

ENDEAVORERS HEAR SPEECHES

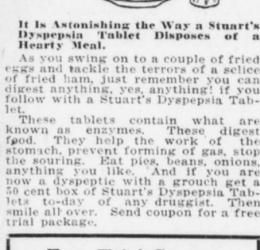

Gain Inspiration From Addresses of Prominent Workers at Shamokin

Endeavorers and Sunday school workers crowded the large auditorium of the United Evangelical church last evening at the East Pennsylvania Conference of K. L. C. and Sunday School Federation in convention at this place.

The session this morning was opened with a devotional service by the Rev. E. S. Woodring, of Tamaqua. After a report by the treasurer, E. J. Rapp, of Allentown, an address was delivered by Preston G. Orwig, State Secretary Division Superintendent, on the subject, "Why, What and How in the 'See-You'."

WIDE VARIETY OF TOPICS FOR TECH SENIORS' ESSAYS

Half of Subjects Are on War; Central and Tech Upperclassmen to Give Three Minute Talks on Liberty Loan

The forty-nine seniors of the Technical High school will not wait in their selection of a subject for their senior essays. Professor Pierce Rettew has prepared a list of subjects from "A to Z" from which they may make their selections. These themes are required of all the graduates during the final year, and are under the supervision of the teacher, Mr. Rettew.

- Mr. Rettew has set February 15 as the date when all the essays have to be submitted. Those written by the honor students will be delivered as orations at the Commencement exercises. They must be at least 750 words in length. Fifty of the subjects contain a reference to the war, while twenty-five others are of a varied nature. Those who select first will be given their preference in picking the titles. The subjects as prepared by the tutor are: "Democracy's Onward March," "Angels of Mercy—The American Red Cross," "Modern Warfare," "The Failure of the Submarine," "The Anglo-American Future," "American Inventions Used in Warfare," "Provost Marshal General Crowder—The Man Who Does Things," "General Pershing—The American Commander," "Field Marshal Haig," "The Frenchman Loved by Americans," "Lloyd George—England's Man of the Hour," "The Failure of Imperialism," "The Debt of the United States to France," "Our Debt to Russia," "The Essentials of National Independence," "Education and War," "Universal Military Service," "War and Thrift," "Aviation During the War," "The Contribution of American Universities to the War," "The Basis of a Durable Peace," "Armament Versus Disarmament," "The Freedom of the Seas," "To Safeguard Democracy," "War and Thrift," "Mobilizing the Nation's Resources," "America's Duty to the World Democracies," "The Passing of Kings and Emperors," "The National Food Problem," "Military Training in the Schools," "Harrisburg's Proud Record," "A League to Enforce Peace," "An International Supreme Court," "The Treatment of Aliens," "A Different World After the War," "The United States as a Sea Power," "America's Leader—Woodrow Wilson," "England's Solution of the Labor Problem During the War," "The War and the Solution of the Negro Problem," "Labor's Part in the War," "The Effect of the War on Immigration," "Conscription," "War as a Developer of Sciences," "Technical Part in the War," "Technical Volunteers," "German Intrigue," "Who Remains at Home," "Life in the Trenches," "The Nation's Sacrifices," "The Debt of the World to the United States," "Pennsylvania—An Appreciation," "Western Ideas," "Industrial Arbitration."

Ray Wentzler, bass violinist in the Tech orchestra last year, is now attending the North East Manual high school in Philadelphia. He has graduated from Tech this year, and he is a member of the football squad in Philadelphia, playing right tackle.

The grammar school diplomas were distributed to the Freshmen today at Tech. Should you happen to visit one of the local theaters this week you will have an opportunity to hear Central and Tech seniors give three minute talks on the Liberty loan. Representatives of the Liberty Loan Committee will be present at the meeting. The 700 students of the school were dismissed in one and one-half minutes at 6:00 yesterday morning.

APPROACH OF WINTER UNEARTH'S MANY NEEDS FOR CHARITY

Wife Supports Invalid Husband; Another Widow Is Having Trouble Finding Money to Keep Her Seven Small Children

There is one family in Harrisburg which has been dreading the return of winter weather with its added burdens of coal, winter clothing and increased living expenses. The father is a helpless invalid and has been so for many years. The wife has bravely met all the problems as they arose, and except for some few items in the family budget she has refused to ask for assistance. Now that she feels unable to meet the increased burdens she is allowing the Associated Aid Societies, which has been befriending her during the last two years, to help in a more substantial way.

CHILD GETS SICK CROSS, FEVERISH IF CONSTIPATED

Look at tongue! Then give fruit laxative for stomach, liver, bowels. "California Syrup of Figs" can't harm children and they love it.

A laxative to-day saves a sick child to-morrow. Children simply will not take the time from play to empty their bowels, which become clogged up with waste, liver gets sluggish, stomach sour. Look at the tongue, mother! If coated, or your child is listless, cross, feverish, breath bad, restless, doesn't eat heartily, full of cold, or has sore throat or any other children's ailments, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," then don't worry because it is perfectly harmless, and in a few hours all this constipation poison, your little fermenting waste will gently move out of the bowels, and you have a well, playful child again. A thorough "inside cleansing" is oftentimes all that is necessary. It should be the first treatment given in any sickness. Beware of counterfeit fig syrups. Ask your druggist for a bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly printed on the bottle. Look carefully and see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company."

ASTHMA There is no "cure" but relief is often brought by VICK'S VAPORUB. Use McNeil's Pain Exterminator.

