Ready Now!

The factory provided for an adequate supply of Model Eighty-Five closed cars months ago.

They were produced at lower cost than will be possible again for a long time, in all probability.

And they were produced early enough to be well in advance of the demand—early enough so we could promise you immediate delivery.

They are beautiful, luxurious cars of the Springfield Type, completely convertible, sides open from end to end or may be closed up as tight as a limousine.

Come in and see them today. We can give you immediate delivery if you wish.

ST. MARK'S PLANS TO DISORGANIZE

Officials Give Story of Condition of Church Congregation

The St. Mark's Lutheran Church congregation existing in the borough for twenty-three years is considering disorganizing.

Final action on the matter which has been pending for six months, will be taken at a congregational meeting which will be held probably October 21, according to a member of the official board this morning.

The money will then be turned over to the Loysville Orphans Home at Loysville to be used in taking care of the Lutheran orphans from Steelton.

Church Built in 1896 The congregation when it was in its best condition did not number more than 100. Officials said that if the plan which will be submitted at the congregational meeting is followed out, the members will be given their letters of dismissal and given the privilege of joining any church.

League Members Favor Organization of Home Guards in This Borough A joint meeting of the Steelton Businessmen's Association and Municipal League will be held in the near future for the purpose of organizing a home defense reserve body.

Fail to Appear For Police Court Hearings Two defendants summoned for hearings before Burgess Wigfield last night failed to appear. Pete Metkoj was summoned on a charge of violating the traffic ordinance by refusing to obey the orders of an officer during the mail fire Sunday night.

Annual Meeting of Red Cross Chapter The annual meeting of the Steelton Chapter of Red Cross will be held in the headquarters in Harrisburg street this evening at 8 o'clock.

SCHOOL ATTACHES WILL TAKE PART IN INSTITUTE Members of the borough school faculty will attend the annual county institute in the State Capitol at Harrisburg during the week of November 12. School will be closed during the week.

MRS. FICKES ENTERTAINS Mrs. George W. Fickes, 249 Lincoln street, was hostess to Dr. J. R. Plank's class of St. Mark's Lutheran Sunday School Tuesday evening.
