The noteworthy and all-important feature of Schleisner Tailored Garments is the tailoring itself. A plain line garment is not necessarily a strictly tailored one. The ability and skill necessary to bring out the utmost exclusiveness in plain lines can only be found among the very highest type of men tailors whose art is their life work.

And there are only a few of such tailors. And those are the tailors who find it possible to display their skill on Schleisner garments — which are mainly strictly Schleisner modes.

And furthermore—we make it a special part of our work in our own establishment to have our own skilled men tailors correct and improve every little detail of a garment before it leaves our store.

Hence Schleisner patrons are our most prominent endorses — because they are fitted perfectly and their garments are perfectly tailored to the minutest detail.
