WIDE INTEREST IN BIG PARADE

Patriotic Demonstration Is Attracting Wide Attention in City

Plans for the big patriotic mass meeting which has been announced for Wednesday evening in the Techcal High School, to boost recruiting, are arousing interest in all parts of the city. Not only will patriotic orrine city. Not only will batriotic organizations and the families of boys who are in some branch of the United States service be out in force, but the students are planning to be present to show their appreciation of the cause which the meeting represents. The presiding officer for the occasion has not been selected. Colonel Frederick M. Ott, chairman of the speakers' committee will announce

The District Appeal Board met this morning in what will be a cleen-up session. The session will continue during the entire week and during that time every exemption claim in the second Middle Judicial District will be acted on. There are ciaim in the second Middle Judiciai District will be acted on. There are reveral hundred agricultural and industrial claims besides a large number of appeals from the decisions of the local boards. A hard week's opening of to-day's stock market.

The board will endeavor to guarce full quotas to all the local trids in order that the work of the draft may be cleaned up. Howit is possible that many of the trids including some in Dauphin mity, may have to call many more possible that both will have to examine more men. So far the Paxtang Board has examined 1167 of the 2499 men registered. Of this number it has already sent 1:10 men to Camp Meade. The quota from this district is 199. This board has a large number of claims before the District Board, but it is doubtful if $5 more men can be secured. The Paxtang board will meet this week to act on exemption claims and tign discharge slips.

The District Board completed the examination of the claims of the men of Adams county this mornine. It has been reported not officially that the next quota of white men will leave for Camp Meade on or near October 19.
