of the district, advising recruiting men to fill up this branch as rapidly as possible.

Men with special qualifications now have the opportunity of a lifetime. Mechanics and men who are familiar with motor vehicles are in special demand.

The air fleet is to play a prominent part in the war from this time forward, and red-blooded young men in search of adventure cannot do better than to make application now, while the way is open.

The Harrisburg district, with its limited population, has led in recruiting since the opening of the office here. Had this district not kept ahead of, other districts of the state, Pennsylvania, instead of being 1,000 recruits in advance of New York state, would have dropped at least 5,000 behind its nearest rival.

Not only is the Harrisburg district ahead in recruiting, but the energetic recruiting men of this section hold the record for subscriptions to the Second Liberty Loan issue. Lieutenant Lesher's men have to their credit, up to Saturday, sales amounting to $4,200.

Sergeant Blake has been meeting with pronounced success everywhere up to Saturday, sales amounting to $4,200.

Sergeant Blake has been meeting with pronounced success everywhere in his campaign of recruiting publicity and organization. To-night he will meet the business men of Reading. To-morrow, at noon, he will meet a large committee of Altoona business men, under auspices of the Rotary Club. Wednesday noon Sergeant Blake will speak at a meeting in York, and will attend the meeting here Wednesday night. Thursday a meeting before the General Committee of Cambria County is scheduled for Johnstown.

The following persons from this section were accepted at recruiting headquarters since Saturday: Thomas S. Wikel, Steelton, Cavalry; Marion Johnston and Jose Dimos, Steelton, Stevedore Regiment.