OLD SOLDIER SHARES PENSION WITH FIGHTERS

His Bit Toward Cheering Some of the Boys Who Are Now in France

In the trembling hand-writing of an aged Civil War veteran, comes a letter to us enclosing a small sum of money. It is an old soldier's "bit" toward cheering some of the boys who are doing the fighting to-day in the same cause he loved in '61. The letter states that his contribution is that part of his pension money which he is able to spare. It isn't much, to be sure. But between the lines of the letter gleams the warm-hearted sympathy of an old man. It was as much as he could give. And he gave it, gladly. He remembered how he used to enjoy good "bully" in his own fighting days.

How many quarters have you sent along to our "Tobacco Fund"? We won't ask you "how many can you afford to give"? We simply ask you to send us one or two or three, whatever you think right, as your first contribution. Then—wait for the postal cards to come back. There's one packed in each twenty-five cent kit, you know, stamped and addressed for direct return to you. And when you have read these messages of thanks from several soldiers who have enjoyed your gift, we won't need to ask you for quarters at all, any more. You'll be so interested, yourself, that you'll give before and you'll be asking your friends to help the same fine cause. Remember that the French and American Governments and the Red Cross are co-operating with us in this work. The tobacco is admitted duty-free and the one-cent American stamp brings back the souvenir message from France.

In the party are Representative Dale, Vermont; Representative Schrank, Arkansas; Stephen Schrank, Arkansas; Hicks, New York; Johnson, Dill and Miller, of Washington; Goodwin, of Pennsylvania; Parker, New Jersey; ex-representative Stout, of Indiana; and Representative Hammond, Vermont, Neb., editor, and others.

Anthracite Operators Promise to Aid Nations

Washington, Oct. 17.—Anthracite operators, representing most of the country's hard coal producing provinces, pledged full support to the Government in its efforts to solve the problem. They agreed to name a representative to act as an assistant to the Federal Fuel Administrator. They also agreed to name a committee to represent the industry in all Government dealings. Coal has created an artificial shortage of anthracite at a time when the total production is more than sufficient to meet the domestic needs of the country. Individual housekeepers, especially, are obtaining fuel more readily during the winter. They have stocked up to such an extent that they are now having less trouble than ever in getting coal. What was equally an adequate production has been so hoarded that there is a shortage of coal for all consumers to get coal this winter.

COUNTY WELL REPRESENTED AT MEETING OF UNIONS

Endeavorers Crowd Here For Stirring Meeting; Hear Many Addresses; Those Who Attended

Endeavorers crowded the large auditorium of the Derry Street United Brethren Church at the closing session of the annual gathering held under the auspices of the Dauphin county and Harrisburg Christian Endeavor Union. A special anthem was rendered by the Harrisburg C. E. Choral Union, under the direction of Prof. Frank A. McCarrell.

Lewis P. Markley, of Lemoyne, the new president of the Harrisburg C. E. Union, was then introduced to the audience, as well as the other officers elected at yesterday's session. Prof. John F. Kob, president of the Dauphin County C. E. Union, was then introduced as the new president for the coming term. The song service by the Harrisburg C. E. Choral Union under the direction of J. Frank Palmer, was full of enthusiasm and Christian Endeavor spirit.

The principal address of the evening was delivered by Amos R. Wells, Litt. D., D. D., of Boston, managing editor of the Christian Endeavor World. He spoke on "Standards for Endeavorers for 1917-1918." He said in part: "The Christian Endeavor movement is a challenge to the world. I have no use for the stationary Christian Endeavor movement. Endeavorers always give 'can,' never 'cant.' Christian Endeavor is an interdenominational society. He proposed 'challenge years'—one society to challenge another in subscription for the Christian Endeavor World, for the denominational paper, and for new members. Mr. Wells is author of sixty-three Christian Endeavor books.

At the luncheon last evening Endeavorers enjoyed an interesting program. Paul A. Strickley was the toastmaster. He then introduced Amos R. Wells, Litt. D., D. D., of Boston, as the tall and great man from Christian Endeavor headquarters, the managing editor of the Christian Endeavor World. Dr. Wells spoke about the Pilgrims of Plymouth Rock. He said: "Our people in all of the great cities are Americans through and through. I take no stock in the reports of the press for new members. Country sprung with many nationalities and colors. We are one and some day we may have the notable moment of bringing in a federation of all peoples."

Other speakers on the program were Prof. John F. Kob, the Rev. J. A. Letor, Benjamin Whitman, J. Frank Palmer, Elmer S. Schilling, the Rev. George Edward Haves, pastor Market Street Presbyterian Church, the Rev. E. W. Stout, Miss Edna Rose, Baptist Church of God; the Rev. A. L. Taxis, Olivet Presbyterian Church, and the Rev. R. L. Meisenhelder, pastor Trinity Lutheran Church.

CALL FOR WORKERS

West Fairview, Pa., Oct. 17.—A call for more workers has been made by members of the executive committee of the West Fairview Red Cross Auxiliary. These officials ask that, beginning at the weekly sewing to-morrow, the squad of sewers double in number. This auxiliary has been doing splendid work, but more help is needed immediately, the officers claim.

MEAT SHORTAGE TO BE REAL THING

State Expert Calls Attention to the Way Things Are Trending in Penna. Now

If statistics prove anything, the American nation is facing a meat shortage unlike anything in history. What can be done to alleviate the shortage? The most important thing is to show up the true feeding value of corn silage and cottonseed meal as a cattle feed. If farmers generally understood the value of this combination, a great many more young cattle would be raised on the average farm. No feed is equal to it for cheap gains. While corn silage is by no means a new feed, still its feeding value when combined with a highly concentrated protein feed, such as cottonseed meal or linseed meal, is not generally well understood.
