The groom is a gunner's mate, attached to United States submarine G-4. He wore the regulation blue uniform of the Navy. After a short honeymoon he will return to his boat, the present whereabouts of which is not known outside of the Navy Department.

FEDERAL DISTRIBUTING OFFICE

Gettysburg, Pa., Oct. 11.—The Post Office Department of the Government has designated Gettysburg post office as the distributing headquarters for the sale of stamps, stamped envelopes, wrapping paper and all supplies of this nature. Under the plan there will be a central accounting station for each county and Gettysburg has been named for Adams. This will add quite a lot of work to the already busy force at the local office. Many extra clerks have been added to the force this summer because of the camp here.

GROWS CROP OF PEANUTS

Waynesboro, Pa., Oct. 11.—Peanuts can be successfully grown in Waynesboro and vicinity, in the face of the claim that they could not be grown in a northern or middle states climate. Joseph Schaller planted forty hills of the peanut seed in the spring and the vines are literally covered with goobers, which are of a large size and well filled. Each stalk has more than two dozen nuts.

ATTENDING BALTIMORE SCHOOL

U. B. CONFERENCE OPENING SESSION

New Bishop Presides at Annual Business Meeting at Waynesboro Church

Waynesboro, Oct. 11.—Yesterday morning the Pennsylvania Conference of the United Brethren Church opened its one hundred twenty-eighth annual session in the First United Brethren Church here, with the new bishop of the east district of the denomination, Bishop W. M. Bell, of Washington, D. C., on the chair. The sessions are being held in the magnificent church edifice, completed last year under the patronage of the Rev. Dr. J. L. Grimm, now of Shippensburg. The Rev. C. C. Miller is the present pastor and he and his congregation have proved themselves a gracious host.

In his opening address to the conference, Bishop Bell told the delegates that the greatest hindrance to Christ's kingdom is the official selfishness of those placed in authority. In concluding his sermon, he prayed that this hindrance might not be evidenced in the present conference session.

The Rev. W. M. Beattie, of Greencastle, was chosen recording secretary on the first ballot, but it required a second ballot to elect him. The first ballot for the selection of a statistical secretary had not the Rev. G. I. Rider, of Hagerstown, Md., withdrawn in favor of the Rev. E. W. Leech, of Baltimore, who was declared elected.

The conference unanimously voted to answer a telegram of felicitation from Bishop W. H. Washington, former superintendent of the Pennsylvania conference, who in conducting the sessions of the Montana conference at Great Falls, Mont.

Four visitors were introduced and given advisory seats in the conference—Dr. James S. McGraw, general field secretary of the National Reform Association; Dr. G. A. Funkhouser, director of Seminary Extension Work of the church; Dr. J. S. Kendall, secretary of the Board of Administration; and the Rev. L. R. Cooper, field agent of Bonebrake Theological Seminary, all from Dayton, Ohio. Bishop Bell also introduced his wife and she was received with much applause.

During the session Bishop Bell announced the appointment of the following committees:

Devotions—The Rev. C. C. Miller, D. J. March and John A. Yost.

Candidates for ministry—The Rev. G. W. Sherrick, J. F. Snyder and E. J. Renshaw.

Zacharias Kime, Civil War Vet, Dies at Bendersville

Bendersville, Pa., Oct. 11.—Zacharias T. Kime, aged 70 years, a veteran of the Civil War and one of the most widely known citizens of Bendersville, died Tuesday evening at his home here. He had been working during the day helping to cut corn on one of the farms of Dr. J. G. Stover, and about eleven o'clock in the morning one of his fellow workmen noticed that he was not well and went to his assistance. As he reached him Mr. Kime could just gasp, "I have a stroke," and lapsed into unconsciousness, from which he could not be roused. He is survived by his wife and ten children.

LOAN DAY AT WAYNESBORO

Waynesboro, Pa., Oct. 11.—Tuesday, October 16, will be Liberty Loan Day here. Two big booster meetings will be held in the Arcade Theater, one in the afternoon and one in the evening. Prominent speakers from a distance will be present and moving pictures will show scenes from the war in which the United States has been engaged, beginning with the Revolution.

MUSIC FOR RED CROSS

Marietta, Pa., Oct. 10.—A successful musical was held in the Marietta Presbyterian Church by the Red Cross auxiliary, the money to be used to buy yarn for sweaters for the soldiers and for other materials. The parties were Miss Mae Marley, Mrs. Andrew T. Kehoe and Chester Wittell, of Columbia.

What Sort of a Suit or Overcoat Do You Want For Your Boy?

☑ You want the sort of Clothes for him that will give him a well-cared for, well-dressed appearance.

☑ And you want service in his Clothes—good, substantial, dyed-in-the-wool quality that not only withstands the "rub" of his energetic life, but that "shows up" at the end of the "journey" with the same "vitality" which marked the beginning of the life of his Suit or Overcoat.

☑ Wm. Strouse Clothes for Boys are built along manly lines which boys like, but are designed to retain a youthful appearance.

☑ Unlimited attention is given to assortments, so that YOUR BOY will have plenty to choose from—for if he's like the "rest of the boys" he "wants to be shown."

And—your boy—no matter how young—can come here "by himself" and receive the same careful and trustworthy attention as when you are with him.
